Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Hawley English

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Hawley English

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A ROOM TO BE USED FOR GAMBLING PURPOSES, committed as follows:

The said

Hawley English

late of the Twelfth Ward of the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid, on the seventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep a certain room in a certain building, there situate, to be used for gambling purposes, to wit: to be used for the purpose of therein conducting a certain gambling game commonly called "policy," where money and property was dependent upon the result, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A ROOM TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF SELLING LOTTERY POLICIES THEREIN, committed as follows:

The said

Hawley English

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain room in a certain building there situate, to be used for the purpose of therein selling and offering to sell what are commonly called Lottery Policies, and divers writings, papers, and documents in the nature of bets, wagers and insurances upon the drawing or drawn numbers of certain public and private lotteries, and of therein endorsing and using books and other documents for the purpose of enabling divers persons to sell and offer to sell lottery policies and other such writings, papers and documents, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Hawley English
of the CRIME OF SELLING TO ANOTHER WHAT IS COMMONLY KNOWN AS A LOTTERY POLICY, committed as follows:

The said

Hawley English
late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to
one George E. Oram

a certain paper, instrument and writing, commonly called a Lottery Policy, which said paper, instrument and writing, called a Lottery Policy, is as follows, that is to say:

B x S 11

3-29-37 H10

(a more particular description of which said instrument and writing so commonly called a Lottery Policy is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

FOURTH COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Hawley English
of the CRIME OF SELLING A PAPER AND WRITING, IN THE NATURE OF A BET
AND WAGER UPON THE DRAWN NUMBERS OF A LOTTERY, committed as follows:

The said

Hawley English
late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year
aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to a certain paper and writing, in the nature of a bet and wager upon the drawn numbers of a certain lottery, the same being a scheme for the distribution of property by chance among persons who had paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for such chance (a more particular description of which said lottery is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), which said paper and writing is as follows, that is to say:
one George E. Oram

B x S11
 $3-29=37$ H10

(a more particular description of which said paper and writing is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity,

FIFTH COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Hawley English
 of the CRIME OF SELLING A WRITING PAPER AND DOCUMENT IN THE NATURE OF AN INSURANCE UPON THE DRAWING OF A LOTTERY, committed as follows:

The said

Hawley English

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to one

George E. Oram

a certain paper, writing and document in the nature of an insurance upon the drawing of a certain lottery, the same being a scheme for the distribution of property by chance among certain persons who had paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for such chance (a more particular description of which said lottery is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), which said paper, writing and document is as follows, that is to say:

B x S11

 wanted to go home before got too drunk to go home, and started out of the saloon. + called Enright to come to go home. Enright came out, began at once fighting with deponent & struck him brutally, in face & person & knocked deponent down & from that time deponent was senseless & unconscious till 7 o'clock this morning, in the Station House. That deponent is a well known Officer Arthur Dwyer that he at about 10 o'clock this morning found deponent lying in the ditch by the side of the road near the saloon into this deponent came + came out of with Enright, senseless, bruised & drunk & that he the officer, took deponent to the Station house in a patrol wagon, & that deponent remained there during the night. Deponent further says that when he came up to Gordon with Enright at his request deponent had $8 in 4 two dollar bills in his pocket and Enright Reminded that he was sober at the while till he was above described was made drunk by Enright, & did not lose said money out of his job, that he had it when he was knocked down by Enright, & came in over on 8 o'clock & that on recovering he saw, this morning the police for the first time & at once started through his clothing for his money, & could not find it. It was gone. Deponent had on his way up to Gordon, spent of his $8. ten cents for a drink with Enright, & had taken out of his pocket one of his 2 dollar bills, the pay for the drink, & put the change, which a 1 dollar bill a fifty cent piece, a ten cent piece & a five cent piece, in in deponent's job. Some of said money could deponent find in his pocket, nor in any of his clothes, but deponent did find in his coat pocket by ~~search~~ ^{search} a ten cent piece. That deponent was surprised to find it as he had never in his life paid any money for, and knowing it finding it it would have been paid deponent. That he had just back from Gordon to his home in East 9th St. if he had received from his wife at night in the ditch & deponent further says the room was a friend of Enright, & was one of the many persons whom deponent saw in the saloon friends of Enright. That there were a number of persons just near the room among them, when Enright & deponent were down.
