of 150 Nassau Street, New York City, being duly sworn deposes and says, he is more than 21 years of age, and is employed as Chief agent of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, that he has just cause to believe, is informed and verily does believe, that Wong Ah Kim and Ah Wong, whose real names are unknown, but who can be identified by Hui Kiu did, at the City of New York County of New York and State of New York, on or about the 27th day of June 1887, unlawfully use a room, table, establishment or apparatus for gambling purposes—and did engage as a dealer or game-keeper in a gambling or banking game, where money or property was dependent upon the result—and did sell, or offer to sell what is commonly called a "lottery policy," and a certain writing, paper, or insurance, upon the drawing or drawn numbers of a certain lottery, hereto annexed, and did indorse and use a book or other document for the purpose of enabling others to sell or offer to sell lottery policies, writings, papers or documents in the nature of a bet, wager or insurance, upon the drawing or drawn numbers of a lottery, against the form of the statute of the State of New York in such case made and provided.

Deponent further says, he has just come to believe, is informed and verily does believe from ~~personal observation and from~~ statements made by Hui Kiu and Ju Hong to deponent that the said Wong Ah Kim and Ah Wong aforsaid, now have in their possession, at in and upon certain premises occupied by them and situate and known as number being further sworn deposes and says that on the 27th day of June 1887, deponent visited the said premises, named aforesaid, and there saw the said

Wong a Kim and Ah Wong aforesaid, and had dealings and conversation with them as follows:

Deponent entered the basement of premises No. 6. Mott Street aforesaid, about 7 P.M. and saw Wong a Kim and Ah Wong dealing a game called "Fan Tan." The said Wong a Kim was dealing the game, and the said Ah Wong was acting as cashier, and aiding and assisting the said Wong a Kim in said gambling game. There were about 25 Chinese men present in the room. Ju Gong accompanied deponent, and played in the said gambling game in deponent's presence, paying the money in deponent's presence to the said Ah Wong, after which the said Wong a Kim dealt the said game, and the said Ju Gong lost the sum of 50 cents in deponent's presence.

Deponent further says, that while in said premises, he saw the said Wong a Kim and Ah Wong have in their possession, and use divers and sundry paraphernalia, apparatus, tables, establishment, layout, chips, papers, books and documents for gambling purposes. And deponent is informed, from personal observation, and verily believes that the said Wong a Kim and Ah Wong have in their possession at, in and upon certain premises, occupied by them, and situate and known as No. 6. Mott Street, in the basement, the aforesaid unlawful articles, apparatus, device, establishment and things with intent to use the same as a means to commit a public offense, and conducting the gambling or banking game of "Fan Tan," in violation of the provisions of Chapter IX. of the Penal Code, and particularly section 344 of said chapter.
