being duly sworn, deposes and says,

day of November 1879

August Voelkel
 2742 Chrystie
 29th

Valentine Geizler and John Loser, both now here, did feloniously and by means of force and violence take, steal and carry away from the possession and person of deponent one double case silver watch of the value of fifteen dollars, property of deponent. That at about the hour of 11 o'clock P. M. of said day deponent was coming out of the Bohemian Theatre on Third Street between Avenues A. & B., and said watch was then contained in the left coat pocket of the coat then worn upon deponent's person as a portion of deponent's bodily clothing, and was fastened to said coat by a hair chain. That said dependants stood at the door of said Theater and as deponent passed out the said Geizler struck deponent and knocked off deponents hat, and while deponent stooped to pick it up the said Loser kicked deponent. That said dependants followed deponent up while deponent attempted to escape and the said Loser grasped deponent by the wrists and forcibly held deponent while the said Geizler inserted his hands into the said pocket of said coat and forcibly stole and carried away said watch as aforesaid.
