with you, and go about your own business". When I said these words, telling him to leave us, he called me vile names, and as he uttered the word he stabbed me with a knife and ran away. My husband ran after him and had him arrested. I saw the knife with which he stabbed me. It is the same one which is now produced in court. The stab wound was inflicted upon my left breast. My husband procured a doctor who dressed my wound on the same evening. I did not hear the defendant make any statement in the Police Court.

Cross-examination:

This occurrence took place between two and three o'clock in the afternoon. My husband didn't have any knife in his hand at the time the defendant assaulted me. I never saw the defendant before the day he wounded me.

ALFRED H. CRUMP, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a practicing physician at Williamsbridge. I know the witness who has just left the stand. On the 9th. of August I was called upon to attend her professionally. I found a punctured wound, a superficial wound on the left breast. The wound was a serious one. If the knife or instrument had punctured far enough it certainly would have reached the heart. The wound was dressed by me at my office.

Cross-examination:

Q How deep was this puncture, if you know? A I don't know. I did not probe it.

0505

Q Didn't you examine it? A I did examine it.

Q You say the wound was superficial in its nature? A Yes, sir.

Q How large a cut was it, as near as you can recollect?

A I should judge perhaps half an inch.

Q In length? A Yes, sir.

Q Through the clothing? A Yes, sir.

Q And not having probed it, you cannot tell what the depth is? A No, sir.

Q Look at the knife in front of you. If that knife-blade had punctured the left breast to any considerable distance, would the wound on the breast not be wider than a quarter of an inch, as you have stated? A I think not.

GEORGE SMITH, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am the husband of Concerta Smith. I was in her company on the afternoon of Sunday, the 9th. of August on the railroad bridge at Williamsbridge. I saw the defendant on the bridge. I first saw him come out of a saloon which is close to the railroad track. He came up to me and insulted me and said: "I will kill you". After hearing those words, I went up to him and told him to go about his own business, that I didn't want to have anything to do with him". He repeated the same words to me and then left. My wife said to him: "Why are you trying to get up a row with my husband? You go about your own business and let us attend to ours". He called her vile names and then he pulled out this knife and stabbed my wife with it. I saw the knife which is now produced in the hands of the defendant and saw him use it upon the person of my wife. When he had stabbed her, I ran after him and had him arrested by a Police Officer. I did not strike the defendant at all. I saw him throw the knife away after he had cut my wife.

Cross-examination:

I have known the defendant for two weeks. I never worked with him. I only saw him once before the time he stabbed my wife. There were several people around at the time this stabbing affray took place. I did not strike the defendant in any way.

FELLICI GASPARINI, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at Williamsbridge. I was on the railroad bridge spoken of on Sunday, August 9, about two o'clock in the afternoon. I saw the complainant and her husband there. I heard Mrs. Smith say to the defendant "You go about your own business and I will attend to my business". I heard him call the woman vile names and then saw him draw back his arm, take out a knife and stab the woman on the breast. When I saw that I caught hold of the lady, and if I had not done so she would have been killed. The knife, which is now produced, I saw in his hand.

D E F E N S E:

GERVASO FERERINI, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I live at Williamsbridge and I am a laborer. I have been in this country nine years. I know the complainant, having seen her at Williamsbridge. I knew her husband for two years and worked with him. On the afternoon in question I was walking across this bridge and I had a pitcher in my hand. The husband made a nasty remark to me as I was crossing the bridge. I asked the husband why he spoke that way to me, and when I spoke to him the woman picked up a stone and threw it at me. Then she kept picking up stones and throwing them at me, and the husband was hitting me with his hands. Then one of them picked up a piece of wood and attacked me again. I didn't stab the woman.

(No cross-examination).

The Jury returned a verdict of "guilty of assault in the second degree".

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

People vs. Annie Fisher.

Tried August 14th, 1891.

Mr. Lynn, for the People.

Mr. Colman, for the Defendant.

DELIA McLEAN testified: I am nearly fourteen years old; and know Annie Fisher. I live at 529 Roosevelt Street. She lives in the same house. On the 5th of August she hit the baby on the eye with a hatchet. It was my little brother. The baby was two years old the 15th of July. It was done in the hall-way. I was winding the baby. I had him in my arms. At the time it was raining and I shut the door up. She did not say anything. But when I shut the door she threw the hatchet at me, but she hit the baby. It was taken to the hospital. The eye is nearly well now. The baby's name is Charles McLean. The old lady was coming in the room where she lives. She was not using the hatchet for the purpose of splitting wood. She had two pieces of wood in her arms. The hatchet was in one hand and the wood in the other. She had the hatchet in the right hand and the wood in the other hand. She says, "O, my God." After she out the baby. She threw it at me. It did not slip out of her hand. She threw it. I was facing her.

ANNIE FISHER, the defendant called: I live at 52 Roosevelt Street; had a piece of wood. I was about to split wood, and I had the hatchet and the girl called me bad names, said "old woman prostitutes."
That is all I can tell. I don't know what I did afterwards. I did not throw the hatchet at the baby. The baby never did any harm to me. My left hand is paralyzed.
I can not carry anything with that arm. I do not carry in wood with that arm. I held the wood and the hatchet together in my right hand. I had just commenced to split wood. I have a rooming for working people. I pay six dollars a month rent.
