I hereby certify that I have been called to day, at about 12.30 P. M. at Mr. Alexander Jackson, residing at No. 27. Allen. St. City. And found a wound caused by a cut of a knife, on the biceps of his left arm, about $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch in length and $\frac{3}{8}$ of an inch in depth.

Opinion; that it is not dangerous, and will take two or three weeks to heal up.

Julius S. Feldburg, unlawfully held, kept and offered for sale against and in violation of the provisions of the Sanitary Code, and of such Sanitary Code then and there, and at all times thereafter in force and operation, and especially against and in violation of the provisions of a section and ordinance of such Sanitary Code which was duly passed and adopted by the Board of Health of the Health Department of the City of New York, and by said Health Department at a meeting thereof, duly held in said city, on the twenty-third day of February, 1876, in the manner and language following, to wit :

" Resolved, That under the power conferred by law upon the Health Department, the following " additional section to the Sanitary Code, for the security of life and health, be, and the same is hereby,
" adopted and declared to form a portion of the Sanitary Code.

" ' No Milk which has been watered, adulterated, reduced or changed in any respect by the " ' addition of water or other substance, or by the removal of cream, shall be brought into, held,
" ' kept or offered for sale at any place in the City of New York, nor shall any one keep, have or offer
" ' for sale in the said city any such Milk.' "

That said ordinance was thereafter duly published once a week, for two successive weeks, in the City Record, a daily official newspaper and journal published in said city, to wit, in the issues of such newspaper of the 24th day of February, 1876, and also of the 2d day of March, 1876, and that said ordinance was, at all times alleged herein, in full force and operation in said city and county.
