Testimony of Complainant

Complainant was walking up East side 8th Avenue towards 37th Street and defendant approached from behind and struck complainant a blow behind the right ear. The blow dazed complainant. He then tried to turn around so as to face defendant, when defendant kept behind complainant, and sidewise continuing to strike complainant a number of blows, until finally complainant caught the defendant by the collar and the sleeve and held him from doing further damage and until an officer could be obtained to arrest him.

Complainant is Assistant foreman of Engine Co No. 26 and the defendant is a fireman attached to same company.

No officer appearing, complainant let him go intending to prosecute him further on. When complainant had hold of defendant as aforementioned, Thomas Carey who had come up, said to me, let him go and settle the matter in the Engine house. When defendant said to him 'See f---k you, You son of a bitch too'.

No eye witness of assault.
A witness by the name of James McVane testified on the examination that he saw the assault.

This is untrue and he so admitted to Thomas C. Hughes, to whom he stated that he saw defendant assault complainant by catching hold of his neck.

This witness served a three months term in the Penitentiary on a conviction for assault and battery.

Matters likely to be gone into on Cross Examination and defence

4 About 11-20 o'clock P.M. Complainant had ordered Weir the defendant to accompany two men, who had borrowed a lifting jack, the property of the Department, & when they got through with the instrument to bring it back to the house.

Complainant found that he had not done this, & met him outside the Engine house door afterwards and said why don't you go with those men and take care of that jack. He then left and walked towards 8th avenue, the Engine house in 3rd street.

5 Complainant <sup>afterwards</sup> went to 8th avenue and failed to see defendant, Jack, or Chuck for which it was to be used, Complainant had misgivings re that the defendant might neglect his instructions, or go in liquor store &

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

WILLIAM LEE

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

At the time the Defendant took the property mentioned in the Complaint he was a boarder at my house and had been out of employment or business. The property taken ~~was~~ a present to me a great many years ago and I do not think at the time the Defendant took the same he intended to deprive me of the use and benefit thereof. I have reason to believe that this is the Defendant's first offense coming from a very respectable family with whom my husband is acquainted. and in view of the fact that restitution has been ~~made~~ or will be made I respectfully ask the Court to permit me to withdraw my Complaint. fully believing with this will be a lesson to the Defendant and that he did not intend to keep my property the time he took it

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I know nothing of the defendant except that my wife told me she engaged her on that day as a domestic.

R O S A S T E R N, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am the wife of the last witness. I met the defendant in an Intelligence Office on 2nd Avenue. After some conversation I engaged her to come on the following morning. She objected and said that she would come on that evening. I agreed to this and she came between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. I arranged with her that she should receive $12. a month. My husband and myself went out after supper on that evening, leaving the defendant and my little daughter and little son in the house with her. When we returned, we missed a nickel watch and chain which was laying on the bureau in my room, some pillow shams and a Prince Albert coat. The girl was gone.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

When we came home the children met us and said that the girl had gone and taken the different articles with her.

D O R A S T E R N, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I live with my father and mother at No. 73 East 121 Street. Between half past three and four o'clock on the afternoon of the 12th of March, I came home from school. At the door of my house, I met this defendant who asked me where Mrs. Stern lived. I brought her upstairs, took her into the kitchen and introduced her to the old girl who was still there. She said she was hungry and the old girl made her some tea and gave her her supper. My father and mother went out quite early that evening. Shortly after they went out the old girl left the house, leaving this defendant and my little brother and myself in the house. When she had gone, the defendant said she would clean up the rooms. She first went into a room in which these pillow shams, the Prince Albert coat and the nickel watch were. I noticed that she went from that room into each one of the different room of our flat. When she returned, she asked me if I would not go into the parlor and practice, and I said no, that I had my lessons to study on that night. She twice requested me to go into the parlor. I continued studying my lessons for very nearly an hour and when I had concluded, I went to look for the girl to get me something to eat, but I could not find her anywhere. She had gone. I looked around the rooms and found that this nickel watch and other articles were gone.

B A B E T T E L E D E R E R, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am the girl who was in the employ of Mrs. Stern up to the time that this defendant was engaged. She came at about half past three o'clock in the afternoon. I gave her some silver to clean and she cleaned it. I left that house at 5 o'clock that afternoon. I took all my things with me. I did not take away the pillow shams or any other articles which have been mentioned here.

D E F E N C E.

R O S E L E F K O W I T Z, the deferdant, sworn testified:

On the 12th of March I was ergaged by Mrs. Stern as a domestic. I went to her house about three o'clock. As soon as I got there she began to order me around in such a way that I found out she was very cranky and I made up my mind that I would not stay there. The old girl gave me some silver to clean and when I had cleaned it, I made up my mind to go. I went into my room and packed up my things and went out without saying anything to nybody. It is not true that I asked the little girl to go into the parlor and practice music. I did not steal any of the articles that have been spoken of here.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I have lived in Brooklyn f r three months. I lived with a Mrs. Reich at 14 Avenue C for two months. I also lived with Mrs. Tusch at 125th St. and 10th Avenue for one month. I do not know Mrs. Eichm n of 211 East 110th Street It is not true that I went into the different rooms of that house as the little girl has testified. The little girl does not tell the truth.

Deponent says, that on the evenings of the 15th. and 16th. of April 1891, he personally visited said premises, and there saw ISAAC FUCHS and J. Deponent says, the reason that she came to the said premises where she saw the said Gambling Game going on as aforesaid, was, that the night before, to wit: on Wednesday April 15th., her Husband came home and informed Deponent that he had lost One hundred and Ten Dollars Gambling in said place, and that after losing it he had been assaulted, and her Husband's face was covered with blood when he reached home.

Deponent further says, that for nearly a year Deponent's Husband has been going to this place, as she is informed by him and verily believes, and spending his money to gamble in said premises, and has repeatedly taken money which Deponent has earned by sewing, and deprived this Deponent of the use of it and spent it in said premises, and it was because of Deponent's need for money which had thus been lost, that she went to the said ISAAC FUCHS, and asked him for the money as aforesaid.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS,
City and County of New York.

----- X
THE PEOPLE ETC. :
- vs - :
SOPHIE LIPSCHUTZ :
----- X

City and County of New York, ss:-

S A M U E L D. L E V Y being duly sworn says that he was retained by The United Hebrew Charities of the City and County of New York, to defend the above-named prisoner charged with assault.

Deponent appeared in the Police Court when the defendant was arraigned before the Magistrate to plead, and plead not guilty on her behalf, she being a foreigner and not conversant with out language or customs. She was subsequently brought before the bar of this court, Mr. Justice Martine presiding and plead not guilty, and ~~xxxx~~ the matter was adjourned over to May 4th inst, for trial.

Deponent keeps the law paper known as the "Law Journal" and also has delivered at his private residence,
The Daily Continent, the newspaper which has also the calendars of Courts and avers that neither on May 4th, 5th or 6th did this case appear upon the printed calendars in either of said papers.

Deponent therefore sent his clerk, Mr. Kalmanowitz to the clerk of this court this day to inquire regarding the status of this case and was surprised to be informed by his clerk that without the case being upon the calendar, the defendant was brought before the bar of this court and pleaded guilty to assault in the third degree and remanded until Friday the 8th instant for sentence. The facts surrounding the assault in question, are substantially as follows:-

The defendant is a poor, innocent and confiding girl who trusted to the persuasions of one Louis Schwarz and permitted the latter's embraces. The defendant subsequently became with child as a result of the undue intimacy with the said Louis Schwarz, and the child was recently born to her of which said Louis Schwarz is the father. The latter has persistently refused to give any pecuniary aid or assistance to the defendant or to in any manner, support the child. The defendant, who, as I am informed by her, was for a long time very sick, suffering as a result from her confinement, became melancholy and in a fit of despondency, threw her child in the river and was about to jump in herself and end her wretched life, when she was prevented by one James Sweeney, a brave workman who was just passing by her at the time and he subsequently jumped into the water and rescued the child from drowning. Since the matter has come into my hands, I have caused the arrest of Louis Schwarz and had him bound over under bail to appear at the special sessions on the 13th instant, to answer the charge of abandonment and non-support, and I intend, in good faith, to appear in conjunction with the corporation attorney to compel said Louis Schwarz to provide for the support of said child.

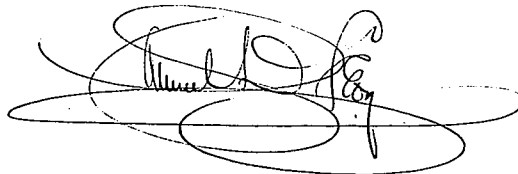

My name has appeared upon the records of this court and upon the indictment as the attorney for the defendant.

The deponent further says that Mrs. Brodnax and Mrs. Gen. Forster of St. Barnabas Church, have become very much interested in this case and have offered to provide for the defendant a home where she may take charge of her child, and they will endeavor in every possible way, to make her comfortable and happy, if this Honorable Court will suspend sentence.

Deponent therefore begs this Honorable Court to suspend sentence in this case, as deponent verily believes that Mrs. Gen. Forster and Mrs. Brodnax will take good care of the defendant and her child and properly provide for them.

Dear Sir:--

Replying to yours of the 8th inst., and I return the photograph.

We recognize it. It is Edward Casey, or Edward Connors, for he is known by both names here, and is registered on our books as #3077. He was received here on the 24th of July 1888 from the Court of General Sessions in New York, having been convicted of Grand Larceny in the second degree. Our record shows that he had been previously in the N. Y. House of Refuge, #21,723, under the name of Connors. He came out in 1885, but afterwards he served ten months in the New York Penitentiary for larceny. He was in the most filthy and diseased condition on admission here, and remained until Nov. 1889 when he was paroled, and never reported.

If you for any reason fail to convict him kindly hold him, and telegraph me, and I will send an officer for him, for we have more than two years of mortgage on him yet.
