PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

William Lally.

Char & Har cony.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

My reasons for said recommendation are as follows:

The defendant was in the employ of an official dog-catcher. I do not believe he had any felonious intent in the taking of the dog.

I am informed & believe that he is the support of a family.

I believe he has suffered sufficiently by the imprisonment & he has undergone & I therefore request permission to withdraw the complaint.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Thomas Serony

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse of the CRIME OF ROBBERY in the First degree, committed as follows:

The said Thomas Serony late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ~~thirteenth~~ day of ~~September~~, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the time of the said day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon one Dominica Hopkins, in the peace of the said People, then and there being, feloniously did make an assault, and one watch of the value of fifty dollars, of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said Dominica Hopkins, from the person of the said Dominica Hopkins, against the will, and by violence to the person of the said Dominica Hopkins, then and there violently and feloniously did rob, steal, take and carry away, (the said Thomas Serony being then and there aided by two accomplices, actually present, whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid as yet unknown) against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

deposes and says, that on the 7 day of July 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

One gold Ring set with diamonds and Emerald of the value of one hundred and twenty dollars and good and lawful money of the United States of the amount and value of one hundred and the property of Deponent and copartner and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Martin Lewis (now here)

Deponent says that on said date said defendant came to his place of business and purchased said ring and gave the annexed check hereto attached in payment thereof and deponent returned him said defendant the aforesaid money in return for said check which was drawn on said Bank for the sum of $300 —

Deponent further says that said defendant did designedly obtain from his possession by means of the false token hereto annexed the aforesaid money and property he said defendant presenting the same dated Boston Mass July 5, 1887 said check being partly to the Second National Bank of the City of Boston and purporting to be signed by James T. Johnson and requested deponent to give him said property and money. Deponent says that at the time said defendant presented said check and received said property and money falsely represented that the check was good and would be paid and it was made by James T. Johnson.

That this deponent relying upon said representations gave to said defendant the aforesaid property and money as aforesaid.

Deponent says that said check is worthless and that said James T. Johnson has not any account in said Bank nor does he keep an account in said Bank in said City and that said check is worthless.

Therefore deponent charges said defendant with feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property as aforesaid.

Nov 17.

There is some doubt as to whether the patient is a genuine case of dementia. It is of course not possible to make a diagnosis of dementia in the absence of a careful examination.

The patient is a man of about 40 years of age, of medium height, and of medium build. He is morose, and is one of the most difficult of his kind to handle. He has the habit of looking at the observer with a look of defiance, and is very suspicious of mental examination.

His memory is fairly good, but his mental powers are weakened, and he has little or no idea of the gravity of his affairs. He presents marked symptoms of organic disease of the brain - unequally dilated pupils, increased tendon reflexes, shaking gait, and a change of pressure of the tongue.
