The People vs. ~~Arthur Ketchum~~ <sup>Attempt at Burglary</sup>

John Gerken, Sworn, aged 20 years, ~~resides~~ <sup>resides</sup> tender, resides and works at 48 Courtlandt Street. At 8 o'clock, on Thursday night I saw the defendant walking up and down <sup>Courtlandt Street</sup> from New Church to Greenwich Streets - ~~from~~ until about 9 o'clock, when he came into the store where I work, and asked me what time I would close it - I answered that I would close "right away". I closed the doors, and looking out I saw the defendant walk up to the window of the <sup>next door</sup> premises 46 Courtlandt, Street and break a pane of glass in it - I went outside - Policeman Charles G. Carroll came up, and I informed him; We went inside the store - pulled down the shades & turned down the Gas. In about five minutes the defendant returned on the opposite side of the street; he looked around him; then walked directly across the street to the broken window pane - I heard him break the glass again - then the Policeman went out and arrested him. The sheet camp in front of these premises was burning when I first closed the fire. It was ~~not~~ turned off at the time of the arrest.

2. Cyp. Examined by the Defendant - Did you see me staggering from the influence of liquor at the time I was in your place - to ask when you would close <sup>it</sup>, and when I broke the window pane by falling against it.

2 A. You were a little bit drunk, not much - You bought a cigar - Did I tell You that I hoped
You would keep your car for I had an engagement to meet a lady friend there - between 8 + 9 - O'clock, and I said I would wait there - or at the cigar store over the way.

The People vs. Mary Kinney } Court of General Sessions. Part I Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree 1883 } Before Judge Geldersleeve. Jan. 26

Adolph Keisenberg, sworn and examined through the interpreter testified. Where do you live? No 159 Broome St. Upon the 13th of January did you lose any money in this city? Yes sir. How much? Three hundred marks, German money and about twenty four or twenty five dollars American money. Where did you lose it? In Mott St. He charges this girl with taking it; let him tell the jury all about it? I went with a friend through Elizabeth St. and two women addressed us asking us if we wanted to go with them. Was this woman one of them? Yes sir. Then we went with the women from Elizabeth St. to Mott St. We remained standing near the "big flat" in Mott St. What time in the night? It was between eleven and half past eleven. Then she embraced me. This woman here embraced me, and while she had her arm around me she talked to me and took my money. How long before the embracing had he seen the money or felt it, ask him was the money in a pocket book? In a pocket book, I had it in the pocket of the overcoat. The left hand pocket, in the outside pocket of the overcoat. How soon previous to this had you seen or felt the pocket book? I felt the money about five minutes before. Who else had you been in company with, if anyone? With Mary Kinney I was at that time. And no one else? No other. Did she go away after embracing you? Yes sir, she left me and went through the house "big flat." Did you miss your money then? Yes. What did you do then? I went in Elizabeth St. to a policeman and told him about it. He advised me to go to the station house in Elizabeth St. I went to the station house. How soon after was she arrested? Two days after. Monday evening she was arrested. This is the woman that embraced you? Yes sir. Cross Examined. What is your business? My business is baker. How long have you been in America? Nearly a year. I speak a little English. What time did you leave off work? Half past eleven. I went to Grand and Elizabeth Sts. to take a walk. I did not go into any place to get a drink. He went through Hester and Elizabeth to Mott St. How long did it take you from the time you left your place of business until you met this woman? About half an hour. Who is your friend that you speak of that was with you? Francis Sellar. What is his business? He is a baker.

0237

Was he working in the same place with you?

Yes sir, we work in the same place. Had you not been anywhere drinking? No sir.

Do you mean to say you were perfectly sober and you put your pocket book in your outside pocket when you had all that money in there?

Yes sir, I did. It was about half past eleven when I met this girl and twelve o'clock when we were at the station house. (Examination paper shown to the witness) I recollect putting my signature to this before the Magistrate in the Tombs. I recollect saying it was one o'clock when I met the defendant in Mott St. I was with detective English looking for her in the "big flats"; she was arrested in a saloon in Mester St. Did you give a description to the police authorities of the person who stole your money?

Yes sir. What description did you give? She had a dark gray cloak on and a black hat. What kind of a pocket book was it? Yellow, about three or four inches. Have you the same clothing on now that you had that night? Yes sir. I have got inside pockets to my coats, but no inside pocket to the vest. We only passed through Mester St. that night. You saw a good many women walking the streets that night? Yes sir. All around there there are plenty of them? Yes sir. We went through the Bowery till we got to Mester St. and then turned down Mott St. to Elizabeth. It is a pretty bad neighborhood at twelve o'clock at night, aint it? Yes sir. Where did you say you worked? In Broome St. corner of Attorney and Broome Sts. How many blocks is that from the Bowery? Eight. Do you want this jury to understand that you were only going for a walk down that direction? Yes sir. John Cairns, sworn and examined, testified. You are an officer of the Sixth Precinct. Yes sir. Do you know anything about this? Nothing further than to make the arrest. Had you a description of the person alleged to have been the thief in this case? Only what the complainant gave us. You know nothing about it? No sir. How many days after did you arrest her? Two. Where did you arrest her? In Mester St. in a caboon kept by a man of the name of Martin Reeves.

Adolph Weisenberg recalled by Counsel for the defendant. When was it, on Saturday night I believe? It was Saturday night eight days ago. Was it not a stormy night? Yes sir, it was bad weather; it was raining. I did not feel the defendant taking the money from my person, but as soon as she left I put my hand into my pocket and I said to my friend "My money is gone." She left me quickly. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
