John Dugan }

Joseph L. Byrnes, being reexamined says. I recognize the defendant^{now present} as one of the persons who robbed me on the night of the 1st day of January last.
I walked down 1st Street to Avenue A then to 20th Street. I then went into a store on the South West Corner of said Street & Avenue and got a glass of beer. I came out and stood on the corner about 2 minutes.
I then started to walk up 20th Street, toward 1st Avenue, and as I turned around I received a blow on the head with some hard substance. I was then seized hold off by the throat and body by three persons.
One of the persons who seized hold of me is John Dugan. Now present the other two persons names are unknown to me.
They knocked me down^{and} of them then jumped on my chest, and held me by the throat, and threatened my life if I would squeal. The said Dugan also held me down and one of the persons whose name is unknown to me put his hand in my pockets and took my property. after taking my property they let go of me and ran away. two of them went up Avenue A. and the other one went across Avenue A towards the East river. I then went to 19th Street & Avenue A. and then met a police man who directed me to the Station House. the officer in command at the Station House sent two officers out with me. we went to the liquor store on the corner of 20th St. and Avenue A. where I had the glass of beer. I there saw John Dorgan the defendant, who I then identified as one of the persons who had so robbed me. he was then arrested.

My business is a grocer^y on Long Island. I left flushing at one o'clock. & came to New York. On the 1st day of January last the first place I went to on arriving in New York was to a liquor store kept by Jerry Lane, cor. of 4th Ave & 11th Street. it was then about 3 o'clock. p.m. I had three drinks of Jamaica rum there. I remained there about 2 1/2 hours. I then went to his house and had a glass of Sherry at dinner. after dinner he and I started down to Pike Street to make a call and had a glass of whiskey.

it was then about $\frac{1}{4}$ past 7 P.M. I then alone to a liquor store on the corner of East Broadway, & Rutgers Street, and I then had a glass of beer and a cigar. From there I got on the East Broadway Cars and got off at 18th Street. I do not know what Avenue (I am not familiar with the streets) I walked from there to 20th Street corner of Avenue A, where I had a glass of beer. I came out and stood on the corner, it was then about 9.55 P.M.
I am positive I have mentioned all the liquor stores I was in from the time I came into the city until I arrived at 20th St & Ave. A. I do not know the name of the person who keeps the saloon on the corner of Ave. A. & 20th St. I do not remember being in any place kept by Mr.
Gantz on Avenue A. near 16th Street.
I do not remember being put out of any place. I am sure I was not put out of any place. I went after the assault with an officer to 20th St & Avenue A in the liquor store. I never saw Sangan previous to said night. I did not see him until I was assaulted. I recognized him by his face. The assault took place in about two minutes.
Meanwhile I was struggling with me

Assaultants. It was about 25 minutes after the assault that the defendant was arrested at the saloon at 20th St & Avenue A. Standing at the Bar. When I went in with the police man there were about 15 or 20 persons in the bar room at the time. I did not charge any other person then present with the assault. I went to the station house with the defendant he was there searched and none of my property was found on him.

I did not accuse any other person of stealing my watch. in any other place at the time and place I was assaulted it was dark. it was about 30 feet from the corner of 20th St, the nearest gas lamp was about 10 yards away from me. I am not quite sure of the direction Morgan went after the assault.

Re direct. there was sufficient light to see distinctly. I am not familiar with the streets in that part of the city.

I know him 21 years. On January the and the second time at 8 p.m. I saw him on the sidewalk at 8 p.m. at Avenue A between 20th & 21st Streets. We then went away together and made two or 3 calls together. I left him about five minutes before he was arrested. The last call we made was at 332 Avenue A, a private house at then about 1/2 past 9 o'clock.

I did not hear or see of any robbery having taken place on that block that night, while Dorgan was in my company he committed no assault on any person he was then sitting in a barbers shop reading a newspaper. I remained with him until about 12 1/2 o'clock. P.M. we remained during all that time in the barbers shop we left the barbers shop together and I left him immediately after. I next saw him about 1 1/4 o'clock. P.M.

^{on a rainy day} I have not forgot that the second time I had seen the defendant was at 8 P.M. after meeting at 1/4 past one o'clock. I remained with him until 6 o'clock. P.M. we first went back to the barber shop where we remained about an hour or an hour and a half. we had no business there simply talking. after leaving the barbers we went to 19th Street & Avenue and made a call on Mrs. Murphy she resides on the N.E. Cor. 19th St & Ave & we then made a call on the S.W. corner and made a call on another Mr. Murphy we then went to 21st St. bet. 1st & 2nd Avenue made a call on Mrs. Hester, made another call at 357 1st Avenue on Mrs. Berlin I then left the defendant at his own door which was about 6 o'clock P.M. I then made one more call and went home I next saw the defendant about 8 P.M. on Avenue A bet. 20th & 21st Street. on the sidewalk we stood talking there sometime and then went and made a call together at 332 Avenue A. on Mr. Hart, it was then about 9 o'clock. that was the only call we made after 8 o'clock. p.m.

Q. Have you not testified that after 8 o'clock that evening you made two or three calls together. Ans. I do not think I did. I drank some wine while making calls. we left 332 Avenue A about 1/2 past 9 o'clock. we remained together until about five minutes before he was arrested. I stood on the North East corner of Avenue A. & 25th St where he left me to go across to the saloon. I remained standing there until he came out in charge of two police men, I remained standing on the corner because I did not want to go in to drink. after he was arrested I went up to the station house. I took a different direction from the one they took.
I went into the station house. I did not offer to make any statement in regard to where the defendant had been that evening. to the officer in charge.
I have been arrested once. it is about 7 years ago. I suppose it was for disorderly conduct.
I had been standing on the sidewalk, that was the only thing I was arrested for.

Theodore Schmitt being duly sworn testified as follows on Direct Exam by W. Herbst.

I reside at No. 324 Avenue A. where I keep a Lager Beer Saloon. I saw the Complainant in my saloon on New Years night - 1st January. He was not sober when he came in there. He asked the people in there to take a drink with him after a couple of rounds were had he went out - he paid for the drinks. I don't know how much money he had - Every time he paid me he gave me a silver dollar - three times he treated in all. He couldn't stand straight.
He had beer first, then seltzer and then a cigar. My store is on the Corner of 20th Street. He came to my place about 8 o'clock at night & remained there about a half an hour. I am sure he is the man. Dugan was arrested in my

place - two officers came in there with the complainant & Dugan came in there. The officers had been in there a couple of minutes before Dugan came in. There were two or three more people in there when Dugan came in - when he was arrested he was with his friend and two or three other people. There were not twenty people in there then.

Test Exam by Det. Lindsey

When Dugan came into my saloon he had two friends with him. I don't know Dugan. I saw him here yesterday - I saw him also when he was arrested - I may have seen him before that. It is not a fact that he frequented my place before New Years. I never knew his name before New Years day - I don't know that he lives in my neighbourhood. I don't know that my place is a resort for thieves. Dugan came into my place at 10 o'clock that night - I don't know exactly the time. I couldn't say whether it was after 10 o'clock. I didn't say in my direct examination that he came in there about 8 o'clock. I attended bar alone on that night. There were only two or three people in the saloon when Dugan came in there. I sell strong drink in my place. The complainant Burns came in there about 8 o'clock the first time - he was there after that with the officers about 10 o'clock. &

I Look around this Court Room and see if you can identify this complainant.

(Witness walked to the rear of the Court Room & picked out a man, who was the complainant - Mr. Byrnes.)

It might be a couple of minutes after 8 o'clock when he first

Came in there. I couldn't say how many people were in there when Byrnes first came in there - they were coming in & going out all the time - there were ~~three~~ people in there anyhow - I wouldn't swear there were more than three people in there then. Each time he called for a drink for the crowd & each time he gave me a silver dollar in payment thereof. I don't remember what the other people drank but I do remember what he drank because I didn't notice he had been drinking until after I gave him the beer on the first round & after that I gave him a seltzer & then a cigar. I don't sell liquor to any drunken men, nor do I sell beer to drunken men but I didn't notice his condition until after I gave him the beer - after that I didn't give him any more beer. I didn't say on my Direct Examination that when he entered the store he staggered from right to left & that

(X)(12)

1066 he was drunk. He remained in my place ^{about} half an hour when he first came in at 8 o'clock - he left there about 8 1/2 o'clock. There were two people came in there with Dugan.

follows on

Sweet Examination by - M. Chestnut

I am a clothing Cutter. I know the defendant & was with him on New Years night at 9 1/2 o'clock. I met him in front of my house - on the sidewalk. I went with him from there to Smith's store on the Corner of 20th St. We stopped in front of my house about 3/4 of an hour before that, talking. We left there and stood a few moments on the N.E. corner 20th St. & Avenue A. We were talking there also & from there we crossed over and went into Smith's Saloon. I was with Dugan all this time & remained with him until he was arrested in Smith's Saloon. From the time I met him first until his arrest he had not any difficulty with anybody. I didn't see anybody robbed or assaulted. He couldn't have assaulted or robbed anybody without my seeing it. He did not assault or rob anybody. The Policemen were in Smith's when we went in there.
(14) (13)

Cross Examination by J.W. Lindsey

I know Thomas Lattimore - he was with Dugan when I met him in front of No. 330 Avenue A - they were standing there when I came out of the house. I didn't hear Lattimore

(6)(14)

1068 testify yesterday & don't know what he testified to. I didn't hear him testify that he went alone to the North East Corner of Stoenue A and 20th Street - if he said that he didn't tell the truth. I have not had any employment for the last four months.

The last place I worked was at E. Butterick & Co's, Fashion Importers.
I was with them 2 years. I am not in the habit of going around a great deal with Dugan. We went in Smith's that night to get a glass of beer - we only had one beer in there & remained there only five minutes. The policemen were in there when we went in to Smith's.
I didn't go to the Station House with Dugan. I didn't hear what charge was made against him - I first discovered what it was for him in Court. I heard yesterday what charge was against him when I was here in Court. I came here myself today. I was told by Lattimore

(15) (15)

1069

He was held here - he didn't tell me upon what charge. I came here with Lattimore yesterday. Lattimore knew the charge upon which he was held.

Q Do you mean to say that you came up here from Avenue A. and 20th Street with Lattimore yesterday and that at no time during the journey from there - here did he tell you the nature of the charge against the prisoner?

A He did not. The first I knew of the charge against him was when Charles Murphy told me here. Charles Murphy is here today. I had not been drinking on New Years Day. I didn't see Dugan until 9 1/2 o'clock on that night. I am not very intimate with him. I never was arrested.

By The Court:

I have known the defendant about a year. I knew Dugan was arrested but I didn't know the nature of the charge against him. I came all the way from 20th St & Avenue A with Lattimer and never made any inquiry about the charge.

Direct Examination by Mr. Eick

I am a Longshoreman. I have seen the Complainant & know the defendant. I saw the Complainant on the 1st of January, Corner 20th Street and Avenue A; he fell down on the South West Corner 20th St. & Avenue A, and I picked him up. That is opposite Smith's Corner. He was very drink at the time. His coat was muddy. I asked him where he was going and he said to Flushing. He insisted on treating me & said ~~then~~ I appeared to be a hard working man people around there & I said we were honest anyhow. He said maybe I thought he couldn't pay for drinks & at that he pulled out of his pocket about five dollars in silver. I told him he didn't need a drink - that he was drunk enough & had better go to the Ferry and go home. He insisted on having a drink & I told him he wouldn't drink with me. He said he would follow me. He saw I had a kettle in my hand & he knew I was going for beer. I showed him the way to 230 St. Ferry or told him to take a car and go to 34 Street Ferry. I went to Smith's, handed in my can for beer & then he walked in there about two minutes after I got there. I took a cigar & he took a beer.

He treated some other man a beer. He paid for the round and I started away & came back in about 15 or 20 minutes for more beer & he was still there. I said to him that he hadn't gone to Flushing yet & that he had better go & he said he had some friends in 13th Street, but he didn't know the number but he knew the house & he would be obliged to me if I would go with him. I did. On our way down Avenue A he wanted me to go down town with him & I wouldn't. I told him I would go as far as 13th Street with him to the house of his friends. I told him he would fall into bad hands. We got as far as 16th Street & he insisted on having a drink & attempted to drag me into a place & I told him to go home. When I went to leave him he still insisted & I said "will you take Soda water?" & he said "yes". We went in a place there to have a drink and when we got inside he said to me "You son of a bitch, you tried to rob me". The men who were in there said he wasn't robbed yet. Then he pulled out some money and stood out from me saying he could pay for all he wanted - he wanted to fight me and the man who kept the place put him out. They said he was quarrelsome. I said I didn't know him & they told me he might get me in trouble. They put him out because he was troublesome and noisy. All I did was to pick him up when he was drunk.

Mr. Lamm

by Mr. Lindsey

He followed me into Smiths two minutes after I was in there & insisted upon treating me. He offered to treat everybody in the house, but they didn't drink. I drank with him & two others drank. He drank beer. There was about 15 or 16 people in the saloon at the time. I remained there then until he drank his beer & then went out. & came back in about twenty minutes and he was still there. He was very drunk when I picked him up. He was able to walk when he came in the store - he acted as though he was very drunk but he was not able to take care of himself. I advised him while in that state to take the car & go to the Perry & go home. Smith is on the S. E. Corner 20th St & Avenue A. I live at 415 East 17th Street. I went to Smith's to get some ale in a Kettle - I didn't come from home to Smith's but from a friend's house - Mr. Shannans No. 315 Avenue A. between 19th and 20th Street. We each drank beer when he treated me in Smith's. I said on my Direct Examination that I just said I would take a cigar & then changed it to beer when I saw he was taking beer. We stopped at a place near the Corner of

I wouldn't receive a complaint against him for intoxication - he said he had been making calls but appeared to know what he was about - he didn't stagger. His clothing was soiled - dirty. He said he was struck with a club on the left wrist.

Cross Examination by Mr. O'Sullivan

He seemed to know what he was about. He had a pistol in his pocket & he had no permit for carrying it - he said he had a permit in Flushing for it. ^{The officer} made a charge against him for "Violation of (Corporation) Ordinance" - the officer didn't make any complaint against him for intoxication. I don't know Smith but I know his place - it has a good reputation. I have never heard it was the resort of thieves and robbers - it has no such reputation.

Jeremiah Dunn (Court of General Sessions. Part F.
Before Recorder Smyth. Feb. 8. 1884.

Indictment for robbery in the second degree.

Edward Hastings sworn. I live at 287 Bowery at present, on the 19th of January about 8 1/2 o'clock in the evening. I was between Fifth and Sixth sts. in the Bowery going to take the elevated station house at Ninth st. and Third Ave.

I went into a saloon and changed a bill to have some change at the elevated station. I came out and put my change in my pocket. I had not been out I suppose five minutes when the defendant came; he struck me with his left hand in the face and then made a grab for my watch and chain. It staggered me a little and I went after him and halloed "Police". He turned down Ninth st. and I got out of breath and I say, "My God," I put my hand in my pocket and I found my watch. I say, "Let him go."

With that a gentleman came up in citizens clothes, who was a detective. He said, "Come along." I went in police headquarters and after that a gentleman was brought before me and I recognized him as the man that struck him. The prisoner was in the custody of a Policeman. I saw him first between Fifth and Sixth Sts. I followed him as far as Seventh St.; he turned down towards Second Ave.; he was arrested in the middle of the block near Second Ave.; he hit me on the left cheek and it stunned me a little. I felt him make a grab for my watch and chain and I made a grab for him. Another person came along and gave me a check in the neck and threw me on my knees. I followed after this young man and the man that struck me disappeared. I saw the defendant's face plainly. I knew him by his tight fitting dress. The next morning the detective showed me the watch in Headquarters; it was a double case silver watch worth about ten dollars; the chain was worth 25 cents and was fastened in the button hole of the vest. The chain was on my person when I was struck by the defendant. Cross Examined. I bought the chain in Hoboken. I am a baker by trade. I was not sober and I was not drunk. I had four glasses of beer. I had never seen the prisoner before that night. (Chain shown) That is my chain; the locket was on the chain when I bought it. I know it is mine.

1095

William F. Cosgrove sworn. I am an officer connected with the Central Office; on the night of the 19th of January, Mr. McNaught, (my partner) and myself were walking down Fourth Ave. about 8 1/2 in the evening. I heard a cry of "stop thief" and we saw that young man there running and he came may be five hundred after him. This was between Fifth and Sixth Sts. I crossed over Fourth to Third Ave., and I ran down through Fourth St. as hard as I could go. I never lost sight of him. Then the policeman came up and handed me a chain that was exhibited here today. That chain was handed to me in the presence of the prisoner. I took him to Headquarters and searched him and found that part of a rifle came on him - it is a pistol. He gave the name of Jeremiah Dunn; his right name is Olmstead; we went up to see his father. I did not see the father. I do not know him. The complainant did not seem to be intoxicated; we detained him and the other man till morning in order that we might have a witness. The complainant identified the prisoner and said he was the man who struck him and took the chain.

Robert M. Naught sworn. I am an officer and was with Cosgrove at this time; we were going down Fourth Ave. and I heard this man cry out, "Stop thief" and saw the prisoner run across the Bowery. Cosgrove caught him and the complainant identified him; the officer on post came up and handed the chain to Cosgrove.

Jeremiah Dunn sworn and examined in his own behalf. I used to live in New York, but I have not been here for quite a while. I am 23 years old. I came from New Bedford. I was a soldier five years I was in the army from 1873 to 1878. On this night I was going down the Bowery towards Christie St. I saw a crowd standing on the corner of Fifth St. and Third Ave. I went to see what was the matter. I saw the complainant and a man pulling him around; the first thing I knew the complainant was hallooing, "Stop thief!" and made a grab for me. I had done nothing to him. He got hold of me and I wrangled to get loose and went down Fifth St. I was arrested and taken to the station house. Cross Examined. There were some people who ran ahead of me. I was in the 22nd regiment of infantry. I have lost my discharge papers. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.
