v.

Antoine Scharpf

alias

John Scharf

Court of General Sessions, Part I.

Before Judge Cowing.

April 24, 1885.

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Julius Gold sworn. I live 1099 Third Avenue and on the 5th of February was in the city of New York; the prisoner was in my employment, he came to me in February to work and he left me Sunday night, the 2nd of March; after he left I missed ready made clothing, I value the goods I lost at $125 and what I recovered was worth sixty or sixty-five dollars. I lost about half a dozen pairs of trousers and discover four pairs which were worth six or seven dollars a pair; the two vests were worth three dollars and a half a piece, a cardigan jacket, $2.50 and a black alpaca coat $1.50. I did not see anybody take the goods; the detective got me back part of the property; I saw a pair of pants and vest of mine on the prisoner; the officer asked him where he got those and he said he stole them from Mr. Gold; the rest of the property was found in his trunk, I went down with the officer and he opened the trunk and found the goods which I recognized. The officer took him to the 69th Street station house and he said he stole them from Mr. Gold. I paid the prisoner four dollars a week and his board and sleeping. My wife is not here, she knows nothing of the case. I paid the prisoner every Saturday night. I swear that the six pair of trousers cost me seven dollars each; some of the cloth cost $3.50, $3.75 and $4.00 per yard, it was diagonal cashmere and mixed goods. When the prisoner left I did not owe him any wages.

CONFIDENTIAL - SECURITY MATTER

Samuel J. Campbell sworn. I am an officer belonging to the 23th precinct and I arrested the prisoner. Did you make a search for this property? On the day before he was arrested he was boarding in a locksmith's place; this man was sleeping in there with him, I went in and asked the locksmith to open his trunk, he opened his trunk and I took out the property which is described, I then arrested the prisoner the next day, I laid for him that evening, he came that evening and he ran away. I met him next day and I asked him where this trunk was and asked him if it was his trunk and he said it was; he had a German there with him and the locksmith who was his friend asked him if it was his trunk and he said it was. I asked him where he got this property? He said he got them from Mr. Gold, he took them from time to time and locked them up. There was four pairs of pants and a vest which he had on, he also admitted that he took them from Gold. He used the words, I stole it from Mr. Gold. I saw a pair of trousers on him which were claimed by the previous witness as his. Do you know anything more about this case? That is all I know about it.

Cross Examined. I am not a German and understand very little of the language, I think I would understand enough to know what the defendant said to the locksmith. I can swear that I understood the word, stole; the locksmith is not in court, the conversation was carried on in German, Mr Gold was present both times, Mr Gold was not the interpreter, the locksmith questioned him about the goods, Mr Gold turned around and told me in English what the answers to the locksmith's questions were. It was translated to me that he had stolen this property.

[illegible]

John Scharf sworn and examined in his own behalf.

I have been acquainted with the complainant Gold since the beginning of January, 1885. Were you in Gold's employ? Yes. How long? Nine weeks. In what capacity? As a tailor and I also cleaned the store. What was the agreement as to compensation between you and Gold? The first week he gave me an undershirt and a pair of drawers and the next week a dollar and so on a dollar every week. How much did you get altogether in money for the nine weeks? Seven dollars in money for the nine weeks. How much was the agreement made by you and Gold when you went into his employ? He said, I will do all that is possible for you so that you can exist. At the time of your arrest was there found in your possession four pair of pants, two vests, one cardigan jacket, one alpaca coat and some buckles and buttons? yes. I got only one dollar a week and I had to pay my own washing out of it, then there was nothing left to me, I had to apply to his wife, I said to her it is not just that Mr gold treats me that way, I am wearing out my clothes. She said, well be quiet I will do what is possible for you, don't say anything to anyone because he cannot be changed, I have myself to do my best to get along with him. Eight days later she gave me four pairs of pants and a vest and said, don't betray me, don't say anything because I will have quarrel with my husband. I took the things to the locksmith and asked him to keep them for me, I did not receive any coats. I said before the Magistrate I was not guilty because I did not want to betray the woman.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Eva Suckles

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The complaint I made against the above defendant was founded on the information of a man named Seraggs. Since making the complaint I have investigated the matter and found that Seraggs is unworthy of belief. And I desire to withdraw my complaint.

Re. Stolen Goods

City and County of New York SS:

John J. McAdams, being duly sworn deposes and says:
that he is the complianant in the above case; that since he has made the said complaint in the above case, he has learned and believes that said goods were left at the store of the above named defendant, and not sold as alleged or any consideration given therefor. That he has investigated the said Eva Zeickles character and finds that she bears an excellent reputation for truth and honesty, and has been in business for thirteen years and was never arrested before; and that when the detectives came to her store, she made no effort at concealment.

For these reasons I desire to withdraw said com-
