Precinct No. 22.

New York, February 7th 1887.

Hon. Frederick Smyth,

Recorder of City of New York.

Sir:

In obedience to your request I herewith submit the following report regarding the character of James Kennedy ^{alias} James M^c Ginty; viz: From information that I have received in the neighborhood where the said Kennedy has resided for some years, I have learned that he bears a bad character having for his associates a gang of criminals who make their headquarters in 63rd Street, between First and Second Avenues, (commonly known as "Battle Row"). I have ascertained that one John J. Ryan, who writes to Lawyer Blake of 73 Centre Street, testifying to the good character of Kennedy; has been an associate of his (Kennedy's); the said Ryan being a worthless character who plunders and steals at every opportunity. He (Ryan) gives his residence as 326 East 63rd Street, which is false, as he is entirely unknown there; the house being occupied by Bohemians.

John P. Moore, who writes to Mrs. M^c Ginty, stating that Kennedy's character was good, resides at 1535 Second Avenue, is a Telegraph Operator, but at present is unemployed, having been arrested for Seduction. Said Moore is better known in that locality by the name of "Rocky Moore."

I have examined the record of arrests in the 25th Precinct Police Station, since January 1st 1883, and find that he Kennedy has never been arrested there for any offence.

One Harry Sandstein who swears to the good character of Kennedy, stating that he is in business in 75th Street I cannot find, after making a diligent search for him.
