The People ^{vs.} John Sullivan } Court of General Sessions. Part First.
Sullivan was jointly with James Mitchel for petty larceny from the person and receiving stolen goods.
Counsel for the prisoner admitted that the complainant (Charles Phelps) had 29 cents in his outside pocket when he left Brooklyn and he lost ten cents [Mr Beecher.] Then his attention was called to the pocket by the officer, that he was ten cents short. [Counsel.] I admit that he lost ten cents. Joseph Weinberg, sworn.
I am attached to the Central office. I saw the boy Sullivan on the 11th of March in Nassau St; he was with the boy ^{James} Mitchel, who is jointly indicted with him. Officer Lefferts was with me; when we came to Nassau St. we saw a party selling prize packages; we went into a store and we watched the crowd. Officer Lefferts said to me, "Come on out, there is a man picking pockets." We went out of the store and Officer Lefferts grabbed Mitchel and Sullivan. I did not see them do any thing, but officer Lefferts did. Then officer Lefferts handed me Mitchell I saw him drop a five cent piece on the ground; there was a rush made and a little fellow got under my legs, got the 5 cent nickel and ran off with it. Officer Lefferts saw Mr. Phelps and asked him if he lost any thing. Mr. Phelps says, "I don't know." So he put his hand in his pocket, and he says, "I am ten cents short." Did Officer Lefferts say anything else? Yes, he told him to come to the police office and make a complaint for picking pockets.

Harmon Lefferts, sworn and examined, testified.
I am a detective in the Central Office, was on duty on the 11th of March, on that day saw Sullivan, I arrested him, I was standing immediately behind these two boys Mitchel and Sullivan in a crowd, there was a crowd around a vendor of prize packages; the boy Mitchell took his right hand and placing it in the pocket of Phelps took the hand from the pocket and passed it to Sullivan and Sullivan received something from his hands; he spoke to Sullivan; he then returned the hand to the pocket of Mr. Phelps and in the act of withdrawing it the second time I seized them both. I placed Mitchell in the hands of Weinberg and I held Sullivan. I asked Mr. Phelps to go to the Headquarters and make a complaint, which he readily did. The boys were side by side with Mr. Phelps; the boys said nothing when I seized them. They appeared to know what I held them for; they said nothing to me; when we got up the street they asked me what we were going to do with them. I told them we were going to take them to the Headquarters; that is all the conversation

0582

I recollect. Cross Examined. This was in the neighborhood of two or three o'clock; it was in Nassau St. near John St. There were many people around this prize package man? Fourteen or fifteen. My attention was particularly attracted to that crowd that was there. I went there for the purpose of looking; my attention was not attracted to the whole crowd; I could not say whether they were boys or men. I saw Mitchell put his hand in that man's pocket; did you see Sullivan do anything before that? Standing alongside of Mitchell, that was all; the crowd was there; the boys Mitchell and Sullivan were on the outside between the stores and the crowd, the vendor stood in the street; on the inside between the vendor and Mitchell there were people; the prisoners were on the outside between the stores and the curb; it is a narrow side walk there between John and Nassau Sts. My attention was attracted to the two boys. I would not know the prize vendor if I should see him today. I saw the boy Mitchell pass something to Sullivan, which he received from his hand. I saw him take it. I can not be mistaken about that. I could not discover what it was that Mitchell passed to him. Sullivan had not done anything before that to attract your attention to him? Yes, I knew they were together, they were companions; they were talking together.

0583

John Sullivan, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am a brush maker, I have been working no place now; my mother is here. I live home with her at Williamsburgh. That day I was in New York and was going down to a plumber shop in Murray St. A gentleman offered me a job the day before. I was down in Nassau St. this day. I did not steal any money from any man, Did anybody pass any money to you? No sir. Were you in collusion with anybody to steal any money that day? No sir. Did you know Mitchel? No sir. Did you speak to him that day? No sir. Did you have any money with you when you were arrested by the officer? Ten cents - a dime, I did not have two five cent pieces. Cross Examined. I am 15 going on 16 years old, I live 306 North Smith St. I worked last at the brush making business four months ago for John Butcher; his place of business is in Spring St. near Greenwich St.; he stopped his work altogether, I worked for him about eight months. Before that I worked in Wooster, Mass., a carpet factory. I have been in this city four years. I went back and came here again though. I have lived in the State this time two years. I was going to work the day I was arrested to John Murray No 9 Murray St. I met him in the Green car and he asked me if I knew a boy out of work; he asked me if I would be satisfied with three dollars a week. I was going up Nassau to Fulton right over to Broadway when I was arrested. I have been in this Court before, I could not exactly tell when. I was here about two hours. I went home with my mother.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny from the person with a recommendation to mercy.

The Judge sent the boy to the House of Refuge deponent as Cashier of said Fink and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

Charles Montgomery, New Hire for the reasons following, to wit: That at said time said Charles came into the office of said Fink at 384 and 386 West 45th Street and asked deponent to change a fifty dollar bill.
That deponent said he would do so and said he would take same bill. That he said he would take same bill and deponent thereupon counted out and gave him thirty-two dollars in notes or bills and was about to give him eighteen dollars in silver when he said

Recorder Smyth

The Mother of John Moore calls upon me to say what I can to keep her son from going to prison or lighten his punishment.
I do not know anything about the case and can only say that he was in my employ for four months and seemed a decent, modest, tidy, well behaved boy. I believed him to be well disposed and fairly honest and did not think him likely to be mischievous. He seemed so

0600 quick. His mother is a widow, with a son at home as invalid, and I think may be some help to her if employed.

He is not with us now.
I let him go, as I did not find him strong enough for the work. I wanted him to do. I had no special fault to find with him.
I do not want to shield him if he is guilty of bad papers, and I write this to please them, as they infered it would do them some good.
If you can make it any advantage to them consistently I and they will be obliged.
Very Respectfully

The People
John Murray } Court of General Sessions, Part First.
Indictment for burglary in the third degree and grand larceny and receiving stolen goods. Before Judge Gildersleeve. March 16. 1881.

Minified Cifton, sworn and examined, testified.
Where do you live? No 1127 Broadway, second floor, between Twenty fifth and Twenty sixth Sts.
Were you living there on the 2nd of March last?
Yes sir. Did you leave your room in the afternoon?
Yes sir. About what time? Two o'clock, the doors were locked. Did you have any property in the room at the time? All my things were there.
How long were you out? I returned at six o'clock.
When you came back how did you find the room?
I found the door burst open; there were marks on the door as though some one had pushed it with their feet at the bottom; there was a piece of wood where the lock fits in burst off.
Did you find any of your property missing?
I found all my clothing missing and the wardrobe and bureau drawers open. (Counsel for the prisoner admitted that all the property named in the indictment was stolen.) There was taken one silk dress valued at $150, one revolver.
The dresses lost were worth about $450. I saw at the station house a satin Princess dress, a revolver, a silk dress and a lace negligee and part of another dress. Those were some of the things that were in my room. I identified them as mine. Frank J. Nugent, sworn and examined testified. I am a member of the Fourteenth Precinct Police. I was on duty on the 2nd of March. I arrested the prisoner in Baxter St. He had a silk dress with him and a revolver and part of another dress. I showed these articles to Mrs. Tilton and she identified them as hers. Cross Examined. He had them in a bundle carrying them under his arm. I asked him where he got them? He said he got them from a man corner of Broome St. and Buxary; he was going to the pawn office with them. When you were going to arrest him he said, "All right," he would go with you. Yes sir, I took him to the station house. He told me he got them from a man. I asked him the man's name and he said he did not know the man. The defendant lives around the neighborhood of the 14th precinct. I never knew anything wrong of him; he belongs to a good family. This is the first case I ever knew him to be in.

John Murray, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I go across the ocean with cattle; the last work I did was with the American Telegraph Co. I was never arrested for stealing or anything like that before this. I live with my mother in Mott St. I left the corner of Baxter and Bayard St. at about 1/4 to 3 o'clock. I went up to see a friend of mine; his name is Johnny Clark. I did not see him at the corner and I thought I would take a walk up to Tony Pastor's to read the bills, and when I was coming back I met a man at the corner of Broome St. and Broadway. I saw him two or three times before; they call him "Jerry", I think his other name is McGowan. I saw him corner of Baxter and Bayard Sts. two or three times before at the liquor store there. He called me over; he asked me did I want to make a dollar? I said, "yes", because I was not working and I needed a dollar pretty bad. He told me to pawn the things in Moses in father-in-law St.; and to meet him in a liquor store in Grand St. right near Broadway. He fetched me to the place and showed me it, Toole's I think is the name. I was going to the pawnbroker's where I was arrested. I walked down Mulberry St. to Canal and turned down Canal to Baxter St. When you were arrested by the officer did you tell him how you came by them as soon as you were arrested? Yes sir, right away. I think it was on Ash Wednesday that I was arrested. I was not up at Mr. Tilton's house 1127 Broadway on the 2nd of March, I was not in the house that day. I did not take any property from this lady. I never saw her before in my life. Cross Examined. I go across the ocean with cattle; my father died about six weeks ago. The last trip I made across the ocean with cattle was last October. I only worked two weeks for the Telegraph Co; the work was kind of hard. I work around the market, carrying odd jobs. I am 20 years old, I live 57 Mott St. Clark lives in Bayard St; he works for the firm of Kirsch, Parker & Co; he gives out bills corner of Grand St. and Broadway. I saw the man whom I met at the corner of Broadway and Broome St. three times before, but I never spoke to him but once. I did not know what he had in that bundle, he told me he had a dress and a revolver. I did not ask him why he did not go himself. I never gave it a thought, I did not think anything was wrong. I did not ask him whose property it was. I guess it was $3\frac{1}{2}$ or $\frac{1}{4}$ to 24 that the officer arrested me; it was after 3 o'clock when I got the goods. I was around the streets all day, I had no special occupation. I work down the markets at odd jobs, I was going to have a job on Saturday. I was going to pawn the things in my own name. The man was leaning up against a house; he called me over and I went over to him; the goods were wrapped in a newspaper; he told me to get ten dollars on the press and try to get three dollars on the pistol and he said he would give me a dollar for doing it. It did not occur to me suspicious for a man to have a silk dress and a pistol that time of day in Brown St.. I have heard of people getting arrested for receiving stolen goods, but I never gave it a thought.

0676

James Con~~dan~~an, sworn. I am a tailor. I know the prisoner since he was a boy, he lived next door to me, I never heard anything bad about him.

Margaret Clark testified that the prisoner was her nephew; he crossed the Atlantic with cattle and always worked hard and honest. He left my house at 2 o'clock on the day he was arrested.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods with a recommendation to mercy.

He was sent to the State Reformatory.
