of No. 513 Canal Street, aged 18 years, occupation Clerk being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 20th day of May 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Abraham Dietken (now here) did, with intent to defraud make, forge and utter an instrument or writing purporting to be the act of another by which a pecuniary obligation was created in violation of Section 511 of the Penal Code.

Deponent further says: that on said

Indictment filed May 17, 1893.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

New York, June 3, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People, Asst. Dist. Atty. E. S. Weeks;

For the Defendant, Joseph Moss, Esq.

J U L I U S G O L D S T E I N, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 260 Rivington Street. On the 1st. of May this year I had a diamond stud in my tie. I do not know where it is now, but I believe the officer has it.
At half past six o'clock in the evening of the 1st. of May I was on a Grand Street car coming from over on Broadway.
I was going to the east side. As I stood on the back platform it was very crowded. I went to go inside the car when the man Skinner stood in front of me and would not allow me to enter. The defendant Davis was on my left hand. While in that position I felt a tug at the pin in my tie. The defendant Davis jumped off the car and as he was running away from the car he fell. I then shouted for a policeman and he was placed under arrest. I missed the stud immediately after feeling this tug at my tie. I saw Davis' hand coming down from the front of my shirt-bosom. I caught his hand and he had a black handkerchief in it. I did not see my pin in his hand. It was evidently covered by the black handkerchief. I afterwards saw my pin in the office of the car company.

Cross-examination:

I got on the car at Broadway. Nobody was with me at the time I boarded the car. There were quite a number of people on the rear platform beside the defendant and his companion. The defendant Skinner deliberately stood in the doorway so that I was unable to enter. I did not see the defendant Skinner say anything to the defendant Davis during the time I was on the car. I was examined in the Police Court and gave the same testimony which I have given here in court today. I can see my necktie and can see the pin in it when it is there.

WILLIAM ROSENDALE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I was on the Grand Street car which has been spoken of by the last witness. I saw the two defendants get on the car. The back platform was rather crowded. I saw the defendant Davis signal to the defendant Skinner after the diamond pin had been taken from the necktie of the complainant. I jumped off the car after Davis, put out my feet and he tripped over it. A policeman was called and he arrested the defendant Davis.

Cross-examination:

The defendant was on the ground at the time the policeman came over and arrested him. He then got up and went up on the sidewalk. I do not know whether the defendant Davis was intoxicated at the time or not.

NEIL W. CONNOR, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the Tenth Precinct. On the 1st. of May I was on duty on Mulberry Street. About 6:30 p.m. my attention was attracted by a crowd of people on Grand Street. I went down towards the crowd and Mr. Goldstein accused the two defendants of having taken his pin on a Grand Street car. Mr. Goldstein had hold of him at the time he made his complaint to me. He said that Davis took the pin from his tie and he used a black handkerchief in doing so. I arrested both of the defendants. I asked Davis whether he was guilty or not and he said no. Skinner denied being with Davis at first, but afterwards admitted it. I found a black cap in the pocket of Davis at the time of his arrest. I did not find any black handkerchief. The following morning I took the defendant Davis to the Tombs Police Court. I then went to the office of the railroad company and found the pin which had been picked up on the walk by some person and brought to the railroad company's office.

The defendant introduced no evidence.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The People
vs. Annie Dixon
Court of General Sessions, Part I
Before Recorder Smyth. May 22. 1893
Indictment for grand larceny.
Grainy Talk, sworn and examined, testified I live at No. 129 East 110th street. I am in no business now, I have got a house and live in it. I am retired. I was living there on the 1st of January of this year. I have lived there four years. I know the defendant Annie Dixon for over a year; she was living around the neighborhood.
She came and asked for work and the janitor engaged her for three days to help she worked in the house three days before the first of New Year. On the 1st of January I lost some property - $113 in all; $80 in $10 bills, four five dollar bills and the rest in small bills. When did you see your money last? It was in the evening when I went to bed at ten o'clock.
I put it in a trunk and the trunk was not closed. That was Saturday night December 31st. What time did you miss it? After she was gone the money was gone; that was between nine and ten o'clock on the morning of the first. I got up on the morning of the first at eight o'clock; she was there, and I would not let her in; she was drunk. There was nobody in my rooms when I got up. There was nobody in my rooms when I went to bed. I locked the doors. I saw the defendant on New Year's morning at nine o'clock; she came in and wanted her old clothes; she had them in the room where I got my tools, and that is the room where the trunk was in which was placed the money. I noticed the money was gone as soon as she was gone. Was anybody in your room from the time when you went to bed at ten o'clock on the 31st of December until the time when you noticed your money was missing except this girl? There was nobody there but her. When was the janitor and her sister in the room where the trunk was, was it the night before? Yes, that was in the evening; they left my rooms at eight o'clock. It was after that you counted your money? I had my money in my pocket and I put it in the trunk; the door was closed and nobody can come in. What time did you notice your money was missing, about how long after the defendant went away? Between nine and ten o'clock.

How soon after you missed your money did you go and tell the police? I went and told the Captain of Police on the third of January, that was the first time I told the police about it. Why didn't you go at once and tell the police where you lost your money? I could not go, I was sick. When did you see the woman next after she was arrested? I was in the Harlem Court; that was the third; she was arrested and got three months and discharged.
She was arrested twice, and the Police told me I have to go to Court. Is that your name to that paper, look at it (showing paper) Yes, that is my handwriting. (Here you in Court the day you signed this?
I was up there. Did you see that woman there that day? Yes, she had a lawyer
The Court. That was the 5th of April

A June I would like to know how soon he reported this to the station house.

The Court He reported it sometime in January.
As I got it from this witness, the woman had been arrested for something else and sent to the Island for a couple of months. That is how he accounts for the complaint being made on the 5th of April. He will probably get it out of the policeman.

Cross Examined. I know the defendant about a year. Is it not a fact that you and she have lived as man and wife for two years past? No; she is a married woman. She worked for three days for the janitor, for the housekeeper and then she left the clothes there; she left them in the same room where I kept my tools and the trunk with the money in it. I did not lock the trunk after I put the $113 in it. Her clothes were not in the trunk; they were lying on the floor. She left them there Saturday evening at five o'clock when she stopped working. She did not sleep that night in the house; she left the clothes and went to her sister's. She came back the next morning at nine o'clock; she was drunk; she tried to break in the door; then I opened the door; she took her clothes and immediately left.

Q This was the first of January - is it not a fact that this lady got from one of your tenants, a bottle of wine and a bottle of brandy - a man that keeps a liquor store down stairs in the same premises, and that you both had a kind of a little soiree together and she got three months in consequence thereof? No, it is not so; I never drank with her.

By a juror. Where were you the night that she got her clothes, where did you go to?

A. I did not let her into the little room where the paint and the tools and the trunk were - I let her in the front room, and she had to go through one other room, and then there was the room with the trunk. I remained in the front room.

By counsel. Were there not some plumbers working in the place during the time from the 31st of December to the first of January during the time that this woman was there? It was several days before Saturday that the plumbers were in the house, and when the plumbers finished then she came to clean the house after the plumbers left. Your room is always locked? Yes. Did you lock up the door? All the rooms are locked day and night. She was in that little room half an hour.

James J. Brady, sworn and examined.
I did not arrest the defendant; she was arrested for intoxication on Saturday evening April 29; the warrant was issued on the 5th of April. In the mean time I was looking for the woman and could not find her. She was committed five days to the prison in the Harlem Court.
Annie Dixon, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified My business is a vegetable cook in a hotel. I went to work for Senatus Jones as a kitchen girl about twenty years ago at the St.
James' hotel. I worked last as a vegetable cook in the Ocean House Long Branch last summer. I have known the complainant going on two years. Mrs. Nide, a lady who lives in 110th street on the same block as the complainant lives, asked me if I was looking for work.
I was reading in the paper, and I went to his house, and he told me he wanted a woman to live with him.
At that time I would not live with him; he did not want a housekeeper; he wanted some one to live with him.
I went away and had not seen him for six or eight months. I was on Third Avenue, and he brought me in to have a little wine with him, and he got me around to the house, and off and on I have been going to his house this last two years to remain for a couple of weeks at a time. Come down to the first of January, what occurred on that day? New Year's Eve he had the plumbers in there; the water pipe was frozen, and he had every one working there. I was living there with him, and he asked me if I would help the housekeeper. I done it of my own free will I was just living there with him. The plumbers and attendants were in and out of the house. His house was open to anybody. Did you see any money in his possession that day? No. I did not Did you see $113? No. Did you place his trunk? No. Did you go down stairs to the liquor store? Yes, I went down and the man gave me a bottle of wine and a bottle of brandy. One of his tenants, and I brought it up stairs and me and him (the complainant) drank some of it. I brought the rest up to the housekeeper. You had quite a bit-arious time didn't you? Yes. I got full

He gave me wine and then he gave me liquor. I went out. I don't know where I went and was arrested. I got three months on the Island. I was arrested two or three <sup>or four</sup> times in my life for intoxication.
Cross Examined. I am a married woman; it will be twelve years next January since I was married. I have been separated from my husband for the last three years.
My husband used to see me sometimes when I was living out; he never came to the complainant's house to see me.
I was arrested for intoxication on the evening of the first of January. From January to April I was on the Island.
I came from the Island on the 1st of April and was going up 122nd street where I was arrested. The officer did not tell me he wanted me on the charge of stealing the complainant's money.
By Counsel. Did you ever spend $113 in six hours in your life? No. I never touched it, I never seen it in my life.
The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
The Court sentenced the defendant to the State prison at Auburn for two years and eight months.

George Docherty { Court of General Sessions. Part I
Before Recorder Smyth. May 12. 1893.
Indictment for grand larceny.
John Brennan, sworn and examined.
I am a marine on board of the United States ship San Francisco. I am about thirty six years old. Were you on the morning of the 8th of May of this year? That is something I cannot say. I know it was somewhere in West street. When was the last time you counted your money before the 8th of May? Outside the saloon door corner of West street about 7.30 in the morning. About how much money did you have? I had nineteen dollars and a couple of cents. Whereabouts did you put your money? In my right hand pants pocket. Where did you go after that? I walked down the street a distance, I don't know how far, and I sat down at the door of a feed store and went to sleep. When did you notice that your money was gone? I did not notice anything about it till I woke up. Who woke you up? I think it was a policeman but I do not know who it was. How long afterwards? I think it must be half an hour after

I had counted the money. When you woke up did you have any money? No, nothing but two cents. Where did you get that money? I got it at my shop; it was paid to me for my wages. When were you paid; what time of day? Four or five days before; this was Monday morning. How much money did you have on Saturday night? Thirty two dollars. Cross Examined How long before you laid down had you counted your money? I think it must have been half an hour or an hour. I cannot remember much about it, I know it was that morning anyhow. Do you remember very much about what you did that night before you counted the money? I know I had been drinking considerable all night. You had been going about with a good many people? No, not a good many. I might be with one or two persons or more. I had been in different saloons that night. Had you not been in any lodging houses that night? No. Had you not been with a woman that night? No. I met this man here and the woman on the street and I talked to him and asked him to

No, not a good many. I might be with one or two persons or more. Had been in different saloons that night. Had you not been in any lodging houses that night? No. Had you not been with a woman that night? No. I met this man here and the woman on the street and I talked to him and asked him to have a drink, and they accepted, and after that I walked as far as the corner again and left. You gave them a drink and they took it? Yes. Was that that morning or the night before? It was somewhere before day. You had not been with a woman yourself? No.

You are sure you counted that money are you? I am certain of it because I counted it outside the Saloon door after I came out and walked down the street. That is the last I remember. Can you tell us exactly how much money there was? I know $19.02 is the money I had at the time I counted it. Is that the man who had the woman (pointing to the defendant)?

Yes, the same man, and this woman was talking on the sidewalk.

Were you drinking with many other people that night? I must have been there were two more more that I remember.

Where had you slept that night? I did not sleep any place particular.

I was going round town all night.

Can you tell us who you were with just before you met this defendant? I cannot tell you that. I do not recollect who I was with before I met him. Can you tell us who you were with an hour and a half before you met the defendant? No. I cannot. You had been drinking right along up to the time you met the defendant had you not, off and on? Yes, off and on. I went out of the saloon, walked away down as far as the corner, I sat down on the store door, and that is the last I recollect. How long have you been in the marine service? I have been twelve years in the service - only two years in the service. What other places have you been in? I have been in the army. When you met this defendant with that woman who spoke first? I cannot tell you. Do you remember having any conversation with this defendant in the saloon at the time you took a drink with him? No. I do not recollect talking to him about anything in particular, only I asked him outside to have a drink and he came in. You can not recollect anything was said when you were taking a drink? No. I paid for it. It was after I was with him I counted the money.

Michael Haggerty, sworn and examined.
I am a laborer and I live in 162 Reade street. I recollect seeing the complainant on the 8th of May, Monday morning between half past eight and nine o'clock.
I was passing along that street going up town towards Canal street. I and others beside me were standing on the corner for a while. We seen the marine lying full length on the stoop in front of the warehouse on the street.
I forget the name of the street, somewhere between Laight and Nass streets, perhaps two or three feet off the sidewalk, and the other man the prisoner stood in front of him searching through his clothes.
We stood a while looking to see what he would do, and after a while the marine woke up and he lay down, and the defendant walked away. We said to each other that it would be right to call the policeman's attention to the man. We supposed that he was going through him. Did you call an officer? Yes, I walked down the street about half a block or so and met a policeman and called his attention to it. Is the officer in Court? Yes.

You told the officer what you saw this defendant doing to the Marine? Yes.

Did you see the officer go up and arrest him? Yes, the man was walking away, he followed and arrested him and brought him back. What did you see the defendant do? I followed him down. I think I saw him take some small change out of his pocket, I went in front of him, he was after robbing him of something. I saw some small change in his hand across the street going down towards the river.

By Counsel

How long were you standing on the corner watching this? Between ten and fifteen minutes. You were sober? I do not drink, I have not drank in a year. This was in the morning.

How far were you from where this Marine was? The stoop is about two and a half or three feet. I was on the opposite corner, and the street was between us. Then as I understand it you were about forty feet away? I do not know - the breadth of the street and the breadth of two sidewalks. I and my companion were standing fifteen minutes watching the Marine.

Edwin W. Evans, sworn and examined.
 Officer, it was you who arrested the defendant, was it not? Yes. on the morning of May the 8th between half past eight and nine o'clock. On whose complaint did you arrest him? On the complaint of Michael Hafferty the last witness. Where did you arrest the defendant? Opposite the Star Union dock between Saight and Vestry streets, north river. How far away is that from where the crime is alleged to have been committed? Two or three blocks. He was walking down the street, but I had arrested him right opposite the Star Union dock over on West street. On what street was the crime committed? Corner of Matt and West streets. Did you charge the defendant with the commission of any crime? I did. What did he say? He says, "I did not do it, I was away drinking with him. Did you tell him what the complainant's name was? No. I did not. In what way did you identify the complainant? This Michael Hafferty came and told me something and in consequence of what he told me
 I made the arrest. I told the defendant

 the crime committed? Corner of Matt and West streets. Did you charge the defendant with the commission of any
 crime? I did. What did he say? He says, "I did not do it, I was away drinking with him. Did you tell him what the complainant's name was? No. I did not. In what way did you identify the complainant? This Michael Hafferty came and told me something and
 in consequence of what he told me
 I made the arrest. I told the defendant what I had arrested him for - for rifling the pocket of the Marine. Where was the Marine at this time? He was lying down on his side at the corner of West and 11th streets. What did the prisoner say? He said he had not, but that he had been out drinking with him. Did you search the defendant? In the station house. Did you find any property or any money on his person at the time? I found sixty five cents in silver and Knives. Did this defendant <sup>attempt to</sup> run away when you arrested him? No. You would not let him would you? No. I do not think so.

The Case for the Defence.

George Docharty, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I am an Englishman. What do you do for a living? I am going to sea as a fireman. The last boat I was on was Morpans. I worked five days on her. I finished last Friday night at six o'clock. That was Saturday before the 5th of May. I have heard the testimony given by the complainant and by the witness Bagerty. Tell us what happened from the time you saw the complainant until you were arrested.

It was only about 20 minutes; we just went into the shop and had one drink and he fell asleep with his head on the counter. He went out and sat down on the steps. I lifted his legs up and laid them on the steps and was going down to the Morgan line to look for a job. I was walking away when the police arrested me. You saw this complainant first in the saloon? Yes, he was with a young woman and another man. He told me he was with her all night in three different places. Did you have a drink with him? No, not at that time. That was the second time I saw him. I did have a drink with him two or three hours after I saw him first. The second time you saw him was just before he laid on the stoop? Yes, that was when he took me in for a drink. We just went in once for a drink; we came out; he sat down on the steps, he fell asleep; I lifted up his feet. Did you go through his pockets? No. How often have you been in this city? I have been in this city about thirty or forty times sailing out of it.

Had you ever been arrested charged with any offence before? No. You work for your living? I go to sea this ten years. You did not attempt to rob him or rob him? No, not one cent. Some money was found on you? That was money I shew Saturday morning at nine o'clock; the Chief Engineer gave me $5.35 I think it was that I shew.

Cross Examined.. I was going down to the wharf to look for a job when the officer arrested me. I was here a few days. I came from Philadelphia. I was here from Friday till Tuesday morning. I slept in a lodging house. I have no witnesses in Court. I saw Brennan first on Monday morning about four o'clock. This woman was with him and another man at a saloon on West street drinking. He told me himself that he was with the woman all night. What were you doing out at four o'clock in the morning? I was along the street. I came away from the place where I stopped. You had plenty of money to go into some lodging house? Yes. Why didn't you go into a lodging house the same as the night before? I did not wish to go the same as the night before because I wished to keep what money I had. You went there the night before? Yes. You did not go that night? No. You did not want to go that night? No. I wanted to get work in the morning. On Monday morning you heard Hafferty tell us on the witness stand that he saw you with this complainant about eight o'clock? Yes I was with him. How many times were you with this complainant that morning. You said you were with him about four o'clock? I was not with him at four o'clock. I only saw him and another man and the woman. I never spoke to him; it was along after six o'clock when I met him. I asked him to have a drink; he only spoke to me once. I had a drink in the saloon on West street and Brennan paid for the drink; he paid ten or twenty cents for it. How much money did he have left? I do not know.

By the Court Did you see any money with him? No. I believe it was two ten cent pieces. I did not take particular notice. Where did you leave him after that? He came out of the saloon, him and me together. He sat down like this (showing) and immediately fell asleep. I lifted his legs and lifted them up on the side door. Then what did you do? I walked away. I did not want to be stopping with the man. How much money did you take away with you? I took no money away from him. I think it was 33 cents I had in my own pocket. I am not sure, I cannot say. Where did you go to after that? I went right along the street. I was going along that street to go down to the wharf. You heard Hafferty tell us on the witness stand he saw you put your hand in this man's pocket and take something out. You say that is untrue? Yes, I don't know Hafferty and don't know why he should come on the stand and tell what was not true about me. I had 33 cents on my person when I was arrested. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

vs.

BEFORE HONORABLE SEYMOUR.

GEORGE DUNHAM,

jointly indicted with

JAMES HARRY and

CORNELIUS SUNDAY.

New York, Wednesday, May 18th, 1893.

Indictment for BURGLARY, in the SECOND DISTRICT.

DUNHAM and HARRY vs. SEYMOUR.

A JURY was empanelled and sworn.

CHRISTIAN REUTHER, sworn and examined, testified:

I live at 56 Gouverneur street and am a butcher and carry on business there. On the night of the 13th of April, at what time did you leave your store? Twelve o'clock in the night. My store is not even with the ground; it is a low place; I close my place that night myself, and the doors were locked. When did you notice that some of your property was missing? Sunday morning, when I got up, at 6 o'clock; when I came down I saw one of the French glass windows broken. I saw was missing about seven French cans, 7 French shoulders, and about six smoked hams, worth about twenty-five dollars; they were there the night before, when I shut up. There were fragments of glass all around. Could a person standing on the street reach your window where the pane was? Yes, easily. The meat was on a marble block, near where the window was broken. When did you report this to the police? As soon as I saw it I went down to the Madison street station house and reported it. When was this boy, Dunham, arrested? I don't know about that; I don't know when he got arrested. Did you have any conversation with this boy, Dunham, afterwards? No.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I think the wholesale price for the meat that was taken was twenty-five dollars. I don't know, on my own knowledge, who took the hams. Did you see any of your men after this? No.

WESLEY HAMILTON, sworn and examined, testified:

I am a police officer, connected with the 7th precinct, in which this crime is alleged to have been committed. When was this matter first reported to you? On Sunday morning, I think it was the 23rd, or about on the 1st. Did you make the arrest of Dunham? Officer Cahill and I did; Cahill is on a vacation; I arrested Dunham, I think, on Monday, the 24th, the day after the thing was reported. Where did you find him? In his house, in Baltimore; it was between six and seven o'clock in the evening. Where was the house? Which you found him in? 222 Madison street. Did you have any conversation with him at that time? No. Did you tell him what you arrested him for? I was down stairs, and Officer Cahill arrested him up stairs. When he came down did you have any talk with him? Yes, we had a conversation in the station house with him. Tell just what was said by you to him? We asked him what did he know about it; he says, "Officer, I will tell you: I had nothing to do with it; I stood guard, while Barry and Sullivan smashed the window and took the hams out with a hook, and brought them into an empty lot in Cherry street, between Gouverneur and Montgomery." Did you ask him what did he do with the hams? He said he didn't have anything to do with the hams. He took them there to a lot? Yes. What was done with them there? And they hid them there, and Sullivan sold them to some parties. He sold one house to a lady by the name of Lizzie Tobin, 196 Madison Street, and he got fifty cents for that; and another man to a man by the name of Joe O'Connell, 330 Cherry Street. Both of these witnesses are in court now. What did Dunham get out of this? He says he got nothing. I asked Dunham where Barry lived; he said he used to live once in a while an allowance for Denver our Hospital. We traced him down there, and we found him at the corner of Denver our Slip and Front Street, and he said he was where James Barry lived; he said he lived 144 Cherry Street, second floor. Officer O'Connell went over to that street. I stood in the hall when O'Connell went up stairs, and he was in bed; he was brought to the station house. Did you have any conversation with this boy, Dunham, or with any person else, in his presence, about walking into that store and taking the goods? I did; over in Essex Market; I asked Dunham, and he stated, just as I said before, that Barry and Sullivan reached a window and took out a bag, and they took two or three under their coats and brought them over to a lot and Sullivan went and sold them in the morning. Any further conversation? Only that I heard in the prison, between Dunham and Barry, after Barry was brought in, and the keeper locked the door, in the 7th precinct station house; I was inside, and Barry says, "Don't you say anything that you do." Barry said that to Dunham--"you say the same as I say; don't you give the thing away; you knew you were there, but you had nothing to do with it." What did Dunham say to that? Dunham says, "I won't say nothing." That is all the conversation I heard between the two of them, when I was inside the prison.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Did you see Durham when he came down the stairs? I saw him on the side-walk. Did you have any conversation with him? No, only in the little house. Did you talk to him at the house with Durham and Gail? No, I walked by it then. What time was this arrest made? About six or seven o'clock in the evening, to the best of my knowledge. Who was with Durham when Gail brought him out there? I think his mother was with him, but I am not certain; I couldn't tell exactly. I stood in the corridor from between 9 and 10 o'clock, for I never saw her; I waited there to hear what they said to one another. I don't know, of my own knowledge, that this defendant committed the crime. How do you know that it was Barry that told Durham not to say anything, in the cell? Because when the prisoner, Barry, was brought in, and the keeper asked him, I saw him, the prisoner, the keeper, when he looked it up. Durham was in the back and Barry was in the front, and I was standing about five feet away; I could hear their voices; Barry asked the question; I could distinguish between their voices.

LIZZIE TORIN, sworn and examined:

I live at 196 Madison street, in this city. Have you ever seen this boy, Barry, before? No. Have you seen either of the other boys in this case, Barry or Sullivan? Sullivan, not Barry. I saw him on a Sunday morning, I guess it was nearly four weeks ago. Do you know whether or not it was Sunday, April 23rd? Yes, I think it was. Where did you see him, tell all that occurred? Heil Sullivan came up to my house, I was in bed, and he brought in a bread sculler, and laid it on the table; I didn't get up out of bed, and he came in about half an hour after that and he asked me to lend him fifty cents, and he would give it to me when it was Sunday night; I said, certainly, and I lent him the fifty cents. Did he state where he had gotten the money? I didn't know the man, was there a man named James? Did he come back to pay the fifty cents? No, he didn't. He didn't come back for the money; did he? No.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I am a married lady, and my husband is named Patrick Terrell. When Sullivan came in, my little boy over the way for him, a child about five years old. I took my pocket-book under the pillow, and I took out fifty cents and gave it to Sullivan; I had loaned him money before, and he always paid me back. When did you find the ham there? When I got up, about 11 o'clock; I left it there until 1 o'clock, and I cooked it afterwards. Was Sullivan there from the time you gave him the fifty cents up to the time you cooked the ham? No; I expected Sullivan to come back with the fifty cents; I thought he was to take the ham, perhaps, when I saw the ham.

JOSEPH DeROSE, sworn and examined, testified:

I am 27 years old, and have lived in the city about ten years. I live at 80 1/2 Cherry Street. Did you ever see this boy, Durham, before? No. Did you ever see Barry or Sullivan? No, only saw Jim one time, when he brought me the ham, James Sullivan and the other fellow. You saw Dun-that evening? I was standing on the corner, with Martin Cahill, the officer who arrested me, and a man asked me where Henry street was, and I told him two blocks away, and the man thought I was directing him wrong; I asked Martin Cahill if I was directing him right, and Martin Cahill said yes. What time was that? About half-past 2 o'clock in the morning. Where were you before that? Before that I was over to Henry Hiller's night house there; I left the theatre at about 11, I took a walk around the street, and then I went home; the door was locked and I couldn't get in, so I again walked around the streets, until half-past 2. Where did you go after half-past 2? I went home; I woke a brother out of bed and let me in; I went into the house about half-past 4, and I stayed in the house until about three o'clock the following afternoon. You heard this Italian testify that you were down to 80 1/2 Cherry street; were you there? No; I was in the street at that time. You didn't see Sullivan that morning; did you? No, and I didn't see Barry. What Cahill wanted me to say, "I have witnesses that you sold two guns to the Widow Driscoll;" I said, "I never was in her place." Did any conversation take place between Barry and Sullivan, in reference to this burglary, in the cell? No; only they referred to their ages. You didn't say one word about the case? No. Did you commit this burglary? No, I didn't.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

What do you do for a living? Paper ruler. How long since you worked in paper? I am ruling about two years. How long have you been out of work? I was working right along, for George W. Stone, 41 Beekman street; I was working about two weeks before my arrest. Did you have any money saved up from the time you were working? No; I got the money to go to the theatre with my mother. I didn't see either Barry or Sullivan on the morning in question. Then Officer Harlich, when he tells us out your saying to him that you were there at the time that the other two broke the window, you were just lying watch, when he says that he does not tell the truth? No. How often have you been arrested and convicted before? I was never arrested; I was arrested, I was never convicted of crime -- I was in Clinton Reformatory, I acknowledge that, for Voluntary Assault; I was sent there by Judge Cowley. I was in Clinton for thirteen months; I assaulted a Negro man, with a little new-wife. How long were you out of Clinton? Two years and six months. How long after you were out, did you get it in charge at paper mill? I was out about a year and a half. You came out about two years ago, you were out about a year and a half. Did you want to work for the paper mill; tell me how you could have been working two years? I was not working two years; I must have been mistaken. I was not at; George W. Stone is not in court. How long time were you sent away besides to Elmira? I was sent to the penitentiary, for better reason, by Judge Cowley. How long were you in the penitentiary?

Ten months; those are the only times I have ever been convicted. I never knew Barry until I met him in Essex Market; I have known Sullivan ever since I have been able to walk.

ANN DUNHAM, sworn and examined, testified:

Where was your son on the Sunday morning prior to his arrest, about 11 o'clock? He was in bed, in my house, 222 Madison street. What time did your son come in that morning? I went to bed about 11 o'clock Saturday night, and I locked my door, thinking he would knock when he came, and I would hear him and let him in. I didn't hear him knock at the door. Who let him in? I suppose my little boy did; I couldn't say exactly how he got in. I gave him fifty - to S tuesday night.

JAMES BARRY, being duly sworn, testified:

You are one of the boys indicted here for this larceny? Yes. On the night of the 23rd of April, where were you? I was home, in bed, about 11 o'clock. Where were you before that? I was at the corner of Montgomery and Water streets; I went home about a quarter to 11. How long did you remain in bed? Until about 8 o'clock the next morning. Did you hear Officer Erlich testify to certain conversations which he claimed he overheard in the station house? Yes; no such conversations ever took place. Officer Cahill arrested me. I never knew Durkin until I met him in Market Court. Were you ever convicted of crime? No. Were you working at the time you were arrested? Yes; at the corner of Morris's bakery, between Dover street and James Slip.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

How long have you known Sullivan? I don't know him. Where do you live? 148 Cherry street; I don't know where Sullivan lives. Where were you arrested? I was in bed, about 11 or 12 o'clock Monday night. Who are the boys you were talking to at the corner of Montgomery and Water streets on the night in question? Patrick Donovan, and a fellow who is called Mongolian, and Sorley; they are not in court, they are at work.

The Jury rendered a verdict of GUILTY.

City and County } of New York, } ss:

of No. Am. Dist. Telegraph Co. Street, aged 28 years, occupation Special Officer being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 10 day of March 189*7* at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

and couple money of the United States of the value of one hundred and fifteen dollars $115

the property of the American Dist. Telegraph Co and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Frank Dargatz

Day The deponent was a messenger boy employed on said date to carry a message for a customer of said company William A. Fowler, who submitted said Dargatz with the said money to be carried to the Third National Bank for deposit. Deponent is informed by the said William A. Fowler that the deponent did not deposit said money in said bank, but feloniously appropriated the same to his own use, thus defrauding said company as custodian of said money.
