OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

Emma Jackson

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse

Emma Jackson

(Sec. 322,
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said Emma Jackson

late of the Fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Tenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in said house divers ill-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well as in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offenses on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Emma Jackson

(Sec. 325,
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the Tenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- two —, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, ther and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT:

Emma Jackson

(Sec. 322,
Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the Tenth — day of March — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- two — and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are habitually disturbed, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Indictment filed March 31, 1892.

Indicted for burglary in the first degree.

New York, April 5th, 1892.

A P P E A R A N C E S.

For the People,

Assistant District Attorney Henry D. MacDona.

For the Defendant,

Mr H. D. Blumenthal.

W I L L I A M W E I S K, a witness for the People, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

I live at No.526 East 16th Street in this City.
I keep a saloon at that number on the ground floor. On the night of the 26th of March, this year, I locked up my store at about eleven o'clock. I locked all the doors leading to my saloon, and went up stairs to bed. I was awakened at about 12 o'clock by hearing a noise of bottles shaking. This noise came from the hallway. I went out and in x the hallway of my premises I found a bottle of port wine and an empty brandy bottle. I know the defendant I heard his voice on that night talking with McMahon down at the door. When I was about to lock the hall door, the defendant, who was standing there, told me it would be all right; that he would lock it. He lived upstairs in the same house. When I went down to my store and examined my property, I found that several bottles of liquor were missing and some segars. The value of the property stolen was about $16 or $18. I looked all over the house and in the yard, but at that time found no trace of anybody. Nearly two o'clock in the morning I was again disturbed by hearing someone coming down from the roof. I went up stairs and I saw the defendant coming from the roof. He was quite drunk. He went into his room and went to bed.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

I live on the first floor above the store. There was gaslight in my premises. I know the defendant about eight months; he has lived in that house for that time. I am positive I heard the defendant say that he would lock the doorearly in the evening. An officer found some liquor under the defendant's bed in his room.

M A R T I N T. R O B I N S O N, a witness for the People, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

I am a police officer attached to the 18th precinct. I arrested the defendant on the 26th of March in his own room at No. 526 East 16th Street. He was in bed at the time I entered the house at half past 8 o'clock in the morning. I told him that the complainant suspected him of breaking into his place. He says, "I didn't do anything of the kind; I don't know anything about it." I said "You better dress yourself and come down and explain the matter to him." While he was in the act of dressing himself, another officer stepped into the room and looked under the bed, and took out a demijohn and bottle and showed them to him. He immediately turned around and says "Well, I was drunk and I done it." The officer asked him who was with him, and he said Jack McMahon. We took him down stairs to the complainant, and the complainant identified the demijohn and the bottle as his property. This defendant showed us where McMahon lived. We went around to McMahon's residence and arrested him. The defendant identified McMahon as the man who was with him.

P A T R I C K C R A Y, a witness for the people, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

I am a police officer attached to the 18th precinct. In company with Officer Robinson on the 26th of March last I went to the house No. 526 East 16th Street, in this city. I was present at the arrest of the defendant. We went up stairs, Robinson walking ahead. When he entered the room of the defendant Robinson said, "This man down stairs suspects you of breaking into his place. You had better get up and dress yourself and come down and see him." He denied it in the room. While he was putting on his clothes I went inside in the bedroom, struck a match, and I found a demijohn and a bottle of brandy under his bed. I took them out and showed them to him, and he said "Well, I was a little drunk; I didn't know what I was doing." We asked him who was with him and he said McMahon. We brought him down stairs. The bottle and the demijohn were shown to the proprietor, and identified by him as his property. We then went around to No.417 East 17th Street, and arrested the defendant McMahon.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

We made no threat or offered no inducement to the defendant before he made this confession to us.

D E F E N C E.

T H E O D O R E J A H N K E, the defendant, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

I am 19 years of age and live at No.526 East 16th Street. I am a turner by occupation. On March 26th I went to Brooklyn, and on coming back at 10 o'clock I stood at the door of 526 East 16th Street. I stood there till nearly 11 o'clock. I met a young man from the top floor coming in named Donnelly, and I says "Come on, Mr Donnelly, and have a drink." Me, McMahon and Donnelly went into the complainant's saloon and had a few drinks. Then the complainant came out and was about to close the door, and I said to him "Never mind that; I will go right up and I will lock it." McMahon and I took a walk and I left him home. I came back again. I was kind of intoxicated. I wanted to get in the house but the door was locked. I then went into the next house and over the roof and came down into my own house. In the hall I saw a demijohn and a bottle. I took hold of them, and brought them into my room. I didn't have any part in breaking into this store; I could not tell who did break into it. I drank considerable that night, but I remember everything that occurred. I tripped over the bottle of whiskey and the demijohn in the hall. I have never been arrested in my life.

C H A R L E S J A H N K E, a witness for the defendant, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

I am a painter. The defendant is my son. He lives at home.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

He is 19 years of age. He was married last October. His wife ran away from him; that is the reason he is living now with me. He lived with me up to the time of his marriage.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.

Indictment filed Mar. 31-1892.

City and County } ss: of New York, }

George W. Foy
of No. 137 West Street, aged 40 years, occupation Carpenter, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 7th day of January 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Good valuable money of the United States consisting of Paper notes and gold coins, being together of the value of Sixteen hundred dollars ($1600.00)

the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Geo. Johnson (now here) and another person unknown to deponent who is as yet not arrested and who were acting in concert for the reasons following to wit, That on the 6th day of January 1892 deponent was in Jide Stevens House, Broadway the city, and paid a person coming up to deponent and arrested him by saying "I see you are a stranger in this city and you want to be careful of your money, as there are a great many thieves here, and they will rob you." and deponent then thanked defendant and said defendant then went away. Dependent further says that on the morning of the 7th day of January 1892, while he was in the said Stevens house paid defendant again came to him, and entering into a conversation with defendant in German defendant then told said defendant he had a certain of going to Germany and said defendant then told defendant he was the General Agent of the Hamburg Steamship Company, and exchanged names. And said defendant that his defendant's name was George Goetz and his office was near the street (mentioning to dependent the name of the street which defendant has forgotten) and as living as defendant wanted to go to Europe he said defendant would protect him from the robbers. And then in New York, and that he defendant would immediately send one of his (dependants) agents to him who would bring him to ^{his} defendant's office, and who would protect him (dependent) against the thieves and robbers in the City, and that he defendant would then give defendant his passage ticket for Europe and that he would also exchange this defendant's money into paper money and by doing that, he would be protected from the thieves and defendant then left dependent. Dependent further says that about the hour of 11 o'clock P.M. on the afternoon of the said day said unknown person who is as yet not arrested, came to him at the Stevens house "Ed handed defendant a piece of paper" which read as follows "This is the man that is going to take you to my office" Ed signed "George Galt". defendant believing the representations so made by said defendant Johnson to be true took said money from the table in his room Ed placed the same in his inside coat pocket after which he had on, and accompanied the said defendant to an office in a narrow street, in the lower part of said city (which street, or where it was, defendant is unable to state) arriving at the said office with said defendant person, defendant immediately opened the said door Ed said defendant person pushed defendant into the said room Ed said defendant immediately locked the said door Ed placed the key in his pocket. That said defendant then opened a drawer under a counter, which defendant believes contained money. He took therefrom money and placed it on the table. He said defendant then said defendant to put his money on the table. He wanted give him paper money for the same. That defendant did place his money on said table. He defendant counted it. He said it was $1600 dollars. He placed defendant's money in the said drawer, He that said defendant then counted out $1600 dollars from the money he had taken from said drawer into one hundred dollar pieces. He took the same and placed it in his pocket then taking him of defendant by the body pulled him to the door said room. He opened it. He pushed defendant out. He immediately locked said door. He remained in said room. He when defendant was outside of said office

3 he saw the said unknown person running away. And deponent further says that from said time up the present day he had not seen said unknown person nor said defendant; Depoent further says that on the 11th day of February 1892 he saw said defendant at short distance from the Stevens House and followed defendant into a restaurant where he had gone and in said restaurant deponent told said defendant you are the thief that stole my money and I want it And said defendant pushed deponent aside and run out of said restaurant, and deponent pursued him, shouting stop thief, And deponent is informed by John Sire of the foot of Manhattan Avenue Jersey City that he saw said defendant near Greenwich Street running with a crowd following him and shouting "Stop thief" and said he was caught said dependant & he had him until a police officer came & he arrested him. Dependant further says that he fully identifies the said dependant as the person who took the said property away said property & he charges him with the larceny aforesaid

New York, May 19th. 1892.
To the Honorable Frederick S. S. S., Recorder.

Dear Sir:-

In the case of Gus Johnson, charged with Grand Larceny, I beg to report that the case was on the docket, in Part III of the Court of General Sessions, on March 18th. 1892, and the defendant's motion for a writ of Habeas Corpus was ordered perfected, but it was not perfected at that time.

On March 21st., a writ of Habeas Corpus was granted by the Supreme Court of the City and County of New York for the purpose of securing the release of George W. Frey, the complainant in the case, then held in the House of Detention, the relators' counsel having been allowed to take the case on the merits. The defendant, Johnson, was released. I asked the sitting Justice to hold the witness responsible for the result and the District Attorney to produce the defendant or Johnson's counsel. It was decided that the whole matter was a trick to deceive the Court and to get the complainant out of the way; the decision was reserved, but on March 28th., a decision was handed down sustaining the writ. I have arranged with the County Clerk to produce the defendant before Your Honor, the defendant, notice being given in the proceedings on the writ of Habeas Corpus.

I am informed that on April 1st. the defendant was permitted for bail and a motion made to discharge the forfeiture. After receiving the above information from the District Attorney the Court refused to grant the motion.

and held the defendant in double the amount of his former bail.

On the same day the order for the recognizance was entered and also, on the same day judgment was entered in the County Clerk's Office and an execution issued to the Sheriff. The Sheriff was to wait, for some days, to ascertain whether or not the surety owned any personal property but reported, on April 1st, that what little personal property was ostensibly owned by the surety was claimed by others. It appearing by the records of the Register's Office that the surety had not transferred the real estate in which he justified, the Sheriff was immediately given an accurate description of that property and instructed to advertise it for sale. This was done and the notice of sale is still being published.

Yours very truly

Jacob Washburn,
Deputy Assistant
Dist. Atty.

Dear Sir:--

Application has been made for the certificate of the District Attorney that the People of the State of New York have lost no rights by reason of the forfeiture of the recognizance given by Nathan I. Bennett on February 16th, 1892, in the sum of $3000, for the appearance of Gus Johnson, charged with Grand Larceny in the first degree.

It appears that the forfeiture was declared on March 21st, 1892; that the complaining witness who was confined in the House of Detention was thereupon discharged, and that subsequently the defendant reappeared.

The complaining witness could not then be found and the defendant was therefore discharged on his own recognizance, the Recorder (Hon. Justice Smyth) at the same time directing that the judgment of $3000 entered on the forfeiture be collected. The judgment was collected and the proceeds turned over to the City Chamberlain. In the meantime the case was carried to the Court of Appeals by the Surety, and that Court sustained the forfeiture. The County was put to the expense of printing the notices of sale of the property and of preparing the necessary papers for the Court of Ap-

Livingston
District Attorney.

23 April 1892

Tomb, City prison.

Dear Sir:

22 times I was brought in Court for trial. my case was in the hands of 7 different Juries.
Diet. After, the people against me were, each time present in the Court and, - tell now I am confined in the Tomb, without hope that my case will ever come for trial. What is the reason?

I am a stranger in this country, but I don't suppose that it can be an excuse for to keep me in prison without trial.

You will affirm, that it is very easy to have a man arrested in your country and in consequence to keep ^{him} in prison, - but I can not believe that the Law allows to keep as long as the plaintiff desires, without trial.

I accomplished my education last summer, having studied for 16 years and as I am acquainted - in criminal cases, how in scientific investigations nothing can not be certain without proof, ergo for to keep me in my present condition, the court must find me guilty in the accused crime.

If the A. D. C. believe in my innocence - I am right to have my liberty immediately.

Am I guilty? You believe Well, then it is not in the hands that I must be confined.

I am obliged to mention that the plaintiff changed his accusation 3rd; it is only he who spoke it, but am I not right to say, also, a word in my own defense?

Certainly you are more disposed to believe the plaintiff than the defendant, but give me my trial and I will prove that the charge is absolutely false and it is time for me to have satisfaction.

The American citizens are considered as the more civilized, more progressive and enlightened people in the world, is not so?

Well, in the same time a man who is unable to furnish the required funds is considered like a dog (unfortunately, not like dogs in rich families).

Cuffs and prison-chicken wagon is certainly the last word in civilization!

It is true also, that the driver of the wagon is perhaps the more ingenious man in New York City.

But I am tired of his entangling and fines and I hope that you will, kindly, fix a day for my trial, what in the same time will be an end to all my miserly

I will be very obligate to you. It is only justice that I require.
Perhaps you will find my letter not as it should be, but considering my

I am nearly insane.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

Valentine Joseph

Valentine Joseph

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Valentine Joseph, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fifteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- one, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Theodore May.

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Theodore May,

That he the said Valentine Joseph was then engaged to be married to a young woman and that all the arrangements had been made for his marriage to her on the 28th day of December then next ensuing.

That she the said young woman to whom he was so engaged to be married, was the daughter of a very wealthy man, who was the owner of a number of houses in said city, and among others a house situated at number 125 Fifth Avenue in said city.
That this prospective father-in-law purchase for and desired to purchase his said daughter as present, and desired to insert various articles of jewelry in order that he might obtain therefrom such present, and that he the said Valentine Joseph had been requested by his said prospective father - in law to procure a number of articles of jewelry for him for that purpose, and to be returned to the owner, it is not purchased by him.

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said

— Valentine Joseph —

did then and there feloniously and fraudulently obtain from the possession of the said

Therese May, the sum of the value of one hundred and twenty five dollars each, and one foreign coin of the value of one hundred dollars, of the ~~proper~~ moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said ~~Therese~~ with intent to deprive and defraud the said ~~Therese May~~, of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to ~~his~~ own use.

May, —

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Valentine Joseph was not then engaged to be married to any young woman, and all the arrangements had not been made for the marriage to her on the said 28th day of December 1891, and the said young woman was not the daughter of a very wealthy man who was the owner of the number of houses in said city and among other a house situated at number 125 Fifth Avenue in said City; and this young lady further in said did not, desire to purchase for her to purchase this said daughter a present, and did not desire to purchase various articles of jewelry in order to select such present therefrom; and the said Valentine Joseph had not been requested by this said prospective father-in-law to purchase a number of articles of jewelry for this for that purpose, and to be returned to the owner if not purchased by him.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Valentine Joseph to the said Theodore May, was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as the said

 at the time of making the same then and there well knew;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said

 in the manner and form aforesaid and by the means aforesaid, the said ~~proper moneys~~, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Theodore May, then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.
