G E O R G E S M I T H :
Indictment filed March 5th, 1890. :
Indicted for Grand Larceny in the :
second degree. :
----- x

Before Hon.
Randolph B. Martine, and a Jury.

Tried April 1st, 1890.

APPEARANCES:

Assistant District Attorney Parker for the People;
Messrs. Westerfield & Requa, for the defense.

Maria Reis testified that she lived at No. 2 Livingston Place, and had lived there since the 1st of June, 1889.
She had a boarding house at 2 Livingston Place, on July 4th, 1889. On or about June 10th, 1889, the defendant came to her door -- the basement door -- and asked for work. She sent him away, and he returned five times, asking for work.
She then concluded that the defendant was in real need of work and she asked the defendant if he was honest, because the man whom she had previously employed was dishonest. The defendant said that he was honest and he said that it was too bad that there should be dishonest men because they kept poor men from getting work. She employed the defendant to sew and lay carpets, sweep the rooms and make himself generally useful. The defendant went home every night, saying that he slept in a lodging house on the Bowery. She gave the defendant his meals and fifty cents every night. After he had been with her about 12 days she said, "I will engage you at $10 a month, and will give you a room to sleep in. On the 4th of July, she had $58 in her pocket book. She gave her husband $3, and put the pocket book in the top bureau drawer in the back parlor. There was also a watch lying in the same compartment of the drawer. It was a watch belonging to her husband. She, the complainant, and her daughter spent most of the day on the top floor, in her daughter's room. The defendant, when he entered her employ gave the name of George Wilson. The defendant swept a large room on the top floor, and spent a good deal of time in that work. She, the complainant, went down to her room and she saw the bureau drawer open. She, was convinced that she had closed it when she went upstairs, and she opened the door and missed her pocket book. Then she went down stairs to look for George the defendant, and found the basement door open.

It was closed when she went upstairs. She missed her husband's watch as well as her own pocket book. About four weeks later, she was informed, by Detective Dunn, from police headquarters, of the arrest of the defendant, and she went there and identified him. She missed her money and her husband's watch at about one o'clock in the afternoon.

Under cross examination the complainant testified that, on the 4th of July, it being a holiday, she and her daughter and the defendant were the only occupants of the house at the time of the loss of her pocket book and her husband's watch.

Lester Clark, of 299 East 7th Street testified that in August, 1889, the defendant was employed in the house of his grandmother, Mrs. Sabina Dunn, at 299 East 7th Street, he was a man of all work. He gave the name of George Wilson. He, the witness, gave the information that resulted in the arrest of the defendant.

Charles C. Dunn, the uncle of the preceding witness, gave similar testimony.

George Smith, the defendant, testified that he lodged on the night of July 3rd, 1889, at 153 East 23rd Street, a lodging house. He got up about half past eight o'clock, and got his breakfast. Then he met a man who lodged in the house, whom he knew only as "John". After breakfast he went to Tammany Hall, and sat in the gallery, and listened to the speeches. After the meeting was over, he went down into the basement, and had free lunch and beer there. Then he went to Leonard's saloon between Houston and Stanton Street, on the Bowery. He sat there for some time, and drank beer. Then he took a walk and it commenced to rain, and he went under a grocery man's shed, at Rivington and Chrystie Streets. Then he went into Peterson's saloon, at the corner of Delancy and Chrystie Streets, and had another drink. It was then about four o'clock. "John" had accompanied him throughout his walk, and they returned to the lodging house about five o'clock, and he sat in the reading room until quite late and went to bed. He had never seen the complainant, Maria Reis, in his life, and had never been employed by her. He did work for Mrs. Dunn, in February, 1889. He had never taken anything from her house that did not belong to him

Indictment for robbery in the first degree.

Michael Fallon, sworn and examined, testified. I was in New York on January 28th, and on March the second I went into a saloon at 28 Mulberry st. at 8 p.m.; the three defendants and five other men were there when I got in. I went in with a man whom I was acquainted with and whom I met in the street, John Walsh. We had a few drinks and were talking together, and while we were talking another man with whom I am acquainted came in - he is a baker by trade, McGraw; he is not in Court. Sullivan came up to me and asked me how much money I had? I told him I had nothing, and then he put his hand in my pocket and tried to get it down. I tried to prevent him with my hand. He said I lied, and he hit me in the face with his hand - with his clinched fist; he did not knock me down. I was standing up against the bar and he came at me the second time; he tried to get down in my pocket; the other two men were looking. Sullivan searched all the pockets except the job pocket. I had 65 cents - two 25-cent pieces, a ten cent piece and a five cent piece in the job pocket of the pantaloons. He wanted to go in the job pocket and I stopped him the third time, and he called me out of my name, "you son of a b---h; you have got it there, and then the other two men commenced to halloo. Those three took hold of me and two more who are not in Court. Barbara got hold of me with one hand on the coat; he assisted in throwing me down. Offara got on the other side and caught hold of me too and Sullivan got hold of me around the arms. I was knocked down on the floor and while I was on my back Sullivan put his foot on my breast. I think it was the right foot; while he had me that way the other two were going through my pockets; it was Barbaro took the money out of the pocket. I then got a blow on the back of the head, I was bleeding; they let me up and gave me my hat and told me to go out. I got up, got my hat and went to the police station. They were arrested about three quarters of an hour after it happened. in the same saloon. I am positive that the three men on trial are the men who knocked me down. I went back to the saloon with the officer and had them arrested.

Cross Examined. I am an iron moulder by trade but have not worked at it for three years. I have worked at odd jobs and I have peddled. I live at a lodging house in Bayard St. I think the number is 34. I resided there two months. I have lived in different lodging houses. The last place I worked at iron moulding was in Williamsburgh for a man named Farrington. I left his employ because the work was slack I think the last time I worked there was November 1884. I am not a married man. I have visited Mulberry street for the last year and a half. That part of Mulberry street in which I was robbed is called "the bend". I have seen stale beer dives there, but not lately. I have been in places there where they sell beer at three cents a glass. It was on a Sunday when I got robbed. I left my lodging house that morning about nine o'clock and went up the Bowery. When I left the house I had about \$1.80 or \$1.90 in money. I was peddling song papers and hair combs at this time for a living. On Saturday I bought 20 cents worth of song papers on Park Row. I don't remember the number - a little off Roosevelt St. There was another man with me. I could not exactly tell how many I sold. I had a little over \$0.90 the night before I was robbed. I paid ten cents for my lodging. In the morning I went up as far as Fourteenth Street. I had a drink of whiskey on my way up, and that is all I drank till I got back. I could not state exactly how long I was gone. When I came back from Fourteenth Street I went back to the same saloon where I had the drink of whiskey in the morning. I had one glass of beer. I had not eaten anything up to that time. I went over to Van Dyke's restaurant and had something to eat. Then I went down Park Row and bought the soap and then I went to No. 26 Mulberry St. I know the proprietors and visit the saloon pretty often. I remained there three or four hours. I drank in there twice with a friend of mine. I don't know his name, I drank whiskey. I went out of the saloon to sell some soap and returned to the same saloon and from the time I returned to the saloon the second time until I left about half past seven I had only one drink of whiskey. From there I went down to this place where I got robbed. I went down with a man named Welsh. I don't exactly remember the number; it is on the corner of Mulberry and Park Sts. underneath a bank. I met this friend Welsh on the street. I could not tell exactly where he resides, I believe he works in a coal yard. I don't know for whom he works. I see him every day black with coal. I know him two weeks and have seen him about five or six times. I met him at an Italian saloon. I don't know the proprietor of the place. Had been there about five times. I know I put  $\frac{7}{8}$  cents in the job pocket when I went into 26 Mulberry St. and I had that down in the basement where I was robbed. Then we went in Welsh paid for his drink and I paid for mine. They sell beer there for three cents a glass, but it is not a stale beer dive; after a minute or two Welsh treated me to another drink, and in about five minutes I called him up and treated him again. He went out from the bar room and we were standing in a partition of the same house by the side door. I have met Barbaro previous to the night of the 2nd of March. I saw him in the saloon No 26; he knocked money out of my hand previous to that. I never made complaint about it because it did not amount to much. Had it in my hand, he did not take it away, it fell on the floor and somebody picked it up. I had not met Sullivan often before the 2nd of March. I met O'Hara a month previous to the second of this month in 26 Mulberry street. I had been in that saloon pretty much every day for two weeks previous to the arrest of these people. I remained sometimes two or three hours a day. I have no enmity against the proprietor of No 28 Mulberry st. and have not had these three men arrested on that account. I have been arrested four or five times during the last year. I have not been dragged out of Mulberry st. dens or stale beer dives. I was sent to the Island once for six months for disorderly conduct and also a second time for the same thing and a third time for the same thing and fined ten dollars. I was never sent to the State prison for sandbaggging, but I have been in the penitentiary six months for petty larceny and another time for nine months for petty larceny. These offences were all committed since I have been stopping working at iron moulding. I was tried in the Tombs for petty larceny

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

John Farrington sworn. I am an officer of the Sixth precinct and arrested the defendants. I don't know anything of my own knowledge regarding the robbery that was committed in 28 Mulberry St. I arrested them in the basement of 28 Mulberry St. on March 2nd between 8 and 9 o'clock; the complainant came to the station house and gave some information, and then I went with him and he picked this gang out; there was seven men and I think two women in the basement at the time including the defendants. The complainant said there, "Sullivan, you are the man that knocked me down," and he said to the other two, "you are the two that put your hands in my pocket." They denied it. I called officer Winnes off post and sent him for another officer and took the three of them with the bar tender to the station house. The complainant looked as if he had been drinking, but he knew what he was doing; he had a cut in the back of his head. He told me the story, and I had no difficulty whatever in understanding him.

Cross Examined. Each one of the defendants denied the story of the complainant when I arrested them. I have never arrested the complainant. I have not arrested Barbaro but he has been arrested.

Joseph Barbaro sworn. I am 19 years old and was born in Italy. I have lived in New York about fourteen years. I used to work in a tin shop in Maiden Lane. I used to work there four months ago and I got shot in my arm and could not work. The man's name who keeps the shop is Smith. I remember the day I was arrested the second of March; previous to that I had never seen the complainant. Sullivan and I went into the restaurant and had a cup of coffee, and when we reached as far as the door that man (the complainant) was getting thrown out of the door; we sat down, and we heard that some of the gang hit the man down there. We had our coffee, we sat down for a while and all the rest of the fellows and the complainant went out, and about half an hour after that the complainant with two officers came down.

and he pointed me, Sullivan and "Dan" out and said that we robbed him. This saloon 28 Mulberry St. has a partition; in one part they sell coffee on Sunday and in the other part they sell liquors. I was arrested twice for playing ball last summer; one time I was fined three dollars and another time five dollars. I was never arrested for larceny or robbery. I was shot in the arm in the same place about two months ago; the bar tender was kind of drunk and shot me through the arm. I had him arrested on a charge of felonious assault and he is now in the Tombs. I had nothing to do with assaulting and robbing the complainant. My father is in Court; we live at 157 Leonard St. While I was in the saloon 28 Mulberry St. I did not see the complainant struck by Sullivan. I did not see Sullivan knock him down and place his foot on his breast. I saw no person interfere with him. When I first saw the complainant he was half drunk.

Cross Examined. When I was going down to the saloon the complainant was getting thrust through the door; that is all I saw. I know what perjury is and know that one is punished by God when he commits it. I never was in the penitentiary. I was sent to the Workhouse five days for playing base ball; the others ran away and I was caught. I know Sullivan two or three weeks but I do not frequent the saloons he does.

Daniel O'Hara sworn. I live at 33 and 35 New Boverly. I am a pedlar and remember the 2nd of March. I was in the saloon 28 Mulberry St. I went down there about ten minutes before these two other defendants came in. Then I went in. When the complainant was standing up against the bar; he asked the bartender for a drink of whiskey, and he told him he could not sell any whiskey on account of its being Sunday; the complainant was pretty well full and he commenced to start a row; he was hallowing at the bartender for not giving him the whiskey; the bartender said he would sell him coffee if he wanted it. A couple of young men caught hold of the complainant and brought him over to the door, opened it and pushed him right out; he stood trying to push the door in again and they slammed the door in his face. Sullivan and Barbaro were just coming down the stairs as the complainant was going out; at the time they reached the door the complainant was outside. I did not see Sullivan punch the complainant in the face and did not see him throw him down in the saloon and put his foot on the chest. I was there all the time, and if anything of that kind had occurred I would have seen it. I was arrested once. There was a brewery wagon broke down one day and there was a man took a keg of beer and he rolled it into the cellar of a saloon on the corner. So me and two other fellows went down to see what they were going to do with the beer and two policemen came down and fetched the three of us to the station house. I was brought before Justice Duffy and sent to the workhouse for ten days. Since that I was not arrested for any crime.

Cross Examined. I saw Barbaro about twice before the 2nd of March. That was the first time I saw Sullivan. I cannot tell the names of the men who threw the complainant out but I know them by sight. I have occasionally gone into the saloon No. 28 Mulberry st. when I have been peddling. It was kind of cold this night in question and I went in to get a cup of coffee. I have never drank anything but Italian wine - it is a white wine. I only drank it once or twice in my life. I and Barbaro came into the saloon together. Then the officer came into the saloon afterwards I told him right there I did not have anything to do with the robbery.

POOR QUALITY

Morris Jacobs, sworn. I am in the clothing business and keep a place at 1775 Third Avenue. I am a juror in this Court. I know the defendant O'Hara. I knew him when I kept a store on 76th St. about four or five years. He purchased goods of me; he came round daily with a horse and wagon. As far as I know he is a respectable man. I did not know that he had served ten days in the Workhouse. I found him to be straightforward with me.

A juror was withdrawn and the defendants pleaded guilty to assault in the third degree. They were each sent to the penitentiary for one year.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show.

On the night of the occurrence I was very much under the influence of liquor. The defendant was not the man who robbed me, he being a man with only three fingers. I have learned since the arrest that the defendant is a young man of excellent character, and has been employed by the firm of William P. Feeney & Co., 21 Chambers Street, who will take him back into their employ if he is discharged. I therefore ask that no indictment be found against the defendant, and that he be discharged
