PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,
VERSUS

Thomas Fagan

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The true facts are as follows: I was engaged with quite a number of boys most of them of about my own age in annoying the defendant - we had sticks in our hands and thrust them at the person of the defendant in many instances striking him. - defendant turned about several times and we all ran but again would follow him up - in the way, defendant was provoked to the assault upon me which I am fully convinced he was justified in doing. - My affidavit when made in Court was and is considerably exaggerated, caused no doubt in the heat of passion which I experienced shortly after the assault. I was simply scratched by the small penknife in defendant's hand and not stabbed as stated in my said affidavit. - I have satisfied myself also by enquiring that defendant is

Assault

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. and for the further reason that I probably provoked the assault, <sup>made</sup> upon me ~~no~~ <sup>by interfering with the defendant</sup> and I am satisfied that had I not interfered the defendant and myself would have had no trouble whatever, further I believe and <sup>am informed</sup> that the defendant above named has never been in any trouble of any kind before and that he has been punished sufficient on this charge. PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

Edward F. Flood assault.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. and for the further reason that I do not think that the defendant ~~above named~~ ~~did~~ ~~mean~~ mean to hurt me that probably I was a little hasty at the time I made the charge against him. I also think that he has suffered enough up to the present time, I have also heard that the defendant has never been in any trouble of any kind before. I therefore would respectfully ask the Court to treat him as merciful as may seem proper.

Mr. Price moves that the case be Sent to another Justice on the ground that the excitement it had caused had prejudiced the mind of his Honor.

The court did not believe it had transcended its duty. The Code says the defendant is entitled to a private examination, but there was nothing in the Code where the complaining witness may or may not give his testimony in private. Counsel was right as to the defendant being entitled to a private examination. But when the Court examined a witness previous to issuing a warrant, he could be examined any where, in public or in private.

Motion to send the Case before another Justice denied, and Exception taken.

Counsel then moved for an adjournment of the case for a week, until 6 o'clock the evening previous.
