PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

William Lueck

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I allege that the defendant and I went to school together and from that time until now, were good friends, I don't believe the defendant intended to steal my property, but well took same to take a ride, (to do which however he did not obtain my consent) I have known him to be an honest man, from childhood, and ask leave to withdraw my complaint herein; At the time I made said Complaint I was laboring under excitement, and felt angry at the manner in which Lueck took my horse, but on mature reflection I am convinced he did not intend stealing same-
