The People
Andrew Jackson
Indictment for assault in the second degree.
Patrick M. Stavey, sworn and examined, testified. I am a collector for the Singer sewing machine Co. at 34 Union Square. I was in this city on the 12th of Nov. last and saw the defendant on that day; it was in the morning between six and seven o'clock. I saw him on the corner of Seventeenth street and Seventh Avenue in a saloon; I saw him before that in the street; he wanted me to show him a lodging house; that he was singing all night in some theatre in Fourteenth street; he wanted me to show him a lodging house where he could sleep part of a day. He said he had been singing in a theatre or a Museum. I said, "Come with me and I will show you one;" we walked a block or two and this saloon was lit up and we went in to have a drink; we each took whiskey. There were two barkeepers; one was in a little side room, a private box, with a lady and the other was behind the bar; the defendant spoke to the lady and to the bar keeper; he made a great fuss and asked the privilege to go in there; he went in and treated all hands. I was outside and the bar tender came out and pulled me in.

too and made me sit down; the other bartender remained behind the bar. I had not been drinking before I met the defendant; he treated all hands and he wished me to have a drink and I would not have any. I said I was going away. The colored man (the defendant) the lady, and the man who was attending bar wanted me to treat. I did not want to stop and did not want to take anything. The bartender and the lady told me that I had better go where I would not treat. I walked out and stood at the bar two or three minutes; the defendant came out with a wild whoop like some unearthly being and said, "You falsely represented me." I looked at the man and saw him coming to me and I ran to the door and got hold of the knob where I heard a big pane of glass break at the same time I was in the street I saw myself all blood. I felt no knock, I never felt I was hit until I saw I was a mass of blood. There was a man there who attended to the fires. I was at the door catching the latch to get out and the defendant came right after me and hit me on the head. I saw him hit me but did not feel the blow until I was in the street and saw myself all blood. I was not knocked down

At the time I recieved the blow my hand was on the latch of the door. I opened the door and just as I did it a big pane of glass broke, I suppose it slipped off my head and I did not get the full blow. I was struck on the side of the head. I asked if there was any one around to go and get a police officer to arrest him; they told me they would look for a police officer. I stood outside and no policeman came; the defendant went outside by the side door. How much time elapsed from the time he struck you until you saw him go out of the side door? I do not believe more than five minutes. I did not want to let him go. I followed him up. He said, "Boss, never mind it was not me hit you, it was the lady. The defendant is the man who struck me; there was no man or woman in the bar at the time but this man who attends the fires and he was distant off I said, "Was it the lady hit me?" and the defendant says "yes," I said that on purpose so as to get him to be under the impression that I thought it was the lady that he would not leave me until I got an officer. Then I came to the two officers I said, "Arrest this man, he has a 'black jack' in his pocket. that he is after hitting me with; you will be good enough to arrest him for trying to kill me!" So the officer took him right into custody. There is everything just as it happened from first to last. How long were you confined to the house? There was three days that I did not turn up to the Company and I did not collect anything since for them. You have not collected anything since November 12th? No sir. When I work hard I feel weak as if I was going to fall. Cross Examined. I don't remember what time I got up in the morning of the day it happened; I remember it was about six or seven o'clock when I met Mr. Jackson. I generally get up between four and five o'clock. I guess we stayed about twenty minutes in this saloon. I only drank once there. I refused to drink in the box. The defendant had a dog the time he met me; he did not have him in his arms. I remember him walking along with him in the street. I think he was leading him with a string. I don't know what became of the dog at the time he struck me, I was not watching his animal. I ran to the door and the defendant was following me. I took hold of the knob of the door. At the time I was struck I had my eye on him and another on the latch trying to get out first when he hit me before I had the door opened. I am certain that there was no one near me at the time but the defendant and quite certain that he hit me. It could not be that the glass cut my head. I was never assaulted in my life before. It is not a fact that there is an assault case pending now against me and the Company, the Singer Sewing Machine Co, in which Mrs. Hamberg is plaintiff. I don't know of any such suit pending where I was charged with assaulting Mrs. Hamberg in Laight street. I don't know whether I would know it if such a case were pending. I remember distinctly what transpired the night I was struck. I have not been the same since this blow, but my memory of everything that occurred is distinct; my health has not been so good. I do not know whether the bar tender is here or not. I did not summons him. I do not know whether the man who attends the fires is here or not; the woman is not here.

Redirect Examination. The unearthly yell that the defendant gave when he came out of the box led me to believe that he was astray in his mind. He was about seven feet from me and I went around the stove, he after me. I first knew I was struck in the head when I saw my clothes all blood. I saw him have the instrument now shown me (the slung shot) in his hand when he was coming after me at the door. The saloon was not dark; there were lights in it. I could not tell how many I did not take particular notice; it was breaking day. I have remained with the Singer Sewing Machine Co. canvassing and selling but not collecting. I am on the pay roll, but I don't make so much money. I am paid every Saturday. I get eight per cent on the collections but have not collected any since. I lost that by getting this blow. I get five dollars a week. I know where Laight street is, I remember a difficulty I had with a woman there in making collections for the Company. I remember her name was Hamburg. I don't know that the Singer Sewing Machine Co. was sued by Mrs. Hamburg for an assault that it is alleged I committed upon her. I would be surprised to hear of such a suit. I don't remember her charging me with assaulting her. I remember I went in for some money and she had no money. I asked her for it four or five times; she had possession of the receipt and I wanted her to give it to me. She fired me out with a broom, she came to the door and pushed me against it and I shoved the door back on her; whatever the result was I do not know. This is my first appearance in Court. I lived on the 12th of November in Hudson Co.

New Jersey, it takes me generally an hour to go to New York. I always sleep at home. I always go home after my work is done at five o'clock. I go on the green cars to Forty Second St. I remember going home that night at five o'clock, between five and six. I do not recollect what time I got up that morning, but I generally get up between four and five o'clock. Sometimes I go by Forty Second St. and sometimes by Jay Street. This morning I was on my way to my work. I came up Seventh Avenue to Sixteenth Street from Forty Second St. on the Seventh Avenue cars, a white car from Forty Second Street. I was going to walk up to Sixteenth Street and Fourth Avenue. The cars begin to run at half past five in the morning. I was a collector on the 16th of August of this year for the Singer Sewing Machine Co. I don't know of any other person of my name being employed by them as a collector. Do you know that in consequence of what transpired between you and Mrs. Hamburg that a suit is now pending in the Common Pleas? No sir. A suit against the Company for damages in the sum of five thousand dollars? No sir, I don't know anything about it.

John Collins. sworn and examined. I am an officer of the 19th precinct and arrested the defendant on the morning of the 12th of Nov. about seven o'clock. I saw the complainant on the corner of Seventeenth St. and Sixth Avenue; he was streaming with blood all down the side he was cut on; he asked me to arrest the defendant; he said the defendant struck him with a slung shot and that he had it in his pocket. I placed him under arrest; he had not got ten feet when the prisoner attempted to throw the "Black Jack" as it is called, the slung shot, out of his pocket; he attempted to throw the Black Jack away; he did not succeed. He took it out of his overcoat pocket on the left side. I saw it in his left hand. I said, "What do you carry that for?" He says, "For instance." I understood it was a slang phrase. As he dropped it I picked it up right alongside of him. Is that it (showing a slung shot) Yes, that is it. The defendant did not have any marks or bruises on him. The complainant said in the presence of the defendant that when he (the defendant) wanted to go out of the store and when he was going out he hit him with that and he stunned him; he was taking him then to the doctor's to get his head dressed - the complainant said the prisoner was taking him to get his head dressed, and the complainant then said that his object in that was to walk him until he met a policeman. On the way to the station house the prisoner said that he carried that slung shot as he was a performer to training dogs. He did not say whether it was a bull <sup>dog</sup> terrier <sup>or a little</sup> that he was training. Cross examined. He attempted to throw the slung shot away before I spoke to him. After I made the arrest I went back with him to the corner of Sixth Avenue and Seventeenth St. I saw the man who as the complainant said made fires and I saw the proprietor of the place. I did not take them to Court; the saloon is on the south east corner of Seventeenth street and Seventh Avenue. I have been a police officer seven years. When I met the complainant he was streaming with blood running from the wound in his head; he was sober. I did not notice whether he had been drinking or not. He told me he was in this saloon fifteen or twenty minutes; he said he came from home. It did not occur to me that the people who were in that place might be witnesses, I went back to enquire about the case, but I did not subpoena them; they were not before the grand jury.

Patrick McStavey recalled by Counsel.
I remember that woman (Ella Reed) that young colored woman speaking to me in the hallway of this Court. I never said to her that I had been drinking and was intoxicated; nor did I say to her that if she gave me twenty five dollars I would drop the case and that if she did not I would swear the defendant into prison. I was talking to her and will explain what happened. I said to her that the defendant struck me. I did not state to her that I had been struck but did not know who struck me. I deny that I wanted twenty five dollars from her. I did not ask her for any money. I was going out of the Court room and I said, to this woman, "Are you a friend of Jackson's?" He was here regularly every day since he was arrested. She says, "yes." I say to her, "What in the world did he carry that instrument for, or what did he hit me for?" This was when we were going down the steps. She said, "Would you mind walking along the block with me and telling me the whole particulars?" I say, "No, I do not." We went along and I told her I was out twenty eight dollars expenses. She asked me what it would cost for this time that I lost? I said I was out twenty eight dollars expenses for my head and such things. She says, "Would you mind withdrawing the charge and we will pay you all expenses." I say, "I cannot do that; we must have everything explained before the Court." She said, "Would you mind going up to my lawyer with me?" I said, "No, I have not time now." <sup>She said,</sup> "I will see you again at the office and try to have you withdraw this charge, for I would do all in the world I could for that man, I am his third cousin, I am all the friend in the city that knows him. She said she would do anything to settle it, for she was his only relative. I did not go to her lawyer.

Andrew Jackson, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am a mimic and comedian. I was employed on Fourteenth Street at Wirth's Museum, where the strong men are. I had two weeks engagement. I had been in the city two weeks previous to this. I came from Reading, Pa. I had not been in this city since 1884. I have heard the complainant say that on the 12th of Nov. I struck him with that weapon on the head. I did not strike him with it. I got through at Wirth's Museum at a quarter past eleven; this was Sunday night; we give sacred concerts. I hurried over because I left my dog with Mrs. Ames, 407 Seventh Avenue.

in the rear. I did not intend for her to keep the dog all night. I got over at half past eleven o'clock, between thirty second and thirty third st. I excused myself to her for going so late and gave her a quarter for keeping Nellie (the dog). She was going to have pups. I wanted to get a place to stay till morning. I went up Seventh Avenue and enquired for a room where I was recommended. I went in and was refused; they were all full; they had no beds. That is what brought me back to Seventh Avenue. I was sorry for the dog. I could roam around myself better than the dog. This man, the complainant, was standing leaning against a lamp post. I don't know exactly the time, but it was after twelve o'clock. This man halloed, "Halla Jackson?" "Do you know me?" was my answer. He said, "Of course I do," I said, "Your face is familiar, I cannot place you, I guess you know me like everybody else." He said, "You perform around in Fourteenth St. near Fourth Avenue. He invited me in to have a drink and I walked in. As soon as I got in the bartender said, "Hello." I leaned on the bar and said, "I have come from work, I am tired." He said, "Go into the room and sit down;" he invited me in the box and this fellow (the complainant); he was not pulled in. There was a woman sitting in there with the bar tender. I treated the four of us in there twice. Some one said, I heard the remark made to the complainant, "you treat the third time." He says, "I aint got no money." Some one said, "you are no good, you had better go out." he was making to go out when the door was shut behind him. In the mean time the two men were calling the bar room fellow. Then I heard a scramble, and I grabbed Nellie up, I was holding the dog, and these two fellows got him to the door and he tried to get away; they struck him with their fist; his head struck the glass and he shattered it; he got away out into the street. The bar tender said to me, "you have got to pay three dollars for the glass that your friend has broke." That I had to make good I said I had no right to pay it. I went out of the other door, I think it was on Seventeenth street. I went two blocks alone. This fellow the complainant came up to me and said, "they say you struck me back there with a slung shot." I said, "you made a mistake. I did not." He said, "then wont you take me to some place where I can get my head dressed." Certainly I will. We went on to Sixth Avenue and I saw two policemen on the corner, and the complainant staggered up to them and said, "Take this negro; he hit me with a black jack." I came out of the room and saw the complainant fighting with two men and his head struck the glass. The "black jack" came into my possession - it had been in my trunk and in the morning I was in the dressing room and shoved it into my pocket with a set of bones I use on the stage. I got it in Gloster, N.J. I left there without any notice. When the complainant reported to the policeman that I hit him the policeman did not search me but he caught hold of my right hand and walked me down. I took the slung shot out of my pocket and threw it in the door way and he picked it up. I have never been arrested before and I performed all over the country with minstrels and in Museums. The dog was following me all the time. I stooped down & got the dog and he bit the dog in the mouth. Mr. Ames has got her; she has had seven pups since I have been in. Cross examined. I sing and dance on the stage. The complainant left the private box in the saloon before I did. I heard a noise at the door: the men he had the trouble with were strangers to me; I could not say whether they belonged there or not. They hit him several times on the head and face causing the blood to come; he did not bleed before the glass was broken. I stood away from them, for I was afraid my dog would get hurt in the condition in which it was. I did not offer to protect the complainant. I had the slung shot in my pocket all the time. I bought the slung shot in Philadelphia for Policeman Kinch of Foster six or seven months ago. I never went back there. I was eight weeks there before. I left Philadelphia and went to Reading. I did not have it in my hand any time during the night I was with the complainant. This officer Kinch for whom I bought the slung shot was employed as a special officer at Mr. Thompson's place in Foster, N.J. I never wrote to him that I bought it for him for I did not know his address; he never wrote to me. I paid 15 cents for it in a second hand store in Philadelphia; it was a pawn shop corner of Vine and "Chester" St. This and new ones were in the window. I did not tell the officer that I used the slung shot to train dogs with. I knew it was unlawful to carry an instrument like that.

I carried it in my pocket at this time because I was going to sell it in a junk shop I had no use for it. The complainant appeared to me to be half drunk. I don't know long we were drinking in this saloon.

Ella Reed sworn I am a cook at 10 West 125th street; the defendant is a relation of mine, I have known him all my life, I never heard of him being in trouble before. The complainant spoke to me Monday a week ago at the bottom of these steps and he explained to me the trouble, he said it cost him $15 a $25 and that if he got the money he would drop the case, but if he did not he would swear him into prison. I asked him if he would go to my lawyer, that Jackson made a good deal and that he and Jackson might settle it. He said he had not time to go but wrote on a piece of paper his address, which I gave to Jackson's lawyer. The complainant told me to come to some Sewing Machine office in 14th street and call for him.

Patrick McStavery was recalled and denied many of the statements made by the defendant and the woman Reed. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty as charged with a recommendation to mercy. The Court sentenced him to the State prison for two years and six months.

New York City.

In the matter of the Complaint against James Patterson, John J. Williams, J. Jackson & Ridge Levein of 160 Fulton St. which was considered before the grand jury, yesterday permit me to say, that this is the original Complaint upon which warrants were issued for all the above named defendants, Levein, right name is Reginald C. Levein, & he is the Boss. At the time of arrest, we found another person Charles Muller, present, and he was arrested. The next morning at the term, another complaint after the form of this one was drawn and all four were named therein, & all held for trial except Muller who was held for examination. Levein gave bail on that complaint, & I suppose the Clerk at the term omitted to take bail on this one, in accordance with the practice there in my cases of holding on one complaint and sending all the papers down. As the Keeping of a room, is a continuous offense, Mr Levein is properly indicted under this indictment. The other defendants are charged in the other complaint with specific offences upon the 9th of Oct of 150 Nassau Street, New York City, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he is more than twenty-one years of age, and is employed as Chief agent of The New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, that he has just cause to believe, is informed and verily does believe, that Ridge Leavin, John Hor, Richard Hor and Robert Hor - James Hor, whose real names are unknown but who can be identified by T. J. Daly and J. W. Hilliard did, at the City of New York County of New York and State of New York, on or about the 9th day of October 1888, and between that and the 14th day of August, unlawfully keep and occupy a room, shed, tenement, tent, booth, building, or a part thereof, and a place, upon public or private grounds, with books, apparatus and paraphernalia, for the purpose of recording or registering bets or wagers, or of selling pools, and did then and there record or register bets or wagers, or sell pools upon the result of a certain trial or contest of skill, speed or power of endurance of beasts, to wit horses, then and there about to be run in a certain race, upon a certain race-course, known as the

at the City of New York in the State of New York, and further being the owner, lessee, or occupant of said room, shed, tenement, tent, booth, building or part thereof, the said Ridge Leavin, John Hor, Richard Hor, and Robert Hor, James Hor aforesaid did knowingly permit the same to be used and occupied for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned, and therein did keep, exhibit and employ, certain and divers device, or apparatus, for the purpose of recording or registering bets or wagers, and for selling pools, as hereinbefore set forth, and did further become the custodian or depositary for hire or reward, of certain money, property, and thing of value, stated, wagered or pledged upon said result of said trial or contest of skill, speed or power of endurance, between horses, as is more particularly set forth aforesaid.

Deponent further says, that he has just cause to believe, is informed and verily does believe, his information being based upon personal observation, and from the statements of

T. J. Daly, J. W. Hilliard and others - that the said Ridge Levis, John Hor, Richard Hor and Robert Hor & James Hor aforesaid now have in their possession, at, in and upon certain premises occupied by them situate and known as Numbers 160, 162 & 164, Fulton street basement or first floor in the City County and State aforesaid, with intent to use the same as a means to commit a public Offence, divers and sundry device and apparatus, paraphernalia, papers, books and instruments, for the purpose of recording or registering bets or wagers, and of selling pools, as aforesaid, and contrary to the provisions of Chapter Nine of the Penal Code of the State of New York. Wherefore deponent prays that warrants and search warrants may be issued, and the said persons named aforesaid may be arrested, their unlawful matters searched for, seized, and taken possession of, and all dealt with according to law.

the 8th day of October 1888, he personally visited the premises occupied by the said Ridge Levis, John Hor, Richard Hor and James Hor Robert Hor - as deponent is informed and believes aforesaid, situate and known as Numbers 160, 162 & 164 Fulton street them aforesaid, and had conversation and dealings with them in substance as follows, to wit:

Deponent, upon entering said premises aforesaid saw the said John Hor marking upon blackboards the names of Horses on the odds which was being given by them of and the said Richard Hor did stand by and see the said John Hor thus post the odds, and did tell him what odds to write upon said blackboard, and the said John Hor as wrote as directed by the said Richard Hor. afterwards Richard Hor remained sitting in a chair and the said John Hor, went behind a counter or partition, and deponent bet to him and bet five dollars against the odds recorded upon the blackboard on horse Britannic, first race at Jerome Park.

The said John Hor, wrote something behind the Counter then handed defendant ~~to~~ a card, bearing the number "7. 706." designating the number of defendants bet defendant saw other persons present also make bets with the said John Hor. Defendant further says that he has frequently seen Robert Hor, receive money for bets while the said John Hor recorded the same. The said Robert <sup>James Hor</sup> ~~Hor~~ was present, and in the room were kept and used blackboards, cards, papers, apparatus and paraphernalia for selling pools and recording bets and wagers upon horse races, and defendant saw no trace of any other business being carried on there but said unlawful business of pool selling and recording and registering bets and wagers, and defendant is informed from personal observation, and business and conversations had with the said John Hor, Richard Hor and Robert Hor that they now have in their possession at in and upon certain premises occupied by them, and situate and known as numbers 160, 162, & 164 Fulton street, in the City and County of New York aforesaid, divers and sundry devices, apparatus, paraphernalia books, papers, blackboards and writings with intent to use the same as a means to commit a public offense, and in violation of Chapter 18 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.

and Reginald B. Devine

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse
James Jackson, James Batterson
John Williams and Reginald B. Devine
of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows :

The said James Jackson, James Batterson, John Williams and Reginald B. Devine, all — late of the Second Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully keep a certain room in a certain building there situate, for the purpose of therein recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses ; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Second Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said James Jackson, James Batterson
John Williams and Reginald B. Devine
of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows

The said James Jackson, James Batterson John Williams and Reginald B. Devine, all — late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, being then and there the occupants of certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms did unlawfully and knowingly permit the said room to be used and occupied for the purpose of therein recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Third Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said James Jackson, James Patterson, John Williams and Reginald C. Devien
of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said James Jackson, James
Patterson, John Williams and Reginald C. Devien, all — late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year
aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, being then and there the occupants of a certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms, did unlawfully therein keep, exhibit and employ divers devices and apparatus (a more particular description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and selling pools upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the [Section 851, Penal Code.]

The Court.

The testimony of this defendant is as I understand it, that he has been for sometime employed as telegraph operator in that place, and was the agent of the company receiving dispatches from the race track and handing them to people to whom they were addressed and thus he knows that those dispatches were used for the purpose of deciding bets that were made upon races in this place 160 Fulton Street.
Milwaukee

And he also states that the sheet produced is a record of bets and that he has seen no such record out. I ask him now to describe the desk where such papers as these are usually kept and how far they are from his desk.

Q How large a space there is behind where he sits.

" A person concerned in the commission of a crime,
" whether he directly commits the act constituting the " offense, or aids and abets in its commission, and " whether present or absent; and a person who directly " or indirectly counsels, commands, induces or procures
" another to commit a crime, is a principal.

Sec. 29 Penal Code, State of New York.

" ~~All those who aid or abet in the commission of a~~
" ~~crime are principal offenders.~~

" A person who aids or abets in an act which would " make him an accessory if the crime committed were a " felony, is a principal and may be indicted and punished
" as such if the crime be a misdemeanor.

Sec. 31 Penal Code, State of New York.

" All those who aid or abet in the commission of a
" crime are principal offenders.

Peo. vs Irwin, 4 Denio, 129.

Lowenstein vs Peo. 54 Barb. 299.

Ward vs Peo. 3 Hill, 395.

6 Id. 144.

" When an act or omission is declared by statute to " be a misdemeanor, and no punishment for aiding or " abetting in the doing thereof is expressly prescribed,
" every person who aids or abets another in such act or " omission, is also guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 682, Penal Code.

" If he is present, consenting, aiding, procuring,
" advising or abetting, he is a principal and must be " indicted as such.

" A crime may consist of many acts which must all
" be committed in order to complete the offense; but each " person present consenting to the commission of the " offense, and doing any one act which is either an " ingredient in the crime, or immediately connected with " or leading to its commission, is as much a principal as

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Robert Jones

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY, in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Robert Jones, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 15th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty*eight*, at the City and County aforesaid, being then and there the clerk and servant of one Henry Moll, and as such clerk and servant then and there having in his possession, custody and control certain moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Henry Moll, the true owner thereof, to wit: the sum of ninety seven dollars and fifty cents in money, lawful money of the United States and of the value of ninety seven dollars and fifty cents, the said Robert Jones afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, did feloniously appropriate the said sum of money to his own use, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Henry Moll of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof; and the same moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Henry Moll, did then and there and thereby feloniously steal, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

JOHN R. FELLOWS,

District Attorney.
