And deponent further says that subsequently, and at two o'clock and fifteen minutes of the said day when said alleged stock known as Mo. And deponent further says that during the time when he was in said room he saw numbers of other persons filling out similar papers, delivering the same either to said McDonald or to said Skidmore or to said John Doe together with money, and receiving in return therefor papers similar to those which the deponent received.

And deponent further says that he did not deliver to the said Mc Donald or said Skidmore or said John Doe any stock nor receive any stock from them, nor was he asked for any stock by any person. Nor did he see any stock delivered to or received by any of the persons engaged in transactions similar to those in which the deponent engaged, but that the whole business then and there conducted by the said McDonald and said Skidmore and the said ~~John Doe~~ Arthur P. Newman, was in receiving orders and money and closing the transactions according to the fluctuations of the market made for stocks by New York Stock Exchange, as from time to time they appeared upon said blackboard.

And deponent further says that he had no intention to buy or sell any stock, and that he does not believe that the said McDonald or said Skidmore, or said ~~John Doe~~ *Arthur P. And deponent further says that subsequently, and at two o'clock and fifteen minutes of the said day when said alleged stock known as Mo. Pac. was quoted and recorded upon the blackboard as selling at 84 at the New York Stock Exchange, the deponent surrendered said writing and received in return from said Skidmore the sum of three dollars and seventy five cents.

And deponent further says that during the time when he was in said room he saw numbers of other persons filling out similar papers, delivering the same either to said McDonald or to said Skidmore or to said John Doe together with money, and receiving in return therefor papers similar to those which the deponent received.

And deponent further says that he did not deliver to the said Mc Donald or said Skidmore or said John Doe any stock nor receive any stock from them, nor was he asked for any stock by any person. Nor did he see any stock delivered to or received by any of the persons engaged in transactions similar to those in which the deponent engaged, but that the whole business then and there conducted by the said McDonald and said Skidmore and the said ~~John Doe~~, *Arthur P. And deponent further says that he had no intention to buy or sell any stock, and that he does not believe that the said McDonald or said Skidmore, or said ~~John Doe~~, Arthur P. Newman had any intention to buy or sell any stock, but to settle differences on the fluctuations of the stock market as they appeared upon the said blackboards

And deponent further says that as far as he was able to observe, the whole business carried on by said McDonald and said Skidmore and said John Doe was the settlement of differences upon orders to buy and sell stock according to the fluctuations of the market made for stock by the New York Stock Exchange as from time to time the said fluctuations appeared upon said blackboards, without any intention on the part of the persons so engaged to deliver or receive any stock.

WHEREFORE deponent charges that the said McDonald and said Skidmore and said ~~John Doe~~ Andrew Van Buren then and there kept said room for the purpose of making bets and wager contracts upon the fluctuations of stock as they appeared upon said blackboard and for gambling in violation of Section 343 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.

WHEREFORE deponent prays that a warrant may issue against said persons, that they may be dealt with according to law.

I was the young man who had answered his advertisement and had come in response to his letter. He said that he always demanded cash security, and asked me if I had any money. I told him I had a couple of hundred dollars which I would be willing to put up. I thereupon left him and took the elevated cars to my house, got the money, came back and met him in the Western Union Building. At that place I handed $300 over to him and got his receipt for the money. He told me to be at the office the following morning; I got there about half past nine and I waited for him until 12 o'clock but he did not come. I then left and returned the following morning and waited for him until 12 o'clock again. Then I went to Police Headquarters and reported the case. I afterwards went to the defendant's house, No. 60 Fourth Place Brooklyn, with two detectives. I identified him there as the man with whom I had had these interviews and to whom I delivered my money.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

He bound himself to return the money with legal interest, on one week's notice.

I took a receipt from this defendant. I believed the representations which he made to me and relying upon those representations I parted with my money.

Dear Sir:

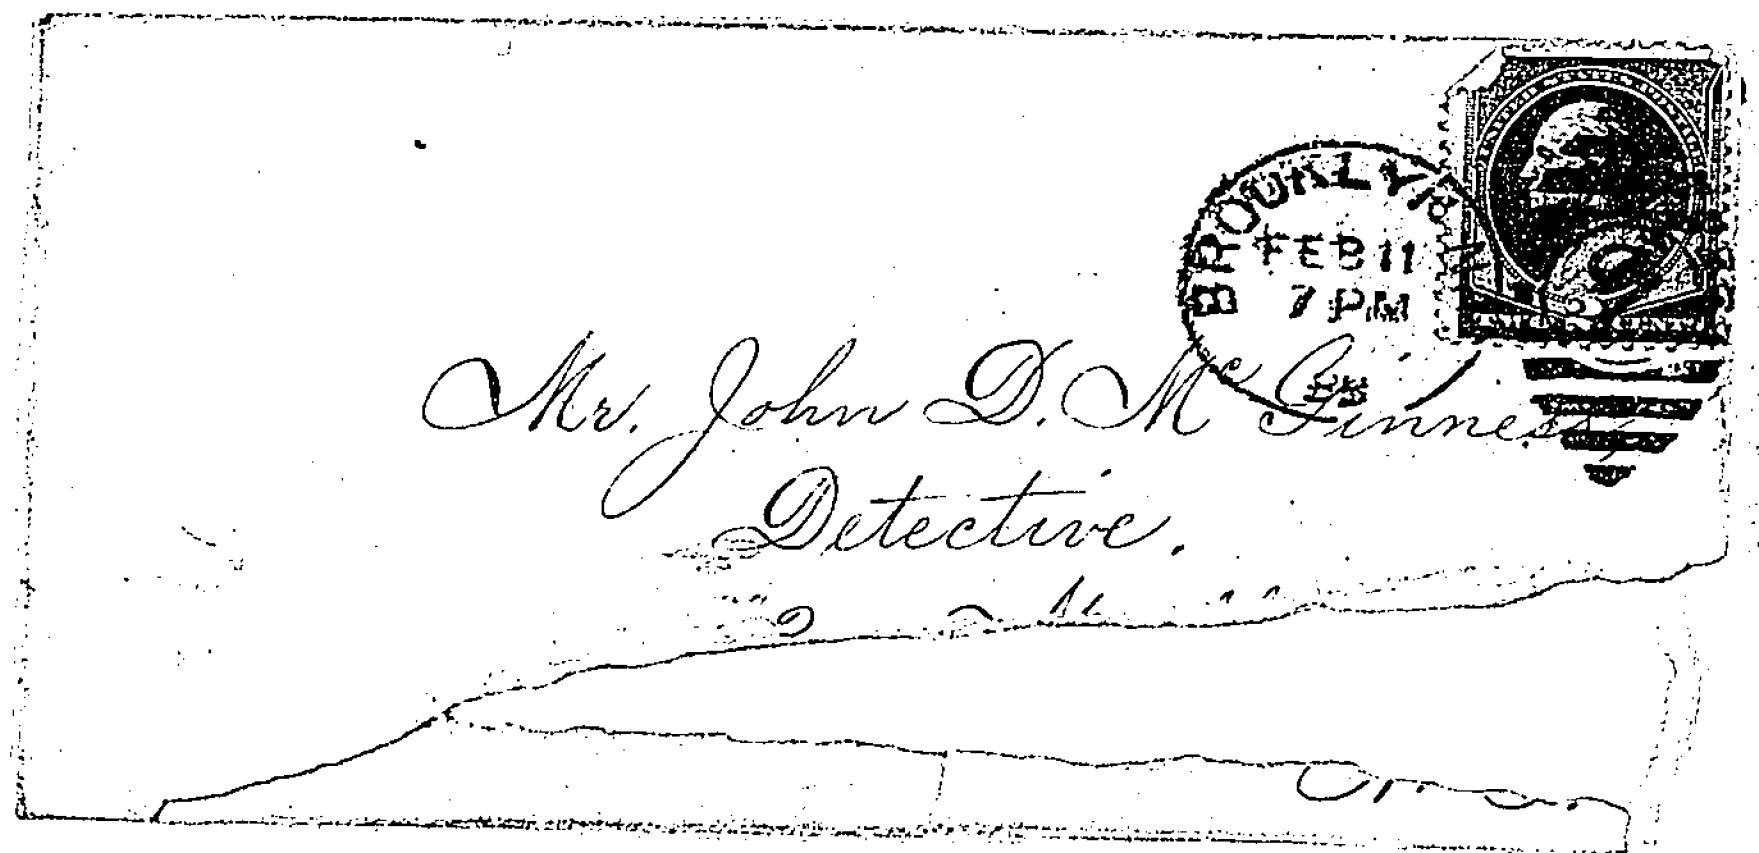

In October 1886, I read an advertisement in the "Herald", calling for a reliable man, that could furnish $300.⁰⁰ cash security. To such a one would be given a position with good salary. I answered this adv. and was requested to call at No. 37 Nassau St. N. Y. There I met the man. We soon came to terms. I accepted the position, and furnished the $300.⁰⁰ Cash, for which he gave me a receipt, signing himself Wm McDonald. He represented himself as being worth Sixty Thousand Dollars, and dealing in Real Estate. He sent me to Atlanta, Georgia, to sell some property. On arriving there, I found I was swindled.

Returned to New York, and found this W^m McDonald had disappeared. I did not see him again until I saw him in the Tombs,
as Martin McDonald.
I have his receipt and signature in my possession.

Respectfully,

J. Phillips
