This is to certify that Thos Pindaro was brought here last night about 11 o'clock, in our ambulance from 20th Precinct station.

He is suffering from a pistol shot of the chest, but I cannot yet say whether it is serious or not, as the man was quite restless, and I could not probe the wound thoroughly.

Thomas Anderson who is a patient here suffering from pistol shot wound of the chest, is doing very well, but his condition is unchanged since the last report. We don't know yet where the ball is, and while he is doing well now, sufficient time has not elapsed to pronounce the man out of danger. Still I do not think it is sure that he is dangerously hurt and will die. I cannot surely say ~~the~~ what will be the result of the wound until several more days have passed.

This is to certify that Thos Pindare, who was brought here Monday night, suffering from a pistol-shot wound of the chest, is yet a patient in this Hospital.

His general condition is yet very good, and the wound itself is doing well. The ball is yet in his body, however, and its locality is unknown to us. Under these circumstances, it is not possible for me to say that he is out of danger, although it now appears tolerably certain that the lung has escaped injury.

James Smith
filed Jan.

42

The People vs. James Smith (Court of General Sessions Part First.
 Before Judge Gildersleeve Feb. 8th 1882 Indictment for burglary in the second degree John A. Ellis sworn and examined testified: I live No 300 Bowery, I have seen the defendant on the morning of the 19th of January, I woke hearing a noise in this city and looked around.
 I saw this man burst the door of my bureau open. I was in bed asleep and I heard a noise. I looked around and woke up suddenly.
 I saw this man standing close to the bureau he had broken open with some kind of instrument in his hand. I made some exclamation and he ran for the door. I saw him open the door of the room a little way from mine and went in and shut the door. Did you arrest him there and there?
 I sent for the manager and he sent for a policeman. I walked back into my own room.
 I came out in my drawers. I put my trousers on and came out again. He walked out of that room and walked up stairs, and when I called to the Manager he had gone on the other floor. This is the man; the officer came and arrested him. I had a room in this lodging house and I hear the prisoner had one too. I saw him have an instrument in his hand and it corresponded with the marks in the door that was found by the Manager under his pillow. Then after you detected him with the bureau broken open he then escaped into his own room? Yes sir; he was not arrested in his own room; he went into a room in which he had no business; he was arrested up stairs; he walked out of that room. The piece of iron was found under his pillow. I did not find it; the Superintendent is here. There was nothing at all taken; he had not time; the screws were hawn from the lock of the bureau; the outer door of the room was not broken. I left it unlocked; it was latched; all that a person had to do was to lift the latch; this was 8 o'clock in the morning when he was in the room. Cross Examined. I went to bed the night previous about 9 o'clock; this is a public lodging house. I don't know how many people lodge in the house. I suppose there are more than fifty rooms in the house. I waked up to see this man at the bureau drawer; he was not in the room five seconds after I woke up; he ran right for the door. I suppose the bureau is two or three feet from the bed; I ~~could~~ have caught hold of him; he had a dark pair of trousers and a red undershirt. I did not identify him alone by the red shirt. One good look at him you could identify him again. I had a good look at him but I only looked at him a few seconds. You do not know whether he went in his own room or not? I cannot say. Was he dressed when he was arrested? I do not know, sir. I did not go up on the other floor. Where did you first see him when he was arrested in the custody of the officer? When he was brought down stairs by the officer, then he was dressed. How long was that afterwards? I suppose it must have been 20 minutes or so, possibly half an hour. There is a wash basin on the floor where the lodgers go out and wash themselves in the morning, that is perhaps 60 or 75 feet from my room. I did not see a good many more that morning with red flannel shirts on. I did not see any young man at the wash basin. I have been a lodger in the house about eight months. The officer did not say anything to me when he brought the prisoner down. They did not put him in a row with a lot of other men to have him identified. I identified him in the custody of the officer and before that I saw one person there with a red shirt taller than the prisoner. I don't know how many men lodge in this house. There was nothing stolen. Max Kirsch sworn and examined. I live at 308 Bowery and am Superintendent of the Lodging house. I know the prisoner, he had a room there on the 19th of January. I knew the room that was assigned to him. I remember the morning of the 19th of January, I found the prisoner on the second floor going up to the third, he went up to his room and I followed him up. I heard the report that there was something stolen. I asked him if he stole something; he denied it and I told him I gave the order to get an officer. So I waited till he dressed himself; he had a red shirt on. I have seen this piece of iron before, I found it under his pillow; he had reached his bed before I went to search his pillow; this piece of iron is a stove lifter, it came from the second story. Cross Examined. About 150 men lodge in this hotel; there is a wash basin on each floor and sometimes there is a crowd waiting in a line in the morning. Most of them get up before 8 o'clock. The prisoner was arrested between seven and eight o'clock. I could not tell you how many men got up this morning between seven and eight. I did not see him put the piece of iron under the bed. I could not tell you whether the prisoner stopped there before or not.

0852

0853

0054

0055

Lawrence Burke sworn and examined. I belong to the 15th precinct. Do you know the prisoner here? Yes sir. Did you arrest him? Yes sir, on the morning of the 19th 8. 20 I got him at the station house. What did he say of himself? He denied having committed any offence. He was identified by Mr. Ellis. I tried the instrument on the wardrobe and it corresponded exactly with the marks. Cross Examined. Mr. Hirsch said that the instrument belonged to the house. I did not look around for any more. This was handed to me, I don't know where it came from. I did not see it in the prisoner's possession.

James Smith, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live 29 Cannon St. I live with my father and mother, on this night in question I went to the theatre, Volks Garden in the Bowery near Rivington St. I remained there till almost 12 o'clock. I went right up the Bowery I heard a young fellow shout out, "there is a pool match over in Spencer's." After crossing the street I went in Spencer's billiard saloon; there was five or six tables occupied by men; there was a terrible crowd. I remained to almost two o'clock. I walked outside, I saw a red lamp, "Rapid Transit, beds 25 cents." I asked the man could

I have a bed for the night. I went into the lodging house and I took a room for the night. Some man came around and knocked at the door and I got up. I went outside and washed myself; five or six men were there. One man said, "Go down to the next floor, you can wash yourself sooner." I was drying my neck. Some man said something was the matter around there. I looked around and that man said, "somebody was in my room with a red shirt." He looked at me, he went up stairs, I believe, I could not say where he went; he went in a different direction from where I was standing. I don't know whether he went up stairs or down stairs. Then when he came back he said to me, "You were in my room." I said, "No sir, you are mistaken." He said, "Somebody with a red shirt." I was not in his room. I did not attempt to steal anything from him. I have plenty of clothes without stealing. I work. Did you have that in your possession? (showing a piece of iron) No sir, my bed was turned upside down. Did they find any goods stolen from anybody in your room? No sir, only found my coat and vest and hat. I denied my quitt at the time. Cross Examined the place where I live in Cannon St. is a mile, 18 or 19 blocks from the Rapid Transit Lodging House. What do you work at? I work in the summer time at ice cream and in the winter time I work either in the ~~fruit~~ shop or for my father. What have you been working at this winter? Working for my father at 24 Cannon St. What doing? Locksmith. What time do you usually go to work in the morning? Eight o'clock and work till five. What wages do you receive? I do not receive any from my father; he furnishes me clothes and board, but he does not pay me any wages. Sometimes I receive 25, 75, cents, and some times as high as a dollar. I was working on the 19th of January. I believe it was six o'clock that I quit work. I was working around Rivington St. in a church near Cannon St. Then did you travel a mile to your father's house, take supper, dress yourself for the theatre and get back again to the theatre within an hour? Yes sir. What was going on at Volks Garden? I do not remember the play. I paid ten cents to go in. Did you drink any there? No sir. Did you meet any one there? No sir, not as I know of - had a seat all by myself, I remained there till nearly

0857

0858

Twelve o'clock. I went there at 7 o'clock and bought five cents worth of peanuts. First there was three colored men came out to dance and then a young girl came out and sang. I am going on 20 years of age. I am not in the habit of staying out of my father's house at night. I went to see a pool champion match that night, and that is my only reason for remaining out that night. I reached the Rapid Transit House between one and two o'clock; there was a clock up stairs in the room, but I did not see any clock at the pool place. I saw no other clock that night. I got up about ten minutes after seven, I slept on the third story. I don't know which story Mr. Ellis slept on. I did not wash upon the third story. I made no effort to find the man who told me I could wash more conveniently down stairs. I was not in the complainant's room. I never saw the piece of iron shown here before. I could not tell you who searched the bed. Ferdinand Boehm sworn. I know the prisoner three years; he has worked for me, I am in the ice cream business, I carry it on now in 434 East Houston St. He is an honest young man as long as he worked for me. I have entrusted him with money. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the second degree.

A Yes I have one machine on housekeeping,

Q You have said in your affidavit that the prisoner represented to you that he was going to give up house keeping was that after Lynch had bought the machine to your house

A Lynch told me that a man a friend of his was breaking up housekeeping and that he had bought a machine from him three months before and wanted to sell it cheap, first Lynch said twenty five and then

0069

asked me if I would take

 A When the machine was brought in Lynch said here is the machine.

A I supposed so

0071

Q You did not have any conversation in Stebbins presence as to who the machine belonged A I could not swear as to any particular conversation except Lynch said here is the machine. That was all the conversation except that the BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by for the reasons following, to-wit:

*that on said day at about

 Deponent is informed by Maria said Sullivan and said other person came to deponents said Maria Euyler's door, and inquired of her whether the party ^{living} in the therefore verily believes and charges that said Sullivan and said other person did burglariously enter deponents said premises by ~~be~~ forcibly breaking said padlock, and did so with the felonious intent to commit a crime: to wit larceny
