The People Court of General Sessions, part I.
vs. Before Judge Gilders leeve.
Michael Ferris.

Monday, September 1, 1884.

Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.

Emna Leuck sworn. Did you ever see this boy before that day? No. Where were you at the time? I^u front of my own house 441 Grand Street, I was standing on the sidewalk, I was talking to my brother and I felt a tug at my dress, I thought it was strange being I was not in amongst the crowd; it made me turn round and I saw the boy with his hand in my pocket, I took him by the collar and pushed him in on the railing; he said let go of me and rushed off I followed four or five houses around the corner, I had my baby on one arm and the baby screamed so terribly I could not go further; the crowd followed him up until the officer caught him, he was taken to the Station House and I was called there to identify him, this happened Saturday, three weeks ago, I saw the prisoner that same night about a quarter of an hour after and identified him. I had $1.30 in my pocket-book, this was about half past nine in the evening. Cross Examined. I never had seen this boy before that night; there was a fight going on in the street when I turned round and felt the tugging at my dress. I am sure I saw him taking his hand out of my pocket when I got hold of him. I saw that young lady sitting over there before, she came to see me twice. Did you tell her you were not sure her brother put his hand in your pocket? I said if he admitted that he did not take my pocket-book I would believe anything to let him go so I would not have to go to Court. Did you say to her that you were not sure of having seen him with his hand in your pocket? No I did not say it.

Frederick Berg sworn. I am a police officer of the 13th precinct and arrested this lad on that night. I was on patrol duty that night in Broome Street taking the side streets as far as Grand. I know where the complainant lives. The defendant was running and people were hollerin stop, thief and I gave chase. How far did he get before you captured him? Three blocks. In what direction did he go? He ran from Ridge towards Attorney and from Attorney towards Divisions and through Division to Clinton. A man stopped him when I hollered to him and then I brought him back to the Station House. This woman went back again to get her child; in the meantime while I was in the Station House I went out to get her and another officer brought her to the Station House inside of twenty minutes. Did she identify him? Yes.

The Case for the Defence.

Micheal Ferris sworn and examined. I live at 27 Munroe Street with my father and mother, I heard the charge of this lady that she caught my hand in her pocket. I was up in Divisions Street to buy a pair of pants, I was after coming out of the store and I saw a crowd running up Ridge Street, I run up to see what was the matter and when I got up there I saw a fight, a couple of young men with clubs running into the liquor store; the policeman ran down chasing the crowd away, I was standing on the other side of the street and all of a sudden a woman grabbed me and said, Charlie you have got my pocket-book. I said, you are mistaken I have not got your pocket-book, I walked away and saw the crowd running after me and I ran. Did you put your hand into that lady's pocket? No. You were there and she grabbed you and pulled you to the railing?

yes, I was standing round the curbstone amongst a lot of other people looking at the fight.

Cross Examined. I did not see the ladies face until she turned around and grabbed me, I was about a foot away from her. I am a porter in the American Press Association, 39 and 41 Park Place and I got five dollars a week there, I had been there about two weeks, I worked in Donaldson's Lithographing place before that about five months, I have never been arrested before, I live in 27 Monroe Street.

Mary Ferris sworn. I live at 27 Monroe Street, my brother is seventeen years old, I went to see the complainant after my brother was arrested; she told me all about the occurrence. She told me that she informed the officer she did not lose her pocket-book; she said she did not know whether it was the defendant took it or not she could not see his face but judging from his size she thought it was him; she said furthermore if she wanted to prosecute the boy she could have said he had taken her pocket-book and nobody would have known different. I did not ask her to withdraw the charge against my brother; she said she could not exactly say it was he because she didn't see his face.

Emma Leack recalled. The defendant's sister came to see me twice, I did not express to her any doubt as to the identity of this boy, I said that he did not get my pocket book. I was looking into his face, I had him right in front of me.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy. The defendant was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year.

Balthasar Fischer

John W. Ford Police Justice.

0368

City and County of New York ss.

Marion Weingartner, the Complainant, sworn and Cross examined by Counsel McClelland -

Q How long have you known the defendant?

A One year, this month.

Q Has she lived in your premises during that time?

A He lodged there for the past 11 months.

Q How long have you lived in your present residence?

A Since last November. The defendant occupies the first bed room off the front room, the front room is a parlor.

Q Has there been any other persons stopping in that room with the defendant?

A There was a Joseph Fisher with him in the room, he left about six weeks ago.

Q What room did you occupy?

A The one next to Fischers, the middle room.

First Comes the parlor, then Fischer's room, then mine, then a vacant room and the kitchen in the rear of all. You have to go through each room to get from front to rear. When I wanted to go to the parlor I passed from the kitchen through the bed-rooms.

Q Have you passed through Fischer's room, while Fischer was in bed, previous to the time of this alleged assault?

A Yes I have - there were other people in the house at the time. I never took any notice whether he was awake or asleep. I cannot tell how often I have gone through his room, quite a number of times.

Q Do you remember ever having tickled Fischer as you went through his room?

A I never put my hands on him to my knowledge. I never romped or played with him. The assault on me took place in the evening between 9 & 10 o'clock. There was no person present at the time but Fisher and myself. It took place in my own bed room. I came from the kitchen to the parlor with my baby. I left her in the crib in the parlor and returned. I stopped to turn the clothes on Fisher's bed, and he followed me from the parlor and stood beside me in his bed-room. I asked him if he wanted to pass through, he said "yes". I stepped in my own bed room and he threw me deliberately on the bed. He got down himself on top of me. I could not scream for he kept his face close to mine, and while lying there he unbuttoned his pants. He did not press hard against me while unbuttoning his pants. He was holding me with one

0371

Hand. He got my clothes up and put his hand on my
leg. I then bit his arm with my teeth and he then jumped up. I then got up and went into the kitchen and he followed me and said to me "please don't tell Charles," I replied I would see about it. I said that as I was alone with him. He again begged me not to tell my husband and said he thought I was a different woman. I told him to clear out and that he would get his money back on the first of the month. He then went to his trunk and afterwards went out. He returned at 10 o'clock in the morning and he would not let him in because I told him what had taken place. I heard my husband say to him "you can't come in you rascal"

0373

Called me into the kitchen and asked me if I would go for a pint of beer as she did not have her supper yet.
I said yes and took the pitcher and was going out when she called me back and was going to give me the money for it. I would not take the money because she had paid for a pint of beer in the afternoon. I went out for the beer and took the bag with me. When I came back I put the beer on the table and the bag on the floor. I poured out two glasses of beer and she and I drank it. I stood against the door post in the kitchen and she asked me to take a chair and sit down. We talked about her first child. She said it was born dead in seven months and the reason why it was born

0374

dead was that her husband had bought a doctor.
About half past 9 o'clock I went into the parlor and she came in to look for the baby. I sat on the lounge. She said to me how would you like to lie down on the carpet. I said I liked the carpet when it was too hot in bed. She then commenced to make my bed in my room, where she had it ready she asked me if I wanted to lie down. I said yes and yes. She then went into the new bed room, and I went after her to pass into the toilet room. She asked me where I was going and I said to the closet. She stepped on one side and let me pass. As I passed her she tickled me on the side
I said I can't stand tickling

0375

So I turned about and put my arms around her and she fell on the bed. I tried to get her cloths up and she put her legs together and I couldn't get the cloths up. I pushed her between the legs through the cloths and at the same time she hit me on the arm. Then I got away from her.

Q Has she come into your room before that while you were on bed?

A She has a number of times. We have romped together and pushed each other about. Before I went for the beer she said to me I guess we must have a lie down that you must say nothing to Charlie.

Q When told you to leave the home?

A At 10 o'clock she told me to leave the home when 0376

My mouth was out and I said I would go then. My mouth is up on the last of this month. I went out and come back and tapped and Mr. Weingartner said I could not get in or I'll have you arrested.

Re: Direct

Q The husband told you (her) would get you arrested that night?

A Yes sir. He also told me to the next morning at the hotel where I worked for him. I knew the Com-plainant to be a decent respectable woman. I never attempted to take any liberties with her before. I did not attempt to open my pants and I did not put my hands on her naked person. I touched her naked knees.
