any more?

A I gave a silver dollar to the girl and
two dollars to a man

Q You spent five dollars
before this happened; how much did you spend
the second time?

A I gave
her three ($3.00) dollars
and spent $1.50 for drinks

Q You spent about $9?

A About $8,

Q Explain what you did with the $8. Gold?

A I "chucked" it into the street. I do not know

Q Where it went to? What is your business?

A Workman, I go
peddling.

Q And you say
you had three hundred dollars?

A Yes Sir.
You spent $8. and that leaves $292 and you
threw away $80. now
then - can you come here
and swear that you
were robbed of $226,
had it increased?

I am the complainant in the above entitled matter, and have read the statement made by Mr. Stallknecht, my counsel, and hereto annexed, and the same is true and in accordance with my views, as I now understand the matter.

I believe that the defendants in doing the acts complained of believed that <sup>they</sup> were engaged in a legitimate transaction and would not have acted as they did had they realized that they were violating the laws of this State and committing a felony.

I have known the defendant Gouat since his childhood and up to this affair believed him to be honest and straightforward. The defendant Beraud, has arranged to repay me the money which he procured from me.

I believe that they have been sufficiently punished and recommend them to the mercy of the Court in the belief that the ends of justice will be served by their discharge on their own recognizance and that henceforth they will be honest and useful members of society.

Jean Gouat and Gustav Beraud.

H. S. Stallknecht, No. 5 Beekman Street.

I am a member the firm of Stallknecht & Coudert of Counsel, for Jean Dumay, the complainant in the above-entitled matter and represented him in the Police Court.

I have fully investigated this case, and find the facts to be substantially as follows:     ~~He~~Henrie Dumay, who is a son of the complainant came to this country from France and together with the defendant Gouat boarded at the house of the defendant, Beraud.     Beraud's wife and Henri Dumay fell in love with each other and eloped. Beraud and Gouat, who was a friend of the senior Dumay, entered into a telegraphic correspondence with the complainant and informed him that his son was a thief and that it would require Six Thousand Francs to save him, this telegram reading as follows:

"Henri a thief. Most despicable. Arrested. Send by telegram Six Thousand Francs. Your honor will be saved Beraud will stop prosecution. He will fix the matter.
Twelve hours delay from Police. Letter follows. "

Gouat.

On these representations the complainant cabled Six Thousand and Francs to Beraud. The telegrams did not mention the elopement.

The defendants are both Frenchmen, but very imperfectly acquainted with the English language, ~~and~~ extremely nervous and excitable men and not in any sense business men.

I am satisfied from my study of the case that the defendants had no intention of wronging any one or of stealing anything, but considered<sup>ed</sup> that this was an entirely proper way of recovering damages for Beraud's loss of his wife, and obtaining repayment of the expense to which he was put in his attempt to ascertain her whereabouts and secure the necessary evidence for divorce proceedings. The defendant Beraud has expressed his willingness to return to the complainant, who is a poor man, the amount obtained from him as above stated.

The defendant Beraud, is, I believe, a respectable man, he was chief cook for Mr. William W. Astor, of this City and is spoken of by Mr. Astor as an honest, straightforward man.

The defendant Gouat, is a journeyman fresco painter and well thought of by those who have employed him.

I believe that had these men known that in doing the act complained of they were committing a crime they would not have done what they did. Beraud was driven nearly crazy by his wife's actions and Gouat simply acted as a friend of Beraud's and <sup>of</sup> Henri Dumay.

Beraud in accounting for the money received by him shows that a great proportion of it was spent by him for detectives.

III

detectives and counsel fees. Gouat did not receive any of the money.

These men have been confined in the Tombs for two or three weeks and have been seriously punished by the imprisonment already received.

WHEREFORE I would most earnestly recommend them to the mercy of this Court and I do sincerely believe that there being no moral guilt in the matter and the men not strictly criminals, although in this instance they did do wrong, justice would best be served by their discharge on their own recognizance.

for Grand Larceny we would say that Berand has made full and satisfactory
restitution to the complainant, our client,
Mr. Jean Dumay.

After a thorough examination of the facts we are convinced that the defendants do not belong to the criminal class and that the two months imprison-

enough punishment and that the ends
of justice will be served by setting them
at liberty on their own recognizances.

My dear Senator:

I would be indebted to you if you would kindly look into the case of Pas. v. Berand & Bonch. There is a desire to compromise the case & enter a prosequi - and it seems to me to be an eminently proper case for such a course. The defendants have suffered about six weeks of imprisonment, besides a term which is well calculated to deter them from entering into the criminal class, & which they do not in reality belong to. The present offence being apparently an initial one - Berand is a work of hands, I believe a painter by occupation - The complainant, Darnay, came all the way from France to prosecute, but the sum of 6000 francs, which he was defrauded - about 6000 francs, is an important one to him, & justice & equity would alike be advanced in my opinion, by securing a compromise. Your assistance is available to take the responsibility, & I have promised I would do what I could to get you to look into it.

This will be handled by Mr. Stan. Tompkins, who represents the prison. I will supplement my statement - I remain,

custody and confined upon a charge
thereof; that it was then necessary
for the said Jean Dumay to pay
an amount equal to
the sum of six thousand francs

in lawful money of the French Republic in order to secure the release of the said Henry Dumay and his discharge from such custody and confinement, and to secure a withdrawal of such prosecution: and that by the payment of said amount the release of the said Henry Dumay and his discharge from confinement, and a withdrawal and end of such prosecution could be properly and lawfully secured.

And the said Jean Dumay —

then and their believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Jean Dupont and Eugene Berard —

and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Jean Dupont and Eugene Berard,

The sum of seven hundred and forty eight <sup>and thirty two cents</sup> dollars, in money and money of the United States, and of the value of seven hundred and forty eight <sup>and thirty two cents</sup> dollars, —

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Jean Dumay —

And the said Jean Dupont and Eugene Berard, did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said Jean Dumay —

by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Jean Dumay —

of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to their own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Henry Dumay had not then lately been guilty of any crime and was not then being prosecuted therefor, and was not then in custody or confined upon a charge thereof, and it was not then necessary for the said Jean Dumay to pay an amount equal to the sum of six thousand francs in lawful money of the said French Republic or any amount whatever, in order to secure the release of the said Jean Dumay or his discharge from such custody and confinement or to procure a withdrawal of such prosecution, and the release of the said Jean Dumay and his discharge from confinement, and a withdrawal and end of such prosecution could not be properly and lawfully secured by a payment of said amount; —

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Jean Dumay and Eugene Berand to the said Jean Dumay — was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as they the said Jean Dumay and Eugene Berand at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Jean Dumay and Eugene Berand — in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Jean Dumay —

then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.
