Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against
Charles Bartels
and Henry E. Frost

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Charles Bartels and Henry E. Frost of the CRIME OF KEEPING A ROOM TO BE USED FOR GAMBLING PURPOSES, committed as follows:

The said

Charles Bartels and Henry E. Frost, both late of the Sixth Ward of the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty-sixth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep a certain room in a certain building, there situate, to be used for gambling purposes, to wit: to be used for the purpose of therein conducting a certain gambling game commonly called "policy," where money and property was dependent upon the result, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A ROOM TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF SELLING LOTTERY POLICIES THEREIN, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain room in a certain building there situate, to be used for the purpose of therein selling and offering to sell what are commonly called Lottery Policies, and divers writings, papers, and documents in the nature of bets, wagers and insurances upon the drawing or drawn numbers of certain public and private lotteries, and of therein endorsing and using books and other documents for the purpose of enabling divers persons to sell and offer to sell lottery policies and other such writings, papers and documents, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

The said

aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to one

George E. Oram

a certain paper, instrument and writing, commonly called a Lottery Policy, which said paper, instrument and writing, ~~called a Lottery Policy, is as follows, that is to say:~~

(a more particular description of which said instrument and writing so commonly called a Lottery Policy is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

FOURTH COUNT.

of the CRIME OF SELLING A PAPER AND WRITING, IN THE NATURE OF A BET AND WAGER UPON THE DRAWN NUMBERS OF A LOTTERY, committed as follows:

The said

aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to
one

Mrs Biller says that Becky Bann, whom she had not seen for two years, that said Bann went into her premises yesterday morning, at Nine O'Clock, Mrs Biller
says she was in bed, she got up and dressed herself, that Becky Bann remained in the room for two hours, while she was taking her breakfast and attending to other domestic duties, that

1.

She opened the drawer and took a dollar out, and then said to Bann Come I am going out, come with me, not desiring to have her remain behind, she also told her daughter a child ten years old to lock the door and not let Bann in again, that Bann returned during her absence and gave the two eldest children two cents and sent them out to buy candy the little girls say they went out to buy candy, that one of the girls says she went out to buy candy, the other girl says

2

That Baum went to the drawer and took things from it. There is one gold ring found in the possession of the Defendant, which the Complainant identifies as her property. Baum says it was given her by a woman named Rose Blam of 146
Attorney St. Yesterday at 2 o'clock

Q (To Defendant) Did she give you the ring as a present?

A The children were playing with it, and I told her you had better look out for the ring it might get lost, and you would say I stole it Mrs Blam said that

H

Officer Sullivan - I found her there this morning, I asked the people if they said they did not know her.

Const. Officer: You had better see Mrs. Bean

Q. (To complainant) What excuse did she give you for going into your house?

A. I asked her "who told you where I lived and she said your husband told me -

Q. Are you sure the ring is yours?
A. Yes sir.

Adjourned to Dec 29th 1889 9 1/2 A.M.

Mrs. F. R. Rice: I saw Comer and ~~him~~ ~~that~~ he has 146 attorney that and corroborates the complainant's statement when asked to describe the Ring she said it was a small plain gold engagement Ring that she has had for years - and that it had no repair on it of any kind - or any mending at any time.

On showing her the Ring she positively identified it as being hers. The Complainant says she has the Ring 18 years and has had it renewed in size where the jointing shows in the Ring.

The Complainant says she ~~turned the~~ ~~key in the lock of the~~ Bureau Drawer and put the key in her pocket before going out. The Officer Sullivan went to the room and examined the Bureau Drawer and could not find any marks of violence.

On the lock of the drawer, The defendant admits she returned to the premises after going out with the Complainant and says it was because the Complainant had a bedspread for sale for which she wanted $10 - that she went to see Mrs. Rosie Blair and informed her of it and Mrs. Blair said to her go and see if it is worth it - and she returned to the Complainant for the purpose - and the children were asked for pennies and she gave them one each - The Complainant denies that she had any conversation with her about a bed spread for she had no furniture for sale.

AGAINST

Frank Blase

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Frank Blase

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said

Frank Blase

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud Frederick Rogers of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Frederick Rogers

That the the said Frank Blase was a respectable and honest man, and was then engaged in a lawful business; that he then desired to engage a reliable agent man to go out on a business trip for him through the southern part of the United States for the purpose of handling and selling holiday goods on his account; that it was necessary that he person he should engage should deposit with him the sum of one hundred dollars; and that the person so engaged was to receive a salary of fifteen dollars a month besides his expenses. —

And the said Frederick Boger, — then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Frank Blake, — and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Frank Blake, the sum of one hundred dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of one hundred dollars, — of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said .

Frederick Boger. —

And the said Frank Blake, — did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said Frederick Boger, — by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Frederick Boger. — of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said the said Frank Blake was not a responsible or honest man, and was never then engaged in any lawful business, and he did not then desire to engage a reliable young man to go out on a business trip for him through the southern part of the United States for the purpose of handling and selling Indian goods on his account; and it was not necessary that the person he should engage should deposit with him the sum of one hundred dollars, and such person was not to receive a salary of fifteen dollars a month besides his expenses.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Franka Blaine to the said Frederick Rogers was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as the the said Franka Blaine
at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said
in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Frederick Rogers, then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and I have made a careful examination of the within case & from such examination I am satisfied that a conviction could not be had in the case of the defendant Peach. While the circumstances did inspire suspicion & leave some doubt as to whether there is grave doubt of his having any guilty connection with the crime charged. He is a boy of excellent character as appears from the affidavits filed herewith. The other defendant says he had nothing to do with taking the code. I respectfully recommend that as to the defendant Peach this indictment be dismissed.

Defendant says he is not guilty of the charge or of an attempt to steal a horse.

Defendant says, on the morning of the 9th day of December last the defendant Richard Blumming saw defendant on the 8th Avenue in this City, and asked defendant to go with him and help him to sell coal - He stated to me his father was drunk and his mother needed some money - The business of the father ^{of Blumming} was to peddle coal in the streets - Defendant consented to go with said Blumming and they stored for Blumming's Stable which is located at 112 — between 9 & 10. avenues. — On our way to the stable we met the defendant ~~Howard~~ Howard Hawk, who went with us to the stable. Blumming & I hitched up the horse to a wagon which was loaded with coal. We all three went out with the horse and wagon to sell the coal — and Blumming & I continuing to sell coal until between 2 & 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when we all went with the horse and wagon to the stable. During the time we were selling coal I heard Hawk ask Blumming for the key to the stable. He said he would get the horse and could sell it for $300.00, and he and Blumming could go to Chicago and have a good time. I stated to Blumming not to give him the key. After the horse had been put in the stable, Hawk started off & said he was going to his dinner, and Blumming and I went in 27 between 8 & 9 avenues where Blumming lives. At about half past three o'clock, that afternoon I saw Hawk with a horse at 9th ave near 25th st. while on my way home to 216 West 19th st. Blumming was with me, but left me at 22nd st & 7th ave.

home to learn a trade with me. I being a carpenter and builder, that he has worked faithfully with me until his arrest. That if this Honorable Court will kindly suspend sentence I will use extra efforts to win back my son to the paths of rectitude and virtue and your petitioner will ever pray.

2 Thomas J. Purdy, being duly sworn says: That he is a member of the firm of Andrews & Purdy, Attorneys-at-law, by whom the defendant, Howard Hawke was employed for a period of about thirteen months.

That said Hawke resided for some time prior to his employment by said firm, in the neighborhood of depo-nent's residence, and it was at deponent's request that said Hawke was employed by deponent's firm.

3 That during the term of said employment he found said Hawke thoroughly honest and reliable and during that period have intrusted him with large amounts of money to and from my bank, and always found him entirely trustworthy and reliable.

am a member of the firm of Andrews & Purdy, who are attorneys and counsellors-at-law having an office at No. 132 Nassau Street, New York.

The boy, Howard Hawke, who this morning pleadd guilty to an attempt to commit larceny, was employed by my firm as office boy from April 9th 1887, to May 26th, 1888. During all that time we found him a singularly faithful and honest boy.

3 He left our office on the date last above mentioned of his own motion, for the purpose as he informed us of entering into another situation where he could get a larger salary.
