with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said John Sunglass then and there being, wilfully and feloniously did make an assault and him the said John Sunglass with a certain instrument and weapon, a description of which is to the jurors aforesaid unknown and cannot now be given, which the said Philip Nilan in his right hand, then and there had and held, the same being then and there a sharp, dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously, and without justifiable and excusable cause, did then and there beat, strike, stab, cut, and wound, with intent to then and there wilfully and feloniously do bodily harm unto him the said John Sunglass against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their Oath aforesaid, do further present : That afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Philip Nilan with force and arms, in and upon the body of John Sunglass in the peace of the said people then and there being, feloniously, did make another assault and him the said John Sunglass with a certain instrument and weapon, a description of which is to the jurors aforesaid unknown and cannot now be given, which the said

Philip Nilan in his right hand then and there had and held, wilfully and feloniously did beat, strike, stab, cut, and wound, the same being such means and force as was likely to produce the death of John the said John Singlass with intent him the said John Singlass then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

FOURTH COUNT.

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their Oath aforesaid, do further present: That afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Philip Melan with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said John Singlass then and there being, wilfully and feloniously, did make another assault and the said John Singlass with a certain instrument and weapon, a description of which is to the jurors unknown and cannot now be given, which the said Philip Melan in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being then and there a deadly weapon, wilfully and feloniously did then and there beat, strike, stab, cut and wound, with intent to then and there wilfully and feloniously maim him the said John Singlass against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
