Tried June 21st 1886.

Assistant District Attorney Davis, for the People;
Mr. Ledden, for the defence.

MARGARET JONES, the complainant, being duly sworn, testified that she lived at 42 Jackson Street. On the 6th of June last, she was visiting in the house of Mrs. Waters, the mother of Charles Kraus, at 247 Munroe Street, in this City. She had $1350 in her bosom, underneath her dress.
She had a quarrel with her husband on the fourth of June,
and he beat her and put her out, and she went to the house of Mr. Waters. She had ~~those~~ bank books when she went there. The next day she asked Mrs. Waters to lend her a wrapper and shawl and a hat and an apron and told her she wanted to get some money. On the 5th she went to the Bowery Bank, to the Bleecker Street Bank, and from there to Williamsburg; ~~then~~ then she returned and sat on the lounge and counted her money. She had 1350. She wrapped it up in a piece of paper, tied it with a piece of cord and put it in her bosom. Mrs. Waters and her two sons were eating dinner at the time. Mrs. Waters invited her to eat something and gave her some beer; she lay down and about four o'clock she woke up and she opened her dress and counted her money and found that $490.00 was gone. She said to Mrs. Waters "Somebody has robbed me." Mrs. Waters said: "It is all right, Charly has got it." She referred to Charley Kraus, her son. Kraus was her step-son. At 11 o'clock, on Sunday Morning, Waters, the blind boy, gave her $390.00 and Charles Kraus gave her $100. She counted her money again and it was all right. At about 2 o'clock they had dinner and they had beer. She got two glasses of beer and all the others went on the roof. She lay down there on the side of the bed; about four o'clock she heard somebody at her dress; she opened her eyes, and saw Charles Kraus take the package of money out of her breast and Waters stood beside him. They ran up to the roof and she followed them; she said: "This is no fooling now. This means robbery. Give me my money back right away." They said: "For Christ's sake, don't make thieves of us. We are no thieves." She begged for her money and they would not give it back. Their mother told them to come back and give her the money, but they would not give it. The money belonged to her husband and herself. She had never got back a penny of it.

-----000-----

Officer PATRICK ENGLISH, of the 13th precinct, being duly sworn, testified that he arrested the defendants on the 8th of June, 1886. He found them on the roof of the house apparently hiding. It was between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They said they did not take the money. They said that they had offered Mrs. Jones $100. to keep quiet. The blind boy tried to throw some money he had in his pocket into the closet. It was about four dollars. He said he thought they might find this money on him. Waters, the blind boy, said that they offered $100 to Mrs. Jones to keep quiet and Charles Kraus said to Waters, "that is where you were wrong." You had no business to tell her that".

For the defence; CHARLES KRAUS, being duly sworn, testified that he is twenty one years of age, and lived at number 237 Munroe Street. He did not take $1350 out of the bosom of the complainant's dress, or any money; he found $390 on the floor on the preceding Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Waters found ~~that~~ the money in Charles Waters poaket and he gave it back to Mrs Jones. He, the witness, was intoxicated when he found the money. He was sorry for what he had done and gave the money to Charley Waters to keep until they could return it. The complainant had been drinking that day and went frequently into the yard to the closet.

-----000-----

The Co- defendant, Charles Waters, corroborated Kraus, and Elizabeth Waters, mother and step mother of the defendants, corroborated him.

-----000-----

FREDERICK STROBEL, of Ridgewood, Long Island, testified that he kept a liquor store and a beer store. He had employed him^{Waters,} every Sunday afternoon as a piano player, beginning at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Waters was at his place on the afternoon of Sunday June 6th at half past two or quarter of three o'clock until five; he was playing in a concert. His character, so far as he knew, was good.

-----000-----

THOMAS F. KERRIGAN, of 316 West 42nd Street, testified that he knew Charles Waters as a piano player, ~~and~~ had been in his employ off and on for six or seven years. He had always found his character good.

Witnesses:

From the fact that the man was a deputy sheriff, and consequently a public officer, and there being no evidence that he intended to use the billy, I do not think a conviction can be obtained, and consent to the dismissal of the indictment, he having already been convicted on another indictment charging him with extortion and sentenced to five years in the State prison.
