Police Court—3rd District.City and County } ss.: of New York,of No. 44 Hester Street, aged 38 years, occupation dry goods being duly sworndeposes and says, that the premises No. 44 Hester Street, 10 Wardin the City and County aforesaid the said being a tenement building, the 2nd floor and basement of and which was occupied by deponent as a dry goods business and in which there was at the time a large amount of propertywere BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaching the hasp on the doors leading to said basement thereby detaching the fastenings of said cellar doorson the 9th day of March 1887 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:Two (2) rolls of brussels carpet, of the value ofSixty (60) Dollarsthe property of deponentand deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away byIsaac Garbinov and John Scott (both now here) who acted in concert and each other for the reasons following, to wit:

Deponent says, — said property was contained in the basement of said premises which basement doors and were securely fastened, deponent having made an examination of the premises before retiring and when at 7 am of Mon^g he went to said basement he elicited that said basement had been forcibly entered as afosaid, and said property taken, stolen and carried away. Deponent further says- he is informed by Officer Peter J. Donnell of the 11th Precinct, that at about 5³⁰ AM on June 9th he saw defendants together with a wagon acting suspiciously on Essex Market Place, and when said Officer approached, they ran away. Deponent further says- he is further informed by said Officer, that in said wagon were two rolls of carpet which was abandoned by defendants in the manner aforesaid, and which carpet deponent identifies as the missing property. Deponent further says- he is further informed by said Officer, that he sought after defendants, and subsequently saw and arrested them. Wherefore, Deponent charges defendants with burglary, entering said premises, and taking, stealing and carrying away said property from defendants' possession.

grand larceny in the second degree and receiving stolen goods

Court of General Sessions, Part I.

Before Judge Fitzgerald. March 24th. 1891.

Indictment for burglary in the third degree,

Abraham Kernup, sworn and examined, testified: Where is your place of business? No. 44, Keester street. What is your business? Dry goods, oil cloth and carpet. What kind of a building do you occupy, how many stories? It is five stories high. How many floors do you occupy? The basement and the first floor. How do you enter the basement from the street, are there doors there? Yes sir. You descend steps? Yes, a couple of steps. How are those doors fastened? By an iron bar and a lock on. What did you keep in the basement on the 9th of March? I keep oil cloth and carpet in the basement and in the store I keep dry goods. What day of the week was this that you locked the place up? I closed up on Saturday night the 9th of March; on Monday morning I was up and the door was broke. What Ward is your store in do you know? In the Tenth Ward of the city of New York. What was the value of the property in the basement and in the store? Eight or nine hundred dollars. What was the value of the property you lost? Sixty dollars. What was it, what kind of carpet? Brussels carpet - fifty yards in one roll and thirty five yards in the other. What time did you get to your store Monday morning? About seven o'clock in the morning. What did you find? I found the door was broken open. I did not find the lock, it was gone; the door was closed. Was that all right when you went away Saturday night? Yes. There was nothing missing only the two rolls of carpet. The lock and the iron bar were gone. Did you ever see your two pieces of carpet since that you missed out of your cellar? I got them in the station house from the policeman two days after. That was a portion of the property I left in my store the night I went away.

Peter J. Donnelly, sworn and examined, testified: I am a police officer connected with the eleventh precinct. Did you arrest the defendants? Yes, I arrested one of them, Garbins. Where did you arrest him? In a pool room in the Bowery. What time? About nine o'clock on the evening of the 9th, Monday night. What did you arrest him for? On suspicion of stealing this carpet. I arrested him and took him to the station house and made the accusation that he stole this carpet from 44 Hester street. He says, "you have got me now, why dont you get Scotty?" We went back and looked in the saloon, and I guess there was about a hundred men in it and I looked around to see if I could find Scott and I could not see him at the time.

I brought Garbino to the station house. You knew who he meant by Scotty did you? Yes sir. Then and under what circumstances had you seen Garbino and Scott? There is a small street running from Ludlow to Essex street, they call it Essex Market Place, and about between 5.30 and 5.45 in the morning of the 9th I saw them standing on the corner of Essex Market Place and Ludlow street. What were they (Garbino and Scott) standing near? A covered wagon. What was it used for? The man that keeps a stand in Essex Market Place keeps it for serving his customers with fish. Was there any horse before the wagon? No sir. This wagon was standing in front of this man's place of business? Yes. That is your beat there, is it? Yes. You were passing along there at the time? Yes. What were those men doing when you first saw them? Standing by the wagon. Had you passed along there that morning? About an hour before. Had you seen anything in the wagon? The wagon was standing there I did not look in it. You saw no men at that time? No sir. But when you came there between half past five and a quarter to six you were attracted by seeing these two men standing there? Yes sir. What did you do? Garbino ran through this small street and Scott was on the corner. There was a man bringing a horse down the street, and as he brought the horse down the street I was just opposite the horse, he ran down to the man who was bringing the horse down and spoke to him. I kind of had a suspicion of what was in the wagon. I went over to it and saw the carpet, and I called Scott to come back again and he ran away. You went up to the wagon and looked in, what did you see in it? Two rolls of carpet in this covered wagon.

 Was the carpet open or was it in a box? No, the small roll was stuck in the barrel and the large roll had a piece of something on it. You called Scott? I asked him to come back and he ran through Boorne st. What became of the other man? He ran through the small street, what they call Essex Market Place. How far is it from No. 44 Kester street to where the wagon was? About four blocks. Then the next time you saw these two men was when - Garbino that night?
 When the Captain told me to put on my citizen's clothes and go out and see if I could find him. Was the next time you saw him when you arrested him? Yes sir.
 When was the next time you saw Scott?
 I told a brother officer in case he came across Scott to bring him into the station.

house. When did you see him? Three o'clock in the morning at the station house. Had you ever seen these boys, Garbins and Scott before? I saw Garbins every day regularly and Scott I met once or twice a week. They play around Broome, Ludlow and Orchard streets. I know them by sight. Did you go to this store of the complainant? No sir; in the morning this man came to the station house and said he was robbed. Did you go to his store at any time? Yes sir. Did you notice the condition of the lock? The staple that the iron bar fastens on was wrenched off. Describe the condition of that door to the jury? There is an iron bar about as long as my arm goes through the eye which is fastened by the lock and this eye was wrenched off. Is that the entrance to the basement? Yes sir to the cellar.

By a juror How heavy was this carpet of fifty yards? One roll was I should judge sixty or seventy pounds and the other one I guess about thirty five pounds.

By another juror. How far was Scott from you when you called him? The length of this room. He spoke to this gentleman that was bringing the horse down, and then I halloed to him to come back, and when I said, "Come back," he ran away. I saw the defendant Garbins regularly every day.

The Case for the Defence.

Isaac Garbino, sworn and examined, testified. Where do you reside? No. 141 East Broadway. How long have you resided there? I could not tell you, three or four years. With whom do you live there? My parents. What is your business? Working in a basket factory. For whom did you work last? I was working for an expressman No. 44 Ludlow Street, he keeps his office down there - he keeps his wagon down there. Did you have anything to do with the commission of this larceny? No sir. Did you take these rolls of carpet out of this complainant's premises? No sir. I was not out that night at all. I was never near that place. The officer states that he saw you on the corner of Ludlow and Essex streets or Essex Place? No. He never saw me any place there at all. Did you run away from him in that place? No sir. I was never near that place that day, that morning what he says. "You were arrested by the officer and were taken to the station house? Yes sir. You heard the officer make the statement that you said, 'you have got me now, why dont you get Scotty?'" No sir; he said to me, "Where is Scotty?" I said, "What is the matter with Scotty? I dont know nothing about it." He said, "I will get Scotty yet." But you made no statement of that kind to the officer? No sir.

By the Court. Were you out that morning at five o'clock? I was out for papers. Did you see Scott that morning? No sir, I never seen him until around twelve o'clock. I think, I seen him in a pool room.

Cross Examined. Where were you at work on the Saturday before this? I was not working. You were not working? No sir. The Friday before? No sir. I was not working. The Thursday before? No sir. The whole week before that? I cannot tell you what day it was I left that job. I was not working. Was it a week before that? No sir. When were you at work last? were you working in December or January last? Yes sir, in January. You are sure you worked this year? Yes sir. For whom? Morris Ely No. 44 Ludlow street. Doing what? Working on a wagon. I was getting three dollars and a half a week with him. What made you leave him? It was too hard work for me. I had to go to the corner of Thomas and Church streets and take out a lot of work, it was too heavy for me, I could not do it. So since you left him you had not been employed by anybody? No sir. How old are you? I am eighteen years old. Are you well? Yes sir. Do you deny that you were there that Monday ^{morning} ~~night~~ at this wagon where the officer saw you? I was not near that place at all. You were not at this fish wagon? No sir, I did not go on the fish wagon, I don't know nothing about the fish wagon. You heard the officer testify that you were standing by this fish wagon where this carpet was found? He did not see me. I was down town maybe round the Bowery with papers What kind of papers? News, Worlds, Journals, that is all. Where did you buy the papers that morning? I bought them off the World wagon I think. How many papers did you buy? I bought 25 or 26. Where were they bought? Down town, I cannot tell you what place it was. I had money of my own, "the old woman" gave it to me. Who is the old woman?

My mother. Where did she give you the money?
That week she did not give me any, but my aunt gave it to me. Who gave you money for the papers? I loaned it off my aunt; it was the afternoon before this officer arrested me. What is your aunt's name?
Mrs. Brusick, No. 46 Allen street. Had you ever sold papers before? Yes sir, the same kind, the News, the World and the Sun.
How many times had you sold newspapers I only sold them that morning. That morning you had bought papers and started your paper route? Yes sir. Who was with you when you bought the papers? Nobody. Where did you buy them, buy them from the wagon did you? The Wald wagon. I bought the journals off the fellow by the Sun office; there was a fellow standing there and I bought them from him.

John Scott, sworn and examined, testified.
 By Counsel How old are you, John? Going on eighteen.
 Where do you reside? No. 28 Goerck street.
 With whom? My mother. On the morning the officer states he saw you, or the night where were you? I was at Essex Market fish place. I was going to work at that time for Mr. Cornell, a fish man. You made application to him that morning for work? Yes. I asked his son where was a man named Duran? He said down at the stable. The officer came over, and he said, "Is this the boy?" and then he walked away. He did not make any effort to arrest me, and he called me and I walked down to the stable. You did not run? No sir, I did not. Was this boy with you that time, the other defendant? No sir, I did not see him from about half past eleven o'clock that night. You had not seen him at all that morning? No sir. He was not with you any time that morning? No sir, not that morning. Did you have anything to do with the commission of this burglary or larceny?

0828

No sir. I did not. Did you take these pieces of carpet out and put them in this trunk?
No sir. I had nothing to do with that.

Cross Examined by Mr. Townsend. Where were you at work on the Saturday before this Monday? The Saturday before that I was not working; last Thursday I left my place. So Friday you were not at work? No sir. But on Thursday you were at work? Yes sir. Where were you at work? St. George. Fourth avenue. What does he do? A printing place. What is the name of the proprietor? That is the name of it, St. George.
What is the name of the gentleman who owns the place? E. S. St. George. How long had you been there? I had been there, I think two weeks.
How much were you paid? I was paid three dollars a week. Doing what? Stamping and learning the printing trade; that is what he hired me for. I was at work before that in Ridley's - no, before that I was in McConnell's soda water place. Where is that? That is in Suffolk street. What kind of soda water business, manufacturing soda? Yes sir. What were you doing there? I was shining the heads of seltzer water bottles. What did you get for doing that? I got $3.50 a week. What made you leave there? I got burned all over the face with oil of vitriol. What made you leave the printing establishment? I did not like it; there was all girls in the part I was in. I was the only boy there. Is Mr. St. George here? No sir, not as I know of. Does he know you have been arrested? No sir, I seen no one. I left him that Thursday. How much did he pay you? He paid me three dollars - Mr. St. George. I got $3.50 at Mr. Cornell's. You say the last time you saw Garbins was half past eleven o'clock on Sunday night? Sunday night. I am not sure it was half past eleven o'clock. Where were you? I was in the pool room in the Bowery. Who owns the pool room? I do not know what his name is; it is right between Broome and Delancey streets. You saw him in there? Yes sir, I seen him in there then. What were the two doing? I was sitting down playing pool and talking with some one at the table; he said he was going down for papers. That is the last I seen of him that night.

By the Court What time was that? Around eleven o'clock.
By Mr. Townsend Do you usually spend your evenings in there? No sir, it was about the third night I was there. This was Sunday night? Yes sir. From there where did you go? I stayed there until kind of late. How late twelve or one? Some where around one o'clock; there was no use going home because I was going to work at five o'clock in the morning. You stayed there until after one o'clock, you were going down to work in the fish market Cornell's? Yes sir. You thought you would go down there leisurely? Yes, it was about 5:30 I seen his son, his son is not here. I have not sent for him.

By the Court Did you stay out all night? Yes sir. I was staying outside until a quarter to five, I left there. Where were you standing? Outside the pool room all the time. All alone? Yes, all alone. Where do you live? I live 28 Goert street. Why didn't you go home and go to bed? I thought it was no use going home at that time.

Counsel That is our case.

Mr. Townsend. That is our case.

Counsel summed up on both sides after which the Court charged the jury. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

A POLICEMAN SHOOTS A RUFFIAN.

THE OFFICER'S LIFE THREATENED BY A CROWD
—THE WOUNDED MAN MAY DIE.

A woman complained to Policeman George E. Jones, of the East Twenty-second-st. station, last evening that she had been insulted by a crowd of young men who were standing in East Eighteenth-st., near Avenue A. The officer walked up to the young men and ordered them to disperse. They swore at the officer and tried to make him move. The officer drew his stick and caught hold of Patrick Geoghan, of No. 279 Avenue A, who is an ex-convict and desperate character. Geoghan resisted the officer and called upon his friends to assist him.

In the crowd was Thomas Geoghan, a brother of the prisoner, who drew a revolver and rushed at the policeman. The officer held the prisoner in front of him and Geoghan was afraid to fire. The prisoner struggled so hard that he turned the policeman around, and this gave Geoghan a chance and he fired two or three shots. No one was struck, as far as can be learned, although there was a crowd in the neighborhood, which had been attracted by the rapping of the officer's club on the sidewalk for assistance. The officer, when he saw that the odds were against him, drew his pistol and flourished it threateningly at Geoghan and his friends. They were not frightened at this, and Geoghan and Thomas Downey pressed the officer closely and the latter took aim at Geoghan, who was nearest to him, and fired. Both Geoghan and Downey ran away when the officer fired.

Policemen Doyle and Robinson responded to Jones's raps for aid. They searched the neighborhood for Downey and Geoghan. They found Geoghan in hiding in a room at No. 427 East Eighteenth-st. The ball from the officer's pistol had struck him in the abdomen. An ambulance was called and the wounded man was removed to Bellevue Hospital. The house surgeon said that the wound was serious and that the chances were that it would prove fatal. Thomas Geoghan was locked up at the East Twenty-second-st. station and the police are looking for Downey.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } ss:
of New York,

Catharine Bonhard
 of No. 16 Pitt Street, aged 29 years, occupation. Keeps house being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 7th day of March 1891 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

A pocketbook, containing keep, and good and lawful moneys of the United States of the value of one dollar, all of said property being of the value of Two (2) Dollars

the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Bernard Goldstein (now here) for the reasons following, to wit:

Deponent says—about 10 PM of said date she was walking on Delancey Street, and had said pocketbook containing said property in the pocket of a dress worn on her person at the time, and feeling a tug at said pocket, turned and saw defendant with said pocketbook in his hand which he returned to her.

Deponent further says—she is informed by Nathan Gottlieb 61 Delancey Street, that he saw
