Frank J. Netherbee

of No. 46 Wall Street, aged 37 years, occupation Iron dealer being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 1st day of June 1889 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

An obligation or bond issued by the United States for the payment of money of the value of One thousand dollars and known as number 89260 the property of in care and charge of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Jacques Rivere (now here) for the reasons that some six or seven years previous to said day deponent purchased said bond and placed the same into the envelope here shown.

That subsequent thereto and on the said first day of June 1889 the said bond was found in the possession of the defendant who attempted to negotiate for its sale to James Walsh and Son at No. 5 Wall Street as deponent is informed by Detective Sergeant Thomas Boyle of Police Headquarters. Deponent
