Honored Sir.

I have obtained
 these credentials, for my son
 I have one other person who would give him one
 acquaintance and
 employer for the last 10 or 12 years. William
 P. Van Alen contractor and builder of the Pennsylvania Railroad Buildings and docks but he has been retired from business the last two years after I left the coach room yesterday I visited every place where I knew ²

 he had occasion to go
 I learned he was in Merchants Hotel in
 the morning.
 I then crossed to 13th St
 to his house where he is stopping with
 Dr. Harnum and Stoddard
 637 - Lafayette Ave
 a brother in law of
 C. P. Huntington, Jr. I said Mr Van Alen
 would probably be
 home early unless he had gone to Plainfield
 New Jersey I waited
 from 4 o'clock until 8:30
 I am now, going

over again. 3
 I hope I can find
 him for his reference
 would be an acceptable
 one - I cannot find
 language to express
 my gratitude and thanks
 for your generous
 leniency to my son.
 If I could give my life to have this dishonor blotted out would seem little. He has had a great trouble 29 years
 of age and buried wife
 and 2 children - and
 the last five months out of employ ment he has been almost crazed

4 If you can consistently discharge him -
 you will not regret
 it. He has done right before and has many friends and no enemies
 we have kept this from all our family and friends 7 o'clock Tuesday morning
 I shall now try again until I can find time to see Mr Van Allen - if I cannot I assure within three days I will bring it on to Mr. Lloyd will
 as he can see him
 within business hours
 that I do not know

I have made a careful examination of the complaint the only witness, in the written charge. I am satisfied from the examination that I leave aside that the interests of justice do not require that any further proceedings be taken against the witness named defendant. The defendant is a very reputable and respectable man and the assault committed was in reality a trifling character. The complaint sustained no considerable personal injury and desires to withdraw the charge. The defendant has, in my opinion, been sufficiently punished for the indignity inflicted upon the complainant, by the disgrace and publicity of an indictment. I recommend the dismissal of the writings ingrafted. Jan 7-89 Paul & Mary Travers Jerome Deputy Clerk.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The defendant, who I am informed is a respectable man struck me, because I ordered him out of my place. He had a cane in his hand at the time, and I believe it was a sudden burst of temper that caused him to do so. He has regretted the occurrence and I ask the Court to permit me to withdraw the Complaint I have here made,
