Hon. Henry M. Gildersleeve.

Dear Sir:-

An investigation by this Association shows that defendants were requested by Mr. Mulvey of East 11th St. to bring to this country some good "English knives". As he had formerly employed one of the defendants the knives were brought over. We do not believe the defendants considered the knives as weapons, or that either of them were aware that they were violating any law. We accordingly most respectfully recommend that your Honor suspend judgment in their cases.
