

VICE-PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER, WASHINGTON.

My dear Job:

If it is possible, I expect to attend the Grant exercises in New York
on April 27, and I want to know if it would be possible &
convenient for you
to get 2 tickets
to seats etc. for

Mr. Hobart's stenographer, W. McHenry, and myself. The Rice President, as you no doubt know,
will attend, & I imagine most of the Senators will be on hand so that there will be nothing to do here. Whatever you can do will be greatly appreciated
by me & perhaps some day I may have the privilege of responding.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Sir:-

If within your power to do so, I would be exceedingly grateful if you would let me have two tickets for any of the stands at the Grant exercises on the 27th of next month. I have no doubt that you are besieged on all sides for tickets, but if you could strain a point in my case and let me have two I assure you I would be under great obligations. I desire them more for my mother than anything else as if I were alone I could rustle for myself. She returns to the West shortly and desires to take back with her the recollection of what will be the grandest thing of the kind that has ever occurred.

If you are unable to accomodate me, perhaps you would be able to suggest the name of the gentleman who has the tickets to give out and give me a line to him. As you probably do not know me by name, would state I have been a member of the Ohio Society for a good many years.

Thanking you in advance for the courtesy of a reply and (I hope) the tickets,

My dear sir:-

The Whitney family consists of nine children, mother and father, making eleven, and every one of them want a seat on the Grand Stand on the 27th of April, and I don't know how to get them, and I thought perhaps you could put me in the proper combination, through which I could obtain this very limited number of seats. If you can do so, it will be greatly appreciated not only by myself but by the other ten, which should be taken into consideration in all cases when the Whitney family is mentioned.

Dear Sir, Please locate the writer as the party who tried to ^{help} build the Grant Monument through the sale of "The Soldier In Our Civil War" and failed in turning over ten percent on a sale of probably 100,000 copies at fifteen dollars each to the association by reason of a quarrel between the executive committee of the Association and James T. White president of the publishing concern. My purpose is now calling your attention to this is that I may secure an invitation to the ceremony of unveiling. I would esteem such a survivor to give my children even if I may not be able to be present which I hope to do. Allow me to congratulate you on your recent appointment.
