3rd District Police Court. Affidavit—Larceny.
CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, ss. Philip Hill of No. 126 East 4th Street, 29th Barkeeper being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 17th day of June 1883 at the Corner of West + Canal Street City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent and from his person in the night time, with intent to deprive the true owner of the use and benefit thereof—

One silver watch and one gold chain and locket, and in all of the value of fifty five dollars the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by George Thompson (nursed) for the reason that, as deponent was about to step upon a car at the corner of Canal and West Streets said

Thompson snatched said watch and chain and locket, from deponent's vest pocket, said chain being attached to deponent's vest (and said vest being at the time upon deponent's body and person) and said Thompson then ran away with said property—

Deponent followed said Thompson and did not lose sight of him until he was arrested by Officer Drunken of the 5th Precinct Police. When said Thompson was arrested deponent saw said Thompson throw away said property which was picked up by said officer Drunken and deponent identifies it as his property and which had been <sup>voluntarily</sup> stolen and carried away from deponent's possession and person by said Thompson.

0275

Charles F. Rillings's Report.

Grand Central Garden, 152 & 154 42nd. street, near 3rd. Avenue. Went in there Sunday night, June 17'. Found place open. Fifty seven in garden and thirteen in bar room, acting or singing; music, &c.. Sixteen prostitutes. We were there over one hour. Counted some thirty more coming in and going out. There was pool playing also in bar room. We had some whiskey and beer. Admission is 10 cents. Several had whiskey; most of them had lager beer. Had a row while we were there: some drunken fellows quarrelling, but it was soon stopped by the Bouncer, as they call him. He is a sort of private officer to stop any row that may occur in the place or eject any one. Saw the proprietor, Mr. Verailli. He is a stout man; looks like a Frenchman. His head, or forepart of his head is quite bald; has beard. Left there about 10 P. M.. ~~there went through the 20' Precinct. Found some soliciting in 21st. street, 20' street and Sixth Avenue, but not as much as on previous occasions. Could's was open Sunday night but open Saturday night until four Sunday morning~~

Thomas Daly's Report.

Central Garden, 42nd. street and 3rd. Avenue, open Sunday, 17' of June. Had a drink of whiskey and a drink of beer at 10-30 P. M.. About 43 people; 15 women; 14 in pool room playing, mostly boys. One woman sang two songs on stage; also one man two songs. Music, piano, violin and cornet.
