and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Mrs. Clara Johnson for the reason that on said date defendant asked deponent to cash the annexed check marked Exhibit
"A". Defendant represented to deponent that the said check was good, and deponent believing defendants statement to be true gave to defendant twenty dollars and seventy cents.
Deponent is informed by Michael E. Duffy that

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

Fannie Johnson

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Fannie Johnson

of the CRIME OF Petit LARCENY, — committed as follows:

The said Fannie Johnson, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the seventh day of May, — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- ~~thirty~~ two, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one John McWilliam, — of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to her own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

John McWilliam, —

That a certain paper writing in the words and figures following, to wit:

New York May 7th 1892
Garfield Bank Bank, of the City of New York.

Pay to the order of John McWilliam
Twenty  $\frac{70}{100}$  Dollars
\$20  $\frac{70}{100}$

Mrs. Edgar Johnson

which she the said Fannie Johnson then and there produced and delivered to the said John McWilliams was then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money and of the value of twenty dollars and seventy cents.

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said

Jamie Johnson —

did then and there feloniously and fraudulently obtain from the possession of the said

John McWilliams the sum of twenty dollars and seventy cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of twenty dollars and seventy cents.

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said

John McWilliams —

with intent to deprive and defraud the said

John McWilliams, —

of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to her own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper writing was not then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money, and was not of the value of twenty dollars and seventy cents, or of any value, but was wholly worthless.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Fannie Johnson to the said John McWilliamis was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as she the said
Fannie Johnson
at the time of making the same then and there well knew;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said
Fannie Johnson
in the manner and form aforesaid and by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said John McWilliamis, then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

APPEARANCES:

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY HARRY D. MACDONA,

For THE PEOPLE.

MR. CANTON,

For THE DEFENSE.

JAMES ARCHIBALD, testified that he was a seaman, and lived in Bristol, England. He is a stranger in this City. On June 3rd, at half-past 6 o'clock, he was in the vicinity of the Brooklyn Bridge, looking for a sailor's boarding house, in which to lodge for the night. He had been, on that day, to the office of the British Consul, and had bought some things, and also had been down West Street. He was wrecked off Long Beach, and remained three months in the Long Branch hospital. After leaving, he came to this City for the purpose of returning home. He collected $30., his wages, from the Consul, and spent $10. and then started to look for a boarding house. He did not spend the $10. for Whiskey or beer, but for clothes. "About 6 o'clock," the witness testified, "there was four or five men rushed up to me, and one of them, this man, (indicating the defendant) grabbed me by the collar, and one man was behind me. I did not know who he was, and before I could look around me, like a flash of lightning, away went my watch and money out of my pocket. And I holloaed 'Police! Police!' and they ran away, and some children showed me the way to the police station, and an officer met me near the station and took me in, and while I was telling the story, the police brought the two men in, and I couldn't identify Smith, but this man had me by the collar of the jacket, and I recognized him. About $18. I lost and my watch. The watch was in the waistcoat pocket, and a swivel of the chain broke, and the chain hung down. The property was taken against his, the complainant's, will, and by force and violence. In the witness testified that he did not know in what part of the City he was, because he was a stranger, and did not know a street in New York; it was daylight; close to 7 o'clock. He could not say whether he was going towards the East River or any water. The witness, continuing, testified, "They all got around me, and one got me by the collar, and the other caught me from behind, and I had no use of my right hand or leg, and I could feel them going into my vest and my pants pocket. As soon as they got my property they flew--they ran away." The complainant drank two glasses of beer that day, but was perfectly sober. He did not get a chance to recognize his other assailants, but he was certain that the defendant was one of them. He saw him, the defendant, long enough to get a good view of him, as he, the defendant, was staring the complainant in the face, looking at him right in the face. The defendant had the complainant by the collar, and the complainant said, "Let go! Let go!" and then he called, "Police! Police!" He next saw the defendant in the station-house, the same evening. The policeman showed him Smith first, but the complainant could not identify him; but as soon as he, the complainant saw the defendant, he said, "That is one of them. That is the man." In R e - D i r e c t   E x a m i n a t i o n

the witness testified that when he was in the station house, the Sergeant asked him to stay there, as he had no money and no place to sleep. Therefore, he went into a cell. The door was open, and he walked up and down the corridor and while doing so, he had a conversation with the defendant. The witness testified that, "This man says to me, you are an old bugger, that has got me locked up, ain't you?" and I said, 'Yes. And you are the man that robbed and stole my watch.' and he said, 'Oh no; I don't take things like that. I am a hard working fellow. If you will go up to the Tombs do you know what they will do with you?' And I said, 'No'. And he said, 'They will keep you six months in the house of detention.' And I said, 'All right. They can keep me as long as they want.' And he said, 'You will give me five years if you come up from the House of Detention and identify me.' And then he said, if he got out from the Tombs he would give me $10. or $15.---I could not say whether it was $10. or $15.---when he got out of the Tombs. In the witness testified that there were two or three other prisoners in the cells when the conversation occurred. There was no officer about. It was just about day-light.

HENRY TAUSSMA testified that he was attached to the 4th precinct, and that Cherry Street was in that precinct, and it was in his tour of duty, which was from 6 o'clock in the evening until 12 o'clock. About half past-six o'clock he was in the neighborhood of Cherry Street, near Dover, and he saw the defendant there, about 200 feet from the corner of Dover Street. He heard a cry of "Police!" and looking in the direction of the cry, he saw the complainant, who was standing there. The witness ran in that direction, and saw the complainant standing there with a few children around, and his watch-chain hanging. He knew something was wrong, and he saw five or six men run towards Dover Street, and he chased them down Dover Street to Water, and down Water to Roosevelt, and through Roosevelt to South, and down to Catherine Slip, and they were turning up the slip when officer Gilmartin headed them off. Two of them ran through South Street, and the other three started to run up through Catherine Slip. Of the three that started to run up Catherine Slip, the defendant was one, and Smith was the other one; and the other one got away; he ran into Water Street. Gilmartin caught Smith, and the witness arrested the defendant. He pursued the men between six and seven blocks before he caught them. The streets through which they ran were very quiet, and it was on a Saturday night, a half holiday, and it was like Sunday there, it was so quiet, and the witness saw not a person except the five men, during the entire chase; and the men ran together and kept together. When he took the defendant to the station-house, he found the complainant there. As soon as the complainant saw the defendant, Jones, he said, "There is the man that robbed me," shaking his stick at the defendant, Jones. The witness said to the complainant, "How about this man?" meaning Smith. The complainant said that he could not identify him, but he was positive as to the defendant, Jones. In the witness testified that when he first heard the cry of "Police!" the old man was on Cherry Street, near Dover. The witness was about 25 or 40 feet away from the defendant when he commenced to run. When the witness first saw the men, they were not standing, but were running, and the witness pursued them. There was nothing found on the defendant.

JAMES GILMARTIN testified that he was attached to the 7th precinct, and he was on duty in the 7th precinct. b Between 6 and 7 o'clock on the evening in question, he was standing at the corner of Catherine Slip and South Street. He heard an officer's whistle, and looked in the direction of it, and saw three men darting past behind his, the witness's, back. The prisoner was one of the men. He was last, Smith was next, and a man unknown to the witness, was first, and he escaped. The witness started in pursuit of the men, and tried to head off the first one, but only caught the second. He turned Smith over to officer Tobin, and Taussman had Jones. In the witness testified that all he knew of the crime charged in the indictment was that he saw the defendant running, and pursued him, and the other officer captured him, and he caught Smith.

GEORGE JONES, the defendant, testified, in his own behalf, that he was 25 years of age,,and lived at 229 Munroe Street, between Scammel and Jackson Streets. That place was about 15 blocks from the scene of the robbery. He was in trouble before. On the evening of June 3rd he was down on South Street. The defendant, continuing, testified: "I was walking through South Street, and I see a couple of fellows running, and I ran to see what was the matter, and I did not know nothing until an officer blew his whistle, and I stopped short, and he put his hand on my before I had time to turn around, and then I seen another officer catch another fellow, Smith. And they asked me, "Where is that man's watch?" And I said, "What man's watch are you talking about?" And they fetched us up a little way, and they searched me and Smith, and they did not find anything on us at all. And then one of the officers said, 'This must be the wrong man'. And then he said, 'We will fetch him down to the house anyhow.' That meant the station-house. We went down to the station-house and we were there a little while when this fellow, this here Archibald, came in, and they says, 'Is this the man?' There was two detectives in there at the time; and the sergeant was not in behind the desk, and the detectives said, 'You tell the Sergeant for to hold this man till we get back.' And the Sergeant came in, and they searched us, and found 10 cents with me, and $2.00 with Smith. And they asked Mr. Archibald was it me and Smith. He said no. And then the officer went to the Sergeant and said to the Sergeant, 'You lock them down until the two detectives comes in.' And they locked us in the cell, and they fetched us out a little while after that, and they had Mr. Archibald there, and they said, 'Is this them?' and he said, he lifted up his stick, and he said, 'Yes, it is the two of them,' and in court the next morning he swore to the two of us, he swore that it was me and Smith; and then at the examination he swore only to me, and he said, 'I don't know Smith at all.' And in the meantime the officers got my character, and they told the man to say it was me." The defendant admitted that he did not hear the officers tell the complainant to swear that he, the defendant, was the man who committed the robbery. He denied that he said to Archibald, when in his, the defendant's cell, "you are the old bugger that got me locked up;" or that he, the complainant, said to him, the defendant, "Yes; and you are the man that took my watch and money; or that he, the defendant, said that he, the complain/ ant, would be locked up in the House of Detention; for six months; or that he, the defendant said to the complainant, that he, the defendant, would get five years, or something like that; or that he, the defendant, said to him, the complainant, that if he, the defendant, got out of the Tombs, he would give him, the complainant, $10. or $15. The defendant admitted that he had a conversation with Archibald, while the latter was walking around outside near the cells. The defendant testified, "I called him over and I said, 'Say, boss, was I one of them people that was near me?' and he said, 'You did not touch me, but you was there.' And I said, 'Who was?' and he said, 'Well, I know your face some place.' and I said, 'That maybe.' and I said, 'If you say anything against me, you have got the wrong man.' That is all I said to him. The defendant denied that he assaulted the complainant in Cherry Street; or that he caught him by the collar; or that he was in Cherry Street at all that night; or that he was in Dover Street.

He admitted that he was in James Slip and through South Street. In the witness testified that he was at the examination in the police court; that he had been in trouble before, and that he is now under indictment for robbery committed in February. He was convicted on June 22nd or 23rd, 1887, and was sentenced by Recorder Smyth to 7 years and six months, for grand larceny in the first degree, in stealing a watch, in the night time.

APPEARANCES:

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY H. W. MacDONA,

For THE PEOPLE.

AMBROSE H. PURDY, ESQUIRE,

For THE DEFENSE.

JAMES ARCHIBALD, THE COMPLAINANT, being duly sworn, testified that his home was in Bristol, England. He was a seaman. He had been in the hospital for three months. He was discharged from the hospital on the 2nd of June. He went to the English Consuls, and the Consul gave him money. He went to the Consul on June 3rd, about 11 o'clock in the morning. The Consul gave him $30.00.. He received two ten dollar bills, and the rest in two dollar bills. He spent $10.00 of the money in buying underclothes, and various other things. Between six and seven o'clock, on the evening of the 3rd of June, he was walking through some street, the name of the street he did not know, but it was somewhere around the bridge. He was trying to find a sailor's home. He was quite lame, as he was suffering with rheumatism. Four or five men rushed up to him. One of the men took a hold of him on each side, and one took hold of his shoulder. He said, "Let me go." And he shouted for the police. He had a watch in his pocket at the time. The men let him go, and ran away. He then found that his watch chain was hanging down, and he put his hand in his pocket and found that his watch and money were gone. His watch was in his vest pocket, and was fastened to his vest by a chain. His money was in his right hand trousers pocket. He, the witness, identified the co-defendant as the man who had hold of his shoulder. He still continued to call for police, and a lot of small children gathered around him, and told him to go to the police station. He did not know where the station was, but the children directed him to it. He went to the station house and made a complaint. The defendants were taken into the station house while he was there.

In cross-examination the complainant testified that he did not identify the defendant as one of the men who had a hold of him. He identified the co-defendant as one of the men. The robbery was committed very quickly.

OFFICER HENRY TOUSSMA, being duly sworn, testified that he was attached to the 4th precinct police. He was on duty on the night of the 3rd of June, between 6 and 7 o'clock, on Cherry street, between James Slip and Franklin Square. He saw the complainant on his beat on that night. He first saw the complainant on Cherry street near Dover. He saw the defendant, the co-defendant, and three other men there also. The complainant was standing still when he first saw him. He, the witness, was about the center of the block, between Dover and Roosevelt streets, when he heard a call for police. He started to run towards the cry, and he saw the complainant standing with his watch chain hanging down and five men running away from him. He pursued the men who were running. The men ran through Dover street towards Water, and through Water street towards Roosevelt, and down Roosevelt to South street. He, the witness, was blowing his whistle while chasing the men, and there was a policeman on the corner of Catherine Slip. The policeman caught the defendant. Two of the men then ran through South street and the other two up Catherine Slip. He, the witness, caught the co-defendant, Jones. Officer Gilmartin arrested the defendant. He took the defendant to the station house. He found the complainant in the station house when he took the defendant there. Officer Gilmartin handed his prisoner over to Officer Tobin. The complainant did not identify the defendant, but he positively identified the co-defendant. When he, the witness, captured the defendant, the defendant was panting. He said to the defendant, "Where is that stuff?" The defendant said, "I ain't got any stuff." He, the witness, then searched the defendant, but he did not find any of the complainant's property on him. He said to the defendant, "What was you running for?" The defendant said, "What have you got me for?" He said to the defendant, "You ought to know." The defendant said, "Why, I was running for a car." He, the witness, said, "All right. You can hear of that afterwards." He had seen the defendant before the night in question.

In cross-examination the witness testified that he did not have any conversation with the complainant before he arrested the defendant. It was nearly under the bridge where he saw the complainant. That neighborhood was quiet at that time of night; there were no dwelling houses thereabouts. He, the witness, did not lose sight of the men; he kept his eye on them all the time.

OFFICER JAMES GILMARTIN, being duly sworn, testified that he was attached to the 7th precinct police. He, the witness, was standing on the corner of Catherine Slip when his attention was attracted by a police whistle. He saw three men running, and an officer running behind them, blowing his whistle. He grabbed one of the men who were running, and Officer Tausma caught the other one. One of the men escaped. He wanted the defendant to run with him, so that he could catch the other man, but the defendant would not run. He gave the defendant into the custody of Officer Tobin, of the 4th precinct.

In cross-examination the witness testified that he did not see five men running. He did not see any children running. The defendant did run with him, but he did not think the defendant ran as fast as he could, because he had seen the defendant run before that..

(No defence was offered.)

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS,

Part 3.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, )
--against-- )
THOMAS GRIFFIN. )
AND A JURY.

NEW YORK, JUNE 26TH, 1893.

INDICTMENT FILED JUNE 19TH, 1893.

INDICTED FOR BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE.

APPEARANCES:

FOR THE PEOPLE, ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY B.S.WEEKS.
FOR THE DEFENDANT, MR.J.ANDREWS.

CONRAD KNEARING, a witness for The People, sworn, testified: My place of business is at 179 Grand Street. I am a dealer in plumbing material. On the night of the 6th of June I closed my place of business at half-past 5. On the morning of the 7th of June I got to my store at a few minutes before 7. When I arrived, my attention was called to a lot of brass faucets that were out of their place. I looked around the store, and I discovered that one particular shelf of goods was empty. That shelf had contained brass faucets. I reported at the station-house, in Mulberry Street, that a burglary had been perpetrated at my store. The value of the property taken was about $25. I saw some of my property afterwards at the station-house, and identified it.

*****

CORNELIUS D. SCULLY, a witness for The People, sworn, testified: I am a police officer, attached to the 10th Precinct. I first learned of the burglary at the complainant's premises at about a quarter of 9 on the 7th of June. I went to the place and investigated it. I found that a door had been broken leading to the areaway, and I went around the neighborhood looking it up. I arrested Thomas Gill, and, as the result of a conversation with him, I arrested Griffin. When I arrested Griffin I asked him what he had done with those brass goods he stole. He told me he did not know anything about it. I told him I would place him under arrest. He denied all knowledge of it at that time. I brought him to the station-house and confronted him with Gill and the other man. Gill stated that they had sold the goods in a store on South Street. He took me to the store at 189 South Street, and I procured the brass faucets. They were afterwards identified by the complainant in this case. I did not promise Gill any immunity from punishment if he told me where these faucets were pawned.

*****

BENJAMIN F. BRIGHT, a witness for The People, sworn, testified: I am in the hardware business at 189 South Street, in this City. I recognized the defendant, Thomas Griffin. He came into my place about the 10th of June, and sold me some brass faucets. When he produced them ~~he~~

(3)

I told him they were rather out of my line, but, as he offered them very cheap, I bought them. The officer afterwards came to my store and took the goods away with him. I am positive that the defendant is the person who sold me those faucets.

*****

THE DEFENSE.

---

THOMAS GRIFFIN, the defendant, sworn, testified: I am 26 years of age, and, by occupation, I am a driver. I did not break into the premises 179 Grand Street, on the night of the 6th of June, or at any other time. I never stole the faucets in question. I know Gill, and the other man who was arrested, charged with this offense. I was not with them at the time they broke into these premises. I have never been convicted of any offense before. I always worked steadily.

C r o s s - E x a m i n a t i o n .

I did not sell any brass goods to Mr. Bright. I never had any trouble with Mr. Bright. I don't know any reason why he should come here and swear falsely against me. One morning I met Gill and the other defendant, and they asked me to take a walk with them down to South Street, as they wanted to dispose of some stuff. I did not know what the stuff was. They asked me if I would walk a little distance behind them. I did so. When they reached South Street they went into a store. I remained outside. I did not know what the stuff was they were selling, and I did not share in any part of the proceeds. After they had received the money, I went into a liquor store with them and had a drink. I had no knowledge that the goods that they were selling in Mr. Bright's store were stolen goods. I did not ask either of the men any questions about what they were going to sell. The reason I walked a distance behind them was that they asked me to do so. I was not watching out for any policeman.

*****

EDWARD J. CLARK, a witness for the Defendant, sworn, testified: I live at 556 Broome Street. I am in the trucking business. I know the defendant for about 4 years. He has been in my employ. His character for honesty and industry is good.

STATE OF NEW YORK, ss. Hon. Sir.

Suburban State Prison
Suburban 9.9.

Enclosed you will find a brief synopsis from memory of the evidence on which I was convicted of Highway Robbery. Although I am a humble man under degradation and have no political influence, I desire to ask your kindly offices on my behalf. It is your business to prosecute and undoubtedly it is owing to your forensic ability and power with the Jury that I am where I am, but Sir I feel sure that having indicated the Majesty of the Law you have no personal feeling against me. I am in a bad state of health suffering from Tuberculosis and am under orders to be transferred to Barrme more as the only means in confinement to rescue me from a felon's prison. I would briefly submit to your kindly consideration some of the reasons why I should receive executive clemency. First the evidence is purely circumstantial. No proceeds of the Robbery were found in my possession. I have never been charged nor convicted before of crime. I have always gained an honest livelihood by the sweat of my brow.

Secondly. The prosecutor did not identify me as an assailant and it must be self evident to a man of your legal acumen that a novice in crime does not begin his career by Highway Robbery - I have never committed in my life the simplest petty larceny much more this crime I am now suffering for. I am innocent. But waiving for the moment this plea I beg your merciful consideration on account of my precarious health. Will you not approve my petition for executive clemency.

I wish to return home to my loyal wife who has had to battle so hard to support the family.

In freedom I could in all probability be restored to health and continue to live an honest sober life.

Trusting you will give me your earnest consideration and kindly reply Affirmative or Negative.

Counsel for Defence. Counsellor Ambrose Purdy.

James J. Smith. Tried on the Indictment of "Highway Robbery" found guilty and sentenced to six years in the New York State Prison.

Summary of Evidence.

Officer Hansenman. deposed "I had just come on post and was walking up cherry st when this man told me that he had been robbed and I saw four men running I ran after them down Dover st via Water st via Roosevelt to Catherine's Slip, another Officer stopped the defendant James J. Smith. I came up and arrested the other defendant Jones, the other two succeeded in making their escape, when I had hold of this man I asked him to run with me that I might capture the other two men.

Cross-examined. Did he run? Not as fast as he might have done. Did you search him? We searched both prisoners but found no evidence of the robbery on their person, we only found some change belonging to themselves.

Second Officer deposed.

I was on my post at Bathamine Slip when I heard an officer whistle and saw ~~another man~~ this man running in the same direction with several others and I caught the man Jones, but the others escaped. We searched them but only found some change that evidently belonged to themselves.

Prosecutor - Henry Archibald, deposed

I was walking up Cherry Hill when several men laid hold of me and took forty dollars and my watch and chain. I did <sup>not</sup> see the defendant James. I. Smith, there were about four of the men who robbed me, some in front, others behind, I cannot identify the defendant James. Smith, but this man Jones took hold of me around the neck, I am an English sailor and was going to the sailors home Long Harbor at the time I was robbed.

The above is a transcript of the evidence as far as I can remember it.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART I.

The People of the State of New York,

against t

Henry Jones .

: Befo re

: Hon. Rufus E. Cowing
: and a jury.

Indictment filed June 27, 1893.

Indicted for assault in the first degree.

New York, July 6, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People, Asst. Dist. Atty. John F. McIntyre;

For the Defendant, J. Andrews, Esq.

CHARLES GUMBY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 4 Carmine Street and was living there on the 15th. day of June 1893. I met the defendant on that day coming down in a Sixth Avenue car. We were near Bleecker Street. He asked me to come in and have a drink with him. I went into a saloon on the corner of Carmine and Bleecker Streets. I should judge that this would be about half past eight o'clock in the morning. Another young fellow by the name of Ike went in with us and had a drink. The defendant said to me: "This will be the last drink you will ever take with me". I asked him what the trouble was. He had some trouble with a girl and said what he was going to do to her. He came up to my room in company with this other man and when there I went out to buy him a sandwich and also to get some whiskey. While I was gone he took some clothes of mine from the room and walked off with them to a pawn-shop. On my return, hearing of this, I started in pursuit of him. I found him at No. 200 Wooster Street. I asked him what he wanted to do that for. It was a nice way to treat me in my own house. I told him I wanted the pawn ticket for my coat and vest. We were put out of the house by the landlord and when we got down in the street I turned my head to look towards Bleecker Street and he fired a shot and hit me here in the shoulder. I turned again and he fired another shot which struck me in the side. Both bullets penetrated my body and were afterwards extracted by a physician at the Hospital. At the time of the firing the defendant said nothing to me whatever. An officer was summoned and he was taken to the Station House. I went to St. Vincent's Hospital where I remained for nine days.

Cross-examination:

I was a porter on a boat before my arrest. I had been working steadily ever since the 11th. of June until the day I was shot. On that day I was not working. As I have stated the defendant stole my coat and vest and it was by reason of that fact that I started in pursuit of him. I had two drinks of whiskey on that morning but was not under the influence of liquor. I was informed of the larceny of my wearing apparel by the man whom I left in the room with the defendant. The landlord at the house where I found him told us she did not want any further argument in her premises and we went down to the ✓ street. I did not strike the defendant with a stick or with any other weapon. I was shot at about half past twelve or one o'clock in the day. I was more than eight or ten feet from the defendant at the time he fired the first shot at me.

FRANK MANTELL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 4 Carmine Street. I am a waiter by occupation. I was in the rooms of the complainant at the time he speaks of. I saw the defendant leave the room after Jones left and take Jones' coat and vest with him. When Jones came back I told him of this occurrence and we both started in pursuit of the defendant. We went to No. 200 Wooster Street and I demanded the pawn ticket from the defendant. He did not give it to us. We all went downstairs then and when we got in the street I saw the defendant fire two shots from a revolver at the body of the complainant. Both bullets entered his body. The defendant ran but was shortly afterwards arrested by an officer.

Cross-examination:

I saw the defendant on that day for the first time at about half past seven o'clock in the morning. I did not hear him make the remark which the complainant has testified he did make. I was not drinking with them at that time. I did not use any violence towards the defendant at the time we went into the house 200 Wooster 4.

Street and demanded the return of the pawn ticket. I got eighteen months at one time for larceny. I do not carry a razor. I have never been convicted of assault.

WILLIAM H. KLAMM, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 15th. Precinct. I arrested the defendant at the bar on the morning of June 15th. on the complaint of Mr. Charles Gumby. I heard a shot fired and going down in the direction from which the sound came I saw these three men. about to The defendant was shot for the third time when I caught hold of his hand and knocked the revolver out of it. Two cartridges had been discharged from the revolver when I examined it.

Cross-examination:

I was about a block away at the time I heard the first shot. The men were ten or twelve feet apart at the time I reached the scene of occurrence. I saw the second shot fired and the defendant was about to fire the third shot when I caught his hand.

DEFENSE.

HENRY JONES, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am a cook at 150 Bleecker Street. I left Joseph Dike at 150 Bleecker Street about the 12th. of June because he would not pay me any more money. On the day of this trouble I was about to go to New Jersey to take a place there as cook in a country boarding house. I had this revolver in my pocket. I was at Gumby's house in the morning but did not steal any clothes. He came into my room at 200 Wooster Street and demanded a pawn ticket of me. I told him I had no pawn ticket belonging to him or anything else. The man with him, Philip Mantell, had a razor in his hands at the time but the razor was not open. We then went down on the sidewalk and the complainant said: "If you don't give me my coat and vest I will cut the head off you". I told him I did not have it. We then got into a struggle and I pulled this revolver and shot. I thought that he intended to hurt me at the time and that is the reason I fired the revolver. I did not intend to injure him. After firing off the revolver I started to run and threw the revolver into the street. A citizen caught hold of me and turned me over to the officer. I only fired off the revolver because I believed that my life was in danger.

Cross-examination:

I have never been convicted of any crime. I receive $3 a week from Mr. Pike who kept the restaurant at 150 Eleecker Street. I was going to New Jersey to take a place where I would be paid $9 a week. I bought this pistol on the day before in a pawn shop in order that I might have protection going out into the country. I intended to walk to my destination in New Jersey as I had no money. The pistol cost me $1.50. I borrowed that money from a friend of mine.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the first degree.

deposes and says, that on the 16 day of May 1899 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

a tortoise shell box containing a number of gold rings and jewelry of the value of about One Hundred Dollars $100.00

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Joel Jones, Mrs. Jones, for the following reasons. That on said date, deponent left the said property in her room in the above mentioned hotel and went out. That when deponent returned the property was gone. That deponent is informed by Mary J. Robinson that on said date she, Mary, saw the defendant is further informed by Lucy Robinson that on the 18th day of May the defendant gave Lucy a gold ring which said deponent has seen and fully and positively identifies as part of the property taken on said date. That when arrested the defendant had another ring in his possession which Deponius has also seen and identified as her property and part of the property taken on said date.

Therefore Deponius charges the defendant with having feloniously taken, stolen and carried away the said property and pray that he,

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

John Jones

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse
John Jones
of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said

John Jones

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the thirteenth day of June — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety three —, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of one James Richardson in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault, and him the said

James Richardson — with a certain sharp instrument to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown — which the said John Jones in his — right hand then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, then and there wilfully and feloniously did strike, beat, cut, stab and wound,

with intent him the said James Richardson — thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said
John Jones
of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said

John Jones

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said
James Richardson — in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and him the said

James Richardson — with a certain sharp instrument to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown
which the said John Jones in his — right hand then and there had and held, the same being a weapon and an instrument likely to produce grievous bodily harm, then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, cut, stab and wound, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said

John Jones
of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said

John Jones

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the said James Richardson in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and him the said

James Richardson — with a certain sharp instrument to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown

which he the said John Jones —

in his right hand then and there had and held, in and upon the back and neck of him the said James Richardson

then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, stab, cut, bruise and wound, and did then and there and by the means aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully and wrongfully inflict grievous bodily harm upon the said against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

----- : BUREAU OF FIRE MARSHAL : -----

New York, June 12th, 1893.

-----
IN THE MATTER OF THE INVESTIGATION
as to the cause and origin of the fire occurring at 7 30 p.m. on the 10th inst. at No.
60 East 61st Street.
-----

JULIA JALDSCHÉ, being examined by the FIRE MARSHAL, testifies as follows:

- Q. What is your full name? A. JULIA JALDSCHÉ.
- Q. How old are you? A. 27.
- Q. You are a cook? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You were here ( No. 60 East 61st St.) on Saturday evening when the fire occurred? A. Yes sir.
- Q. How long was it before the fire that you had been upstairs in your room in which the fire occurred? A. Six o'clock in the morning - not in the afternoon.
- Q. After the family went to dinner in the evening were you upstairs in the room? A. No sir.
- Q. How did you first hear of the fire? A. I smelled it.
- Q. Where were you when you smelled it? A. The child called my attention to it. The child was in the kitchen with me and said there was smoke.
- Q. What did you do? A. The other servant was coming out of the dining room and called my attention to the smell of smoke also and told me to go upstairs to see where the fire was.
- Q. You went upstairs? A. I went to the top floor looking in each room as I went. I went as far as the door of my room on the top floor.
- Q. Then what did you do? A. I opened the door.

- Q. Did you see any one there?      A. No one was in the room.
The room was full of smoke.
- Q. What did you do then?      A. I ran down to get water.
- Q. When you went upstairs after having had your attention called to the smoke, did you see the colored man William?      A. I did not see the colored man; he had left the house five or ten minutes before.
- Q. How do you know he left the house five or ten minutes before?      A. I say five or ten minutes simply to express a very short period of time.      I saw him come down stairs, put on his coat and go out saying he had to go out for the Doctor.
- Q. By what door did he go out?      A. The basement door.
- Q. Did he bring a ladder with him when he came down stairs?      A. Yes sir.
- Q. Is that all he said to you when he went out?      A. Before he went out I spoke to him.      I asked him what was the matter, at the same time noticing a peculiar expression of his face. He looked frightened.
- Q. What did he say?      A. He said that he had to go out to look for the doctor.
- Q. When you went upstairs did you notice whether the hall door was closed or open?      A. I did not notice.
- Q. If it had been open would you have noticed it?      A. Oh, yes sir.
- Q. You remember the fire of Thursday night?      A. Yes sir.
- Q. Had you any conversation with William after the fire?      A. I have spoken to him since that fire.
- Q. Was anything said about that fire?      A. Yes sir.
- Q. What did he say?      A. She must be careless with the matches.
- Q. Who did he mean when he said she?      A. The other servant, Ida.
- Q. Did Ida say anything to you on Friday about her money and bank book that she had in the trunk?      A. No sir.
- Q. did she say to you that she had her bank book and money in the trunk and she was glad it was not burned up, or words to that effect? A. Yes sir.

Q. Was William present at that time? A. Yes sir. He heard it and laughed.

Q. Did he say anything? A. Ida left the room and William then said she spent all her money for dresses.

Q. Was anything else said to you? A. He made the remark, "she is a bad girl".

Q. After Saturday's evening's fire while Ida was out to the dress-maker's, did William say something to you about her? A. Yes sir. Ida left the house soon after her supper on Saturday evening to go to the dress-maker's. The colored man came down soon after and asked where Ida was. I said Ida had gone out to the dress-maker's. William then asked "why is she out to-night". I then said she had no time to go yesterday or on Thursday on account of the fire to-day (Saturday) and to-morrow is Sunday. He then said "I don't think she has any money to pay for the dresses".

Q. Was that all that was said? A. That is all.

Q. Did you see William sharpening a knife on Saturday night?

A. No sir. I saw him take the cook's large bread knife from the table and put it behind his back and move off to the wash tubs.

Q. What did he do with the knife? A. He put it behind his back and moved towards the wash tubs and placed it among the silver he was cleaning in the butler's tray.

Q. Did he say anything about Ida at that time? A. He asked repeatedly when Ida was coming back.

Q. Did he say anything further about her? A. He asked for the address of Ida's friends.

Q. That same evening? A. Yes sir:

Q. Did you give it to him? A. I did not know it.

-4-

- Q. You see those papers? (Showing same) A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you ever see them before? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Where? A. I saw them when Ida brought them from the dress-maker's.
- Q. When did you next see the papers? A. Ida showed them to me and William in the kitchen after the first fire.
- Q. When did you see them again? A. I found them yesterday in William's coat.
- Q. When did you find them in the coat? A. About four o'clock in the afternoon.
- Q. Where was the coat when you examined it? A. Hanging in the kitchen where it always hung.
- Q. You found all those papers in the coat? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Was there anything else in his coat pocket? A. Matches were found in his pocket.
- Q. Was that the same coat he had been wearing during the day up to the time of his arrest in the house? A. He had worn it during the morning.
- Q. Did you see him take it off? A. No sir.
- Q. Was it the coat he usually wore in the house? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you ever miss anything from your room? A. No sir.

The above testimony is a true copy of notes taken by E. J.
Loughman, Stenographer.

IDA ENGSTROM, being examined by the FIRE MARSHAL, testifies as follows:

- 11479
- Q. What is your full name? A. IDA ENGSTROM.
- Q. You are waitress and chamber-maid in this house? (No. 60 East 61st Street.) A. Yes sir.
- Q. You had had some trouble with William Jones before Thursday's fire? A. Yes sir, the same day, in the morning.
- Q. Please tell me as well as you can what the trouble was? A. It was not a big trouble. I was cleaning down the stairs as I do usually just outside the office door and the colored man William was in this office. When I saw him first, he said "good morning" and then he lit the gas. He went back in the office and then he came out and he asked me "Ida please come here for a minute" and I said "yes, I will come right away," because I thought he wanted me to help to lift something. As I came in he caught my arm and tried to hold me fast but I told him "William please do not touch me" and he did not pay any attention to that and he said he would not do me any harm. I think he said "just stay for a second". I did not say anything; I only told him "if you do not leave me right away I will holler out loud!" I then ran down stairs in the dining room.
- Q. Did he say anything to you that day afterwards? A. No sir. He looked mad the whole day.

- Q. Did he speak to you in the afternoon at all? A. He spoke to me but only on business.
- Q. Did he appear to be very angry with you in the afternoon?
- A. He did not appear to be so very angry in the afternoon as in the morning.
- Q. You acted as though nothing had happened in the forenoon to make you feel angry with him? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Where were you at the time the fire took place on Thursday?
- A. I was in the dining room.
- Q. What was the last time you went in your room before the fire?
- A. About half past six or twenty minutes to seven.
- Q. Had you been up there after that? A. No sir.
- Q. Was Julia there? A. No sir.
- Q. Had you used a match in the room? A. No sir.
- Q. Did you use any light at all? A. No sir.
- Q. When did you leave the room - about what hour? A. It was half past six.
- Q. Then there was no fire in the room? A. No sir.
- Q. Nothing to make a fire? A. No sir.
- Q. Who was upstairs after that hour? A. Only the colored boy.
- Q. Had you lost a watch before that? A. Yes sir, a silver hair pin and a check for $18.
- Q. Who drew the check? A. Miss Fridenburg. After the check was stolen Miss Fridenburg went to the bank and stopped the payment.
- Q. On Saturday, the time of the last fire, where were you? A. I was down stairs in the dining room waiting on the table. I just commenced to wait on the table.
- Q. How long before that were you upstairs on the top floor?
- A. I think about five o'clock.
- Q. Did you open your trunk at that time? A. No sir.
- Q. When had you last opened your trunk? A. Saturday morning.

-3-

- Q. Did you go to the trunk to get anything? A. No sir.
- Q. Why did you open the trunk? A. I was looking at my things.
- Q. Did you lock the trunk after that? A. Yes, I locked the trunk and put the key in my pocket.
- Q. You must have had some object in going to the trunk at that time - can you recollect? A. I went to the trunk to see the things I had in it and some I had in the bureau draw.
- Q. You had opened your trunk before that since the first fire? A. As soon as the fire was out I hurried in, opened my trunk and took out my money and bank book.
- Q. What did you do with the book and money? A. The money I gave to Miss Fridenberg right away and the book I put in the closet in the dining room, and Miss Fridenberg asked me where I put it and I told her.
- Q. What did Miss Fridenberg say? A. She said it was not right to put it there and I gave it to Miss Fridenberg who took charge of it.
- Q. When you opened your trunk after the first fire, was there any thing burning in the trunk? A. No sir.
- Q. Had you ever put in your trunk any papers saturated with kerosene oil? A. No sir.
- Q. Had you any insurance on your trunk? A. No sir.
- Q. Had you a policy of insurance in your trunk? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you take that out with the bank book? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You had no insurance on your trunk and clothes? A. No sir.
- Q. Did you see the last fire? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Who was the first to discover it? A. Mr. Harry discovered it.
- Q. Who first told you of the fire? A. Miss Fridenberg smelled something and at the same time I smelled it too.
- Q. What did you do then? A. I went to the kitchen to the cook and asked if anything was burning and she said nothing and I hurried upstairs. When I came on this (first) floor, I smelled kerosene and I thought it came from the lamp in the middle hall. The lamp in the middle hall however was not burning. Then I hurried upstairs and smelled kerosene.

Q. How far did you go? A. I went to the top floor and looked in each room on each floor.

Q. Had any one been upstairs before you? A. No sir.

Q. Did Julia go before you? A. No sir. I hollered to Julia and she followed me up and when I came up on the top floor, it smelled of kerosene and there was smoke in the room and it smelled of kerosene.

Q. Did you go in your room? A. The trunk was on fire and it appeared to be inside of the trunk and smoke came out of the trunk. Nothing else was on fire in the room.

Q. Did you open the trunk then? A. No sir.

Q. Did you see William on your way up? A. No sir, I did not see him leave the house at all.

Q. You dont know where he was at that time? A. No sir.

Q. You see these papers? (showing same) A. Yes sir.

Q. You know them? A. Yes sir, I had them in my pocket book in one of the top draws in the dining room closet.

Q. When did you last see those papers in your pocket book?

A. Saturday morning I showed them in the kitchen because I was talking about my dresses I brought from the dress-maker's. I told William and the cook I had paid $13. and William said what an idea you dont pay $13. for such a dress and I showed him the bill.

Q. These two bills were in your pocket book on Saturday morning?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What did you do with the pocket book then? A. I put the bills back in the pocket book and put the book in the same place.

-5-

- Q. Where is the pocket book now? A. I could not find it. I looked for it yesterday when I was going out and I could not find it.
- Q. Do you know what has become of it? A. I do not know.
- Q. Do you know where the papers were found? A. Yes sir, the cook helped me to look for the pocket book and when she looked in William's coat she found the papers in the coat he was wearing yesterday and which he took off before the arrest.
- Q. You saw him wearing the same coat yesterday? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You know those papers and will know them again should you see them? (papers marked) A. Yes sir.
- Q. What kind of a coat was it? A. A black thin short coat.
- Q. Did you ever hear anything as to the whereabouts of your watch silver pin or check? A. Nothing at all.
- Q. And you have not been able to find your pocket book? A. No sir.
- Q. Did William ever make any threats against you, that he would get even with you or be revenged on you in any way? A. He told me Saturday morning, "I dont like you. You are a fine one" but I dont know why he said it.
- Q. Do you recall speaking to Julia-(Cook) in the kitchen after the first fire in the presence of William about your having had your money and bank book in the trunk? A. Yes sir. I said I was very happy that I had my bank book and my money and my insurance papers safe.
- Q. Did you say you had had them in your trunk? A. Yes sir.
- Q. That you had taken them out of your trunk and put them elsewhere? A. No sir, not in his presence. I said so to Julia afterwards.
- Q. You did not say then in the presence of William that you had taken your bank book and money out of your trunk? A. No sir.
- Q. Then as far as you know he supposed the bank book and money were still in the trunk? A. Yes sir.

- Q. Have you ever lost any other property?     A. No sir.
- Q. Have you ever had any other trouble with William other than that which occurred on Thursday?     A. No sir, he has always been polite to me.
- Q. He did not make any threats after that occurrence?     A. No sir. He only looked angry and said on Saturday morning he did not like me and that I was a fine one.
- Q. And you are very sure nothing was done by you on Saturday that would cause that fire in your trunk?     A. No sir.
- Q. You dont suppose Julia would set fire to the trunk?     A. No sir.
- Q. Julia never had your key?     A. No sir.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE
IN AND FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

-----X
The People of the State of New York:

--against--

William Jones.
-----X

Take Notice, that upon the annexed affidavit of William M. Bennett, I shall move for the dismissal of the indictments filed June 22, 1893, against the defendant, for arson and for violation of Section 654 of the Penal Code, before the Hon. Allison, Judge of this Court, at Part I thereof, on October 5, 1895, at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, on the ground that he has not been brought to trial within the time required by law. New York, October 2, 1895.

William M. Bennett,
Attorney for defendant,
44 Wall Street,
New York City.

To
Hon. John R. Fellows,
District Attorney, New York County.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE
IN AND FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

-----X
The People of the State of New York:

--against--

William Jones.
-----X

City and County of New York:

William M. Bennett, being duly sworn, says:

1. I am the attorney for the defendant herein.

2. On June 11, 1893, the defendant was arrested on suspicion of having started a fire in the dwelling house No. 60 East 61st Street, New York City, and was remanded to the Tombs, to await the action of the Grand Jury. On June 22, 1893, two indictments were filed against the defendant, one for arson in the first degree and the other for malicious mischief (violation of Section 654 of the Penal Code). On June 23, 1893, the defendant pleaded "not guilty" to both indictments. Being unable to obtain bail, the defendant was kept in prison. On February 26, 1894, the defendant's attorney moved for the discharge of the defendant, on the ground that he had not been brought to trial at the next term of court, as required by law, and the late Judge Randolph B. Martine, on March 19, 1894, granted an order discharging the defendant on his own recognizance. On the back of the indictment for arson, is the following endorsement:

"This defendant has been in prison since June 1893 and a motion is made to discharge defendant for failure to prosecute. The District Attorney's representative stated that he would try this case last week. The motion coming on now in due course, it having been adjourned by me to this date, and the District Attorney not appearing and making no answer to the Court, in explanation of the delay, defendant is discharged on his own recognizance.

March 19, 1894.

R. B. M., J."

3. The defendant has not yet been brought to trial, although one year and seven months have elapsed since the said order of discharge, and although two years and nearly four months have elapsed since the said indictments were filed.

POLICE COURT

Police Court, 1st District.

City and County } of New York, } ss.

of No. 159 East 67th

occupation Fire Marshal

James Mitchell
Street, aged 53 years,
on information and belief being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 22nd day of April 1893, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, One Jacob J. Kaiser, now present, did at or about the hour of 9 45 o'clock p.m., wilfully and feloniously set fire to and burn the building known as No. 438 Broadway, a building devoted to business purposes, situated in the 14th Ward of the said City of New York, with intent to destroy said building with its contents: in that the said Jacob J. Kaiser, being alone in the said building at or about the hour above mentioned, the building being at the time and for forty minutes or thereabout, prior to the said hour of 9 45 o'clock, securely closed by one Charles Napier so that unauthorized persons on the outside could not gain access thereto, did obtain an entrance by forcing open a door leading into the premises of Napier Brothers doing business on the floor above that occupied by the said Jacob J. Kaiser, and did then pour from two cans which he had caused to be introduced into said building at some time unknown to deponent benzine and turpentine in large quantity as found by fireman Joseph Mc,Gill, Thomas F. Dougherty & Michael Mc,Avoy and did then set fire to the same, causing the fire to spread rapidly and to destroy portions of the building both on the floor on which the fire was set as well as the floors above and below the said floor, the motive of the said Jacob J. Kaiser, in so setting fire to the said building, being to destroy the same together with his stock of overgaiters and other merchandize stored in said building for the purpose of securing from the Insurance Companies, in which he was insured, the amount of such insurance, which insurance was in the amount of Thirty Five Hundred Dollars, which amount of insurance is, in the opinion of deponent very largely in excess of the value of his said stock of overgaiters and other merchandize covered by said insurance.

Therefore deponent prays that the said Jacob J. Kaiser be held to be dealt with according to law.
