NEW YORK,

Jan 6. 1885

Hon. R. B. Martine

My dear Sir,

Henry Uhlinger, a young man was arrested about Dec.
26th with two boys on a charge of larceny. Not having counsel or friends he was bound over to the Grand Jury and was indicted on Jan'y 2d. The trial was set down for next Wednesday. He had never been arrested before. His parents are respectable Germans. The result of his imprisonment is that his mother is now confined to bed in the care of a doctor and his father is all broken up. As I understand it, the party with whose show case the boys broke does not care to prosecute Henry Uhlinger.

0904

The father of the young man was a relative of my father, and the boy bears my name.
For this reason I take the interest in the matter that I do.

If you will be kind enough to let me know when I can see you I shall be happy to call on you and see what can be done in the matter.

Very truly yours
