COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE,
IN AND FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

The People

v.

Charles White.

BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE.

The prisoner, a plumber, 28 years old, residing at 167 Hester Street, is indicted for rape on a little girl named Ella Reichman, aged 8 years. The facts appear in the evidence.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PEOPLE.

ELLA REICHMAN. - Is 8 years of age, and lives with her father Julius Reichman and mother Anna Reichman and her brothers and sisters, at ^{42 Division} ~~107 Hester~~ Street. On January 11, 1890, the prisoner asked her to come to his room, and she went up-stairs with him. His room is on the top floor of the house where they ^{defendant} live. He then took down her drawers, put his fingers into her private parts, endeavored to pull them aside, and then pushed his penis into them. Then Mr. Putz and Mr. Davis knocked at the door, and took her out and struck him. It hurt her very much what the prisoner did to her. This took place about 9 o'clock in the evening.

DR. W. H. SNOW. - Resides at 41 East 28 Street, and is a practicing physician. On January 12, 1890, witness examined the person of Ella Reichman and found present a congestion and inflammation of the external genitals caused by applied friction.

LOUISA BASCH. - Is a servant in the employment of Mr. Benedict Putz, at 167 Hester Street. About 9.30 P.M., January 11, while in her room, witness heard a man going up-stairs with a child, the footsteps sounding as if the child were a very little one. She called the attention of her employer Mr. Benedict Putz thereto.

BENEDICT PUTZ. - Is 21 years of age, and resides at 167 Hester Street. On January 11, 1890, about 9 P.M., Louisa Basch his servant called his attention to her having heard a man going up-stairs with a little child. Thereupon with his friend Henry Davis, who also lives in the same house, witness went upon the roof and through a skylight looked directly down into the prisoner's furnished room, and there saw him lift up the child's dress, unbutton her drawers, exposing her private parts, and then stand her up against the wall, get on his knees in front of her, and then draw her body six or seven times up against his as if having sexual intercourse with her. The room was lit up feebly by a candle. They then came down from the roof and knocked at White's door. He put out the light and opened it. One of them then struck him and the other seized him and called for the police, and they turned the child Ella also over to the police.

HENRY DAVIS. - Is 32 years of age and resides in the premises 167 Hester Street. Remembers the occurrence testified to by last witness, on January 11, and will corroborate his evidence in every particular.

ANNA REICHMAN. - Resides at ^{42 Division} 167 Hester Street, is the mother of the child Ella, and knows her age to be eight years.

 the true circumstances of the Hamilton

Mr. Geo. D. Lidday, Deputy re.

My dear sir.

I cannot call to see you this morn.
as you request, but trust the following will fully reply to your letter of yesterday.

When I performed the marriage ceremony for James A.
Johnson (col.) and Mary A. Sutton (white) on Oct. 4, 1886, Mr. Johnson told me in answer to my direct question, that he never was married before.

Some months after that, Mary Sutton came to me in grief & told me that she had left Mr. Johnson because she had learned that he had a wife living. I told her that if that were true she should not live in adultery with him. She agreed to have nothing to do with him. I met, soon afterwards, Mr. Johnson and ~~he~~ upbraided him for telling me a lie in Oct. 1886. He begged pardon & then told me that he had been divorced in Phila. I think, he said, from his wife. I told him Miss Sutton was not his wife & could not live with him. They were then living apart. Miss Sutton was told by me of Mr. Johnson's admission & was determined ~~not~~ ^{firmly} to live with him. Some months afterwards I found that they were living again together. As a Catholic Miss Sutton knew she was not his wife, & besides, she had no evidence outside his word, as she told me, that he had been divorced from his wife.

Dear Sir:-

In the matter of the extradition of one Henry White who resides at Asbury Park in our State-- Governor Abbett declined, for the present, to sign the warrant in view of the facts which you will find in the enclosed report of his executive clerk.

Please call Governor Hill's attention thereto.

If there has been any misrepresentation of facts to this office please inform us at once.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 27th, '90.

To his Excellency,

Leon Abbett,

Governor.

Dear Sir,-

By your direction I visited Asbury Park, N. J., Jan. 24th last and inquired as to the character and standing of one Henry White whose extradition is asked for on a requisition of the Governor of New York. I found that Henry White is a resident of Asbury Park and has been for the last five years past, and that his character and standing as a law abiding citizen is good.

On January 13th last a white woman appeared before John A. Borden a Justice of the Peace in Asbury Park representing herself to be Mary Johnson and the widow of Cornelius Johnson, (colored), dec'd and entered complaint against one Henry White (colored) for the larceny of certain goods in New York and asked to have him placed in custody until a requisition could be procured, the Justice had White arrested and brought before him and it was charged by the Complainant Mary Johnson that White had certain articles in his possession, a watch, a new suit of clothes and other things belonging to her deceased husband. A watch was produced also a new suit of clothes &c. and none of these could she identify. A Mr. Webster was present at the hearing, he is a colored minister residing near by, he is an own cousin to Cornelius Johnson, deceased, and attended the funeral together with Henry White and a colored woman the lawful wife of Cornelius Johnson who came from Baltimore. White admits that he and Webster did assist the colored woman whom it is known to be the lawful wife to procure what she claimed to be her husbands property, and that they took the things unmolested while Mary Johnson and others were having a wake over the body of Cornelius Johnson, and that she and not White has the things.

The Justice of the Peace satisfuing himself that the colored woman was the wife of Cornelius Johnson (colored) deceased and the pretended wife and widow Mary Johnson(White) failing to identify anything in the possession of Henry White dismissed the case.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient Servant

Dear Sir.

Governor Abbott has declined to sign warrant for extradition of Henry White, as requested by requisition issued last week by Governor Hill. His reasons for so declining are stated in a letter, a copy of which is matter as you may deem

of No. 16 1/2 Downing Street, aged 26 years,
occupation washing and ironing being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the eleventh day of December 1889, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, one Harry White did feloniously steal take and carry away one suit of clothes of the value of fifty dollars, a watch and chain of the value of one hundred and fifty dollars, and ten raven tickets representing property worth about one hundred and fifty dollars, ^{and a satchel of the value of two dollars} said property belonging to me as the widow of Nicholas Johnson, deceased.

Said White occupied a furnished room at the above address, and on said day while deponent was absent attending her husband's funeral, ~~one Josephine~~ ~~Allen~~ and Mary Jackson, saw him carrying ~~out~~ a quantity of goods consisting of a satchel and two bundles out of deponent's room and take the same to his own room on the floor above. Said White was seen by Josephine Allen to bring said articles into his room and lay them on a bed therein, and afterwards
a young man named Frank residing in the same house and occupying the same room with White, saw him said White put the said goods in his White trunk.

Deponent caused said White to be arrested at Asbury Park New Jersey on the 14th instant, and on a search warrant which was issued on deponent's information, a suit of clothes, a set of studs and a pair of kid gloves and other property were found (a watch worth five dollars belonging to deponent). But because deponent could not identify the property the same was returned to said White, and he was discharged from custody.

Furthermore on being brought before the Justice
who issued the warrant said White admitted stealing said property and said he had distributed the same among various persons.
