The People
 Edward <sup>v.</sup> Sullivan June 9. 1887
 Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Geldersleeve.
 Indictment for attempt at larceny.
 Micheal Higgins sworn and examined. testified. I belong to the Fifth precinct and was on duty on the 12th of May. I arrested the prisoner 2.15 in the afternoon. I was patrolling my post on Ann St. and was distributing cards relating to setting out ash barrels on the sidewalk. A citizen was standing on the corner of Nassau St. and called me across. I saw Sullivan sitting alongside of a man who was intoxicated and asleep.
 I watched him and saw him unbutton two buttons of the vest of the intoxicated man and insert his hand in the left hand inside pocket of his vest. Dr. Clark was across the street in a baker shop and I called his attention to it; and he also watched the prisoner and officer Yager; the defendant started to walk away and I arrested him.
 I found an envelope half pulled out from the pocket of the complainant and his pension papers - the pocket in which I saw the prisoner's hand inserted, the left hand inside pocket of the vest. I am positive that the prisoner is the man who did this because I arrested him.

within a few feet of the unknown man, not twenty feet away from where it occurred. The complainant had beside his pension paper his watch and chain and money. I believe he told me he was after receiving his pension. Cross Examined. I think the name of the man who was sitting there intoxicated was Severn, he is not in Court. he came to the police Court with me. I brought the defendant to the station house and searched him. I took no paper from him, I forget exactly what he did have on him. I made a complaint to the Magistrate. I did not see him take the paper out of the pocket, he had it partly out. I have been on the post at Ann St. about eight months. I never saw the defendant before in that neighborhood. When I was taking him to the Tombs, the Sixth ward "Phyo gang," as we call them - one of the gang gave him a paper of tobacco and wanted to know what he was arrested for and some more gave him matches.

Frederick B. Clark sworn. I am a physician in this city. On the 12th of May I was making a call upon a patient, a baker in Ann St., and while talking with the patient, an officer came in distributing some notices; I saw him suddenly look in an attentive manner, which attracted my attention. I was sitting down and got up and saw Sullivan sitting closely to the man who fell over once. The officer asked me to watch the man, and I did so. I saw the defendant put his hand towards him, I am not sure whether he touched him or not. The prisoner was not out of my sight with the exception of a few seconds when a truck was passing. As soon as this truck had passed, a few seconds after, the prisoner got up and walked rapidly down towards, I think William St. below Nassau St. The officer who was standing in the store alongside of me at the time made a rush across the street to grasp this man and arrested him. The officer motioned me to come over and I did so and went to the Oak street Station house and from there to the Tombs.

Cross Examined. I am positive the prisoner is the man. How far from the stoop at which this unknown man was sitting was the arrest made? I should judge about fifty feet, about the width of two houses, ordinary city lots. Did you see him put his hand on the coat of the unknown man? I said that he put his hand towards him, I could not tell at that distance whether he touched him, it was within a few inches of him at any rate.

The case for the defence.

Edward Sullivan, sworn and examined. I live 123 Madison St. and lived there from the 2nd of May up to the day of the arrest. I worked last for Samuel White, Westchester Co. from the second of March to the second of May. I remember the 12th of May, I was looking for <sup>work</sup> that day. I went to Alex. Macey in East Fourteenth St. who got me employment in Westchester Co. I went there with the intention of taking care of horses. I worked in New Jersey grooming horses and when I went up to Samuel White's I went with the intention of taking care of horses, but he wanted to put me at farming and all sorts of hard work. I went down Fulton St. on this day and met two young fellows who asked me if I got work. I expected to get work that night in Mr.
Greenbaum's place 16 Frankfort St. I sat down on a stoop in Arm St. to rest and saw this drunken man, but never put a hand on him. I did not try to take an envelope out of his vest, for I was six feet away from him. I sat on the stoop five or ten minutes and then walked away cisurely towards William St. I did not run.
I don't know any members of the Phyo gang.
The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an attempt at petty larceny.
