pled March

0134

The People
 vs. Charles Pleissner } Court of General Sessions. Part-F Jointly indicted with Charles Kelly for burglary in the third degree and grand larceny in the second degree. Johanna Meyer, sworn and examined testified through the interpreter. On the 18th of last month I lived in Allen St. in a basement. I left the house that day. I closed it up with a key and then with a padlock. I left about one o'clock in the afternoon. There was there a suit of men's clothing belonging to my husband worth sixty dollars, also some property of my own - a silk dress and a woolen suit worth thirty dollars and two ladies capes;
 the whole was of the value of fifty nine dollars. I came back to the house between three and four o'clock; the door was just as I left it; they came through the bed room window; when I left it was shut. I do not know if it was locked. My clothes were all gone; the chair by which they went up through the window was standing there yet.
 In the Essex Market Court I said to the prisoner, what business had he to go through my window? and he said, what business had she to leave her window open?
 Kelly, the prisoner who pleaded guilty, was in the police Court the next morning.

0135

James Smith, sworn and examined. The complainant's house is 195 Allen St. in the Tenth ward. I arrested the prisoner upon the complaint of the Complainant in Stanton near Suffolk St. a week after. I was present when he was examined by the Police Justice. I heard him answer the question as to what explanation he desired to give of the charge. "I did not enter the room. I was there and I got some of the property and pawned it." He also told me that the tickets of the property that was taken out of that room he tore up. I found a coat where he told me it was pawned in 170 Avenue C belonging to this woman, which she identified as her husband's. I could not find the rest of the property. Cross Examined. I went and searched the books of the pawnbroker. This prisoner told me that Kelly entered the window and he stood in the hallway. It was not Kelly, but this man who told me that he pawned the coat, and he told me also that it was pawned in Kelly's name and it was in there in the name of Kelly. I went there and the address on the books was 59 Avenue C. I put a stop on the coat and vest. The pawnbroker said he could not identify the party who pawned it: I asked Kelly where the stuff was pawned and he told me the same as the prisoner, to whom I spoke first about it. Charles Heissner, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified I live at 167 Suffolk St. with my parents, I have never been arrested before. On the day in question I pawned a dress which I got from Kelly; he asked me if I would not do him a favor to pawn that dress. I was just going home. I said, "Certainly" and I pawned it for him; he went as far as the pawnshop and then left him. I pawned the dress and then he gave a quarter. I said, "all right." "Where are you going?" I said, "I am going home." He asked where I was? I told him I was looking for a situation and that I did not find any. I did not go into the house that day or break that window. I never told the officer that I went and pawned a coat and vest. He called Kelly in the court room and was talking to him. I asked Kelly up stairs when we went up in Essex Market what he was talking to him about? So he said he did not know, he would not tell me because the officer must have been telling him that he could not tell me. Kelly did not tell me that he told the officer that he pawned it. The first time I found out that that dress was stolen was when I was in the Eldrige St. station house. I pawned it on Friday and was arrested on the following Monday. Cross Examined. I said before the Magistrate that I got some property and pawned it, but I do not remember saying I was there. He did not ask me where I pawned it. I was working on the 18th of Feb. for Zinn and Messer; their business is polishing pocketbooks locks and frames. On that Monday I did not have a situation, but I worked before that all the time. I was not dismissed. I left because they called me names in the shop. The officer searched me and he found two pawn tickets and a medal upon me. One of the pawn tickets is for a shawl that I found in Suffolk St. about a week before that Monday and the other pawn ticket I bought for five cents. One of those tickets is not for a shawl belonging to my father and mother. I bought one of those tickets from a boy in the Brewery. Maurice Bogatzker sworn. I know the prisoner since he was four years old; his reputation for honesty is good. I never knew him to do anything wrong. Levis Stern sworn. I know the prisoner ten years and his reputation for honesty is good.

0136

0137

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree with a recommendation to mercy.

the money gone. The defendant was pursued by one George M. Craft who caught him and said Craft held on to him until an Officer arrested him. The defendant was taken back to the store of the deponent and identified, the said Kelly, when I tried to arrest him & keep him with an officer, saw a large button knife in his hand, said "he would strike me".

City and County of New York ss:

Robert Kerr being duly sworn says that he is the defendant herein; that he has pleaded "guilty" to an indictment charging him with selling a lottery policy.

Deponent further says that he never has been employed in any capacity of selling or writing policies in his life except as hereinafter described.

That on this day in question the keeper of the office where the policy was delivered to the complainant in this case, was absent, and this deponent was remaining there in his absence for a short time only, and while there the complainant in this case and another person entered, and requested deponent to put down the numbers which they stated, on a piece of paper. He did so, and they gave deponent about 15 cents in money for doing so, which this deponent delivered to the person who kept the office on his return, which was about half an hour after the transaction occurred.

Deponent further says that his business has been that of a sailor for the last past 15 years, and that since his arrest, he has obtained a situation as one of the insurance patrol, and is at the present time so employed.

Therefore, in view of the foregoing statements which are made by this deponent, and are true, he requests the Court to be lenient with him, and to suspend sentence in his case, and this deponent will promise that he never will sell or hand to, or handle, in any way a lottery policy again, and he now reiterates his previous statement that he never was employed in that or any illegitimate business, but merely made these numbers, and delivered them to the complainant herein under the circumstances aforesaid stated.

CITY OF New York COUNTY OF New York } ss.

George E. Crow being duly sworn further deposes and says, that on the 6th day of March 1883, aforesaid, he called at the place of business of the said Robert Kerr and J. Irving aforesaid, at the said premises 48 Watts street and there purchased the said paper, ticket and instrument, purporting to be what is commonly called a lottery policy as annexed to foregoing affidavit, under the following circumstances to wit: Deponent there saw the said Robert Kerr and J. Irving and had conversation with said Kerr in substance as follows.

Deponent entered said premises with one Frank Bechtoldt.

The said Bechtoldt said in substance to said Kerr, this is a friend of mine and he wants to play. The said Kerr said you play for him. The said Bechtoldt went up to counter or desk upon which lay what is commonly called a manifold book for recording lottery policies, and said to said Kerr, give me 10-26-40-gig for $4- in both, 26 second for six shillings and 5 first and last for 5 cents. The said Kerr recorded the numbers on the annexed piece of paper aforesaid, and informed the said Bechtoldt that the price was seventeen cents. Deponent then said to said Bechtoldt make a play for me, gig 3. 9. 27 for twenty five dollars in both lotteries. Deponent then repeated the numbers to said Kerr who thereupon recorded them on the annexed paper aforesaid. The said Kerr, then copied all the numbers on another piece of paper and handed the above annexed paper to the said Bechholdt who paid him seventeen cents and deponent paid the said Kerr twenty-five cents. Deponent further charges that he has just cause to believe and verily does believe that the said Robert Kerr and J. Irving did on the 6th day of March 1883, have in their possession and keep a certain room tenement and a part thereof of the said premises 48 watts street aforesaid, and did permit the same to be used for gambling, and did then keep and use and permit to be used certain papers, documents, writings, device and apparatus for gambling, contrary to the statutes of the state of New York in such case made and provided.

Thomas H. Riley, of No. 163 Elm Street, in said City, being duly sworn, deposes and says: I am an Officer of the Court of General Sessions and my business is to bring witnesses down to Part One of that Court from the House of Detention, and on several days during the present term of that Court I have brought Lena Beck down from the House of Detention as a witness for the People in the case of the People against John Carmody and David Kidney, indicted for robbery in the first degree, and on each of these occasions she, the said Lena Beck, has been browbeaten and intimidated by a mob of Kidney's friends on Centre and Chambers Streets; and on the 15' day of March, just after the Court had adjourned, I arrested Henry Krebs, of No. 500 East 17' Street, on the complaint of the said Lena Beck for attempting to intimidate her from testifying against the said David Kidney, and brought him before Assistant District Attorney Allen, and after warning him against any further interference with the witness Mr. Allen allowed him to go. I was then instructed by Assistant District Attorney Requier that if the Said Henry Krebs again appeared in court during the progress of this trial I was to arrest him and take him before the Recorder, and this morning (March 16') the said Henry Krebs did again appear in Court and I arrested him and took him before the Recorder, and the Recorder committed him to await the action of the Grand Jury.
