The People Court of General Sessions. Part 7.
 Martin Garry Before Judge Cowing. July 16. 1883.
 Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Charles M. Fay sworn. I live at 70 Seventh ave. I am not doing anything now. I used to be a sign painter. I saw the defendant on the 19th of June in this city. I saw by the paper that the Statue of Liberty was coming that day and I went over to see it come in, and after I had been at Castle Garden I took the stage to come home, and the parade at the City Hall blocked up the stage so that it could not pass. The stage came opposite the Tribune office and it was blocked up again.
 So I got off the stage, and the first man I met pressed face to face and body to body, and the prisoner pulled on my watch to twist it that way (showing) I saw him do it, and the chain dropped down. I had a bundle of flowers in my hand and I grabbed the prisoner with my right hand, and he made a kind of motion and tried to swing; he had two persons between him. I told him he stole my watch, and the prisoner passed the watch to some one else behind. The officer came and put handcuffs on him. The ring of the gold watch dropped on the ground; it dropped from the prisoner's sleeves and I picked it up. I saw the watch and chain in his hand. The watch was worth forty seven dollars; it had the initials "C. M. J." I have not recovered it. This occurred a few minutes after three in the afternoon. Cross Examined. There were a great many people wanted to see the procession. It is not true that I grabbed the prisoner's hand over another man's shoulder. Of course I was excited when he stole my watch.

0012

Moy Jay was sworn to act as interpreter.

Moy Sing, sworn and examined. I live 202 Chatham St. and live in a Chinese store. I saw the defendant on the 19th of June and Mr. Jay was there when I saw him. I saw the prisoner walk across to the complainant and he (Jay) yelled out, "I lost my watch!" the complainant caught the prisoner's right hand and the prisoner drew his left hand back; I saw something that looked bright in his hand. There was only two men between me and the prisoner. I saw him take Mr. Jay's watch and I saw it in his hand.

Cross Examined. I was walking between two men and the prisoner when Mr. Jay halloed.

Andrew Nugent sworn. I am an officer of the Fifteenth Precinct and made the arrest in this case. It was the day of the reception of the statue of Liberty. There was a procession coming up Broadway and as soon as the procession was dismissed the police were told to go home I started across the City Hall Park and as I struck Park Row I heard people hallooing "Police" and I saw the crowd running to one point. I ran with the crowd and forced my way through the crowd. The complainant had hold of the prisoner and he told him he stole his watch. I searched the prisoner and could find nothing on his person. I put him under arrest and brought him to the station house. I knew nothing about the ring until I got to the station house; the complainant showed me the ring and told me he picked it off the ground. The prisoner denied taking the watch and protested his innocence. I did not see any ring drop on the ground. The prisoner made no effort to escape. I put a pair of nippers on him. I found no watch upon his person. There were hundreds of people there; they were dispersing to go home. The case for the Defence.

Samuel Harris sworn. I am a barber and have known the prisoner about nine years and know other people who know him. I knew him to be night cashier over in Jefferson Market and I knew him

The cashier in a place in Bleeker st. two or three years ago. His reputation for honesty is good. I know he worked for Mr. Derrick. I am willing to lend him fifty dollars at any time and he pays me.

Alice Dougherty sworn. I am a married woman; the prisoner boarded with me. I have known him for a year and a half; his reputation for honesty has always been good and I was surprised when I heard of this.

John S. Deane sworn. I keep a restaurant and know the prisoner eleven or twelve years. His reputation for honesty is good; he has worked for me and has had charge of money and I never found any deficit in his account; he left my employ about a year ago to go to Saratoga.

Martin Garry sworn. I have been employed at 124 Sixth Ave. and went to Saratoga for the same employer. I was going up town when I was accused of taking the watch; there was a great crush to see the Mayor so that you could not get one way or the other. I did not put my hand upon his watch and took no property from him. I am a waiter and oyster opener and have never been convicted of a crime. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The defendant was sent to the Elmira Reformatory.

The People Court General Sessions Part IV
Joseph Garvey Before Judge Gildersleeve Aug. 6, 1883 Indictment for attempt at rape

Gussie Rabson, sworn and examined.
I am eleven years old and live at 105th St.
I am in the custody of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children I think almost a month. I was taken there after this occurrence.
I know the prisoner, he lives in the back part of our house. I have no father or mother and live with my aunt. Michael Murphy is my cousin, I think he is nine years old. I recollect the 11th of July at 11 o'clock at night I was sitting on the stoop till my aunt would come home; she told me to sit on the stoop with my little cousin, and the prisoner's wife called me up stairs to go an errand for her; the prisoner pinched my leg. I went for the errand, and when I came down he was at the door again, and my cousin went with a lady to the store. I was waiting for him to come back. I was sitting there. He says, "I will bet you Mike would be afraid to stay here while you and I went round the block." He says to Mike, "I will give you five cents if you stay there." I says, "No, I don't want to go;" but Mike said, "I will stay here if he will give me five cents I will run up and down the block five times. "No, he says, I want Gussie to go round the block with me." I say, "No, I don't want to." I got up from my door and sat at the next and he followed me. He sent Mike for five cents worth of bananas, and he said to me, "Let us go and meet him."

 He took hold of my hand, and I said, "no."
 He walked up with me to the corner of Lexington Avenue - he dragged me to the corner of 106th street. He says to me, "Come under the arch." I said, "No, my aunt will be coming home soon, and I want to go back to the door."
 He says, "Come on, we will meet your aunt," and then he dragged me to 106th st. under the arch, and said, "we will scare Mike." I say, "No, I don't want to scare Mike." He says, "Come on to Madison Avenue, you can go home that way." I was crossing, there was some bricks that way. I say,
 "I want to go home." He says, "Kiss me and I will let you go home." I say, "No, I don't want to kiss you." He says, "I will kill you if you don't, and he pushed me right down on the ground. Then he tried to lift up my clothes and I began screaming and I kept screaming all the time, and the man inside the fence did not want to interfere. I did not see him at the time. I was screaming and the policeman came over and he gave him a knock on the back and he got up, and then Mr. Garvey told me to run away. When I was down on my back he was trying to choke me, I screamed and he kept his hand over my mouth. He had his foot right on the stomach, and my legs was spread wide open. Was his person between your legs? Yes sir. I thanked the policeman for coming and I told him what he was doing. There was no light in this place, but there is another man in Court who was looking on apparently. He told the officer he thought it was a young lady and a young man and he did not want to interfere. He said that in the presence of the prisoner I was taken by the officer to the 84th St. station house and I was sitting there till the doctor came to examine me. Then I was taken home and the next morning I had to go to Court in 125th St. after which I was taken in charge by Mr. Jenkins of the Society for the Suppression of Cruelty to children and have been there since. This happened under the dark arch of the Harlem Railroad where there is no light. Cross Examined. I live in 105th St. between Lexington and

0028

0029

Fourth Avenues. How far from your house is this tunnel? It is right on the corner, I dont know how many houses, it is not very far from it. One hundred and Sixth St. is kind of wide; there is a line of stages running through it and the Elevated Station is on the corner of Third Avenue. The prisoner took hold of my hand and he dragged me. I did not make any outcry because I did not know what he was going to do to me. Had you ever been out with him before? No sir; he used to be sitting down by the door with his wife, I never spoke to him before only "good evening". Had you been fooling with him before that evening? No sir. I have told the jury everything that was done to me that evening by him. Did you have any marks upon your person? No sir, the doctor examined me I was not in the street very long that evening. My aunt did not go out until a quarter of eight o'clock, she said I could sit by the door, not to leave the door. I dont know what time she came home that night, I was not home; she went to Oakpoint. This happened five minutes after eleven o'clock. I used to go to school in Wooster St. I lived in McDougall St. I dont know what school I will go to now. I have been at the home of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children ever since this affair. I have not spoken with anybody since about this affair only the cook; she was asking me what I was there for. I never spoke to Mr. or Mrs. Jenkins about the case nor to any gentleman connected with the Institution. The defendant put his hand on my mouth, I struggled as hard as I could and I screamed and kicked and kept crying. I resisted as much as I could but he overcame me. I did not bite him.

Edward Purtell sworn. I am a police officer. I saw the prisoner on the night of the 11th of July about 8 minutes past eleven. As I was going through 106th St. to Fourth Avenue, about fifty feet around Fourth Ave., I heard the scream of a girl. I stood to see if I could locate the scream, and suddenly I heard another. As soon as I heard the second scream I ran to the corner of 106th St. and Fourth Ave. There are no lamps there, it is very dark and I leaned down to see if I could hear where the scream came from. I heard a kind of a weak scream and ran along by the fence. I got in the middle of the block and Garvey had this little girl stretched lengthways on the sidewalk; he was at the time between her legs with her clothes raised up. As I hit him on the back the little girl says, "Thank God, officer you came!" I says to Garvey, "What are you doing here?" He jumped up on his knees and got on his feet and made an attempt to get away. He halloed to the little girl to run. The little girl said, "Officer, I want run. I brought him to the station house. The other man was standing inside the fence at the time. I supposed he was a friend of Garvey's till I got him on the other side of Fourth Ave; he told me he was a stranger to him and never had seen him before he came in to attend to a call of nature. He said he heard the screams and did not know who it was and did not want to interfere. I did not ask the little girl anything about it till I got to the station house, and there she told all about it. The defendant when I saw him was lying on the little girl between her legs with his clothes up. I could not say whether his pants were unbuttoned. He made an attempt to get away in the excitement. It was quite dark there - no lamps at all. Cross Examined the little girl's clothes were up; she wore short clothes; she was struggling with her leg as if trying to get away. I stood over him hitting him with my club. I have not spoken to the girl about the case since I saw her in the Harlem Court.

Edward J. Jenkins sworn. I am Superintendent of the Society for the Suppression of Cruelty to Children, and have had the child in my possession since the morning of the 12th of July; she was brought directly to our rooms. I have had no conversation with her in relation to the case; it is against the rules of the Society - no one is ever allowed to.

The case for the Defence.

Joseph Garvey sworn and examined. I live 103 East 105th St. I partly remember the night I was arrested. I was intoxicated. I am a married man and have a family. I am a brass polisher and work for Newman and Capon 161 West Twenty Ninth St. for four years. I have never been in trouble of any kind before. The night it happened to the best of my recollection I was at the door and the boy Michael Murphy I saw him around two mornings previous to this. I promised him a ball and he was tormenting me for it. This night he asked me if I had got the ball, and I said, "no," and I gave him some pennies to go to Third Ave. to buy something. This girl came willingly with me towards Lexington ave. He ~~stayed~~ stayed for some time. I had a small Scotch terrier and when I got to Fourth avenue the dog went under the tunnel and I followed after the dog. When we came around to 105th St. my hat fell off and she fell with me and the officer came and arrested me. I did not attempt to rape the girl and had no such intention. I had no part of my person exposed. Cross Examined. I could not say if I fell between the girl's legs. I don't know if her clothes went up; she had a short dress. I don't know where my hand fell. I did not attempt to choke her.

Edward Hart sworn. I am a night watchman and reside at 252 West Tenth St. I know the prisoner 18 or 20 years; I know him to be a hard working man and his character for peace and quietness is good.

Belena Harvey sworn. The prisoner is my husband and I am married five years. I had three children, have one now and buried one last Monday. On the night of the arrest the little girl told me my husband was drunk at the door and pinched her in the leg. I told her to keep away from him.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an attempt to commit rape.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

William Gibson

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I had been drinking on the night of the assault, and got into an altercation with the defendant about a bottle, (cat) & we struck each other, I was as much to blame for the assault as the defendant was. As I respectfully ask permission to withdraw the charge, for the reason that the defendant has been punished.
