Mr. Bernard Reilly, of 8 Madison St. N.Y. City, testifies:-

I happened to be passing, on my way down to work, with a helper, and I saw the defendant strike the news-dealer at least three times with an umbrella. The last blow he struck him was when the officer held him. There were two officers, and the other one was pushing the defendant away, and wanted the news-dealer to attend to his business, and to "keep cool." The first time he struck Mr. Brennan, he hit him a swinging blow on the <sup>side of the head near the</sup> left temple, holding the umbrella by the ferrule end; it had a metal handle, which I saw flash in the light. Joseph Brennan, newsdealer at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Corner Chambers St & W. Broadway testifies on his own behalf:-

I, Joseph Brennan, of the city and county of New York, conduct a newspaper business at the above address, and do state that on the thirteenth of April 1893, at about 3.<sup>30</sup> pm. while attending to my business was called upon by one Michael Ryan, and savagely assaulted. He dealt me a swinging blow with a heavily mounted umbrella which I fortunately warded off, by raising my left hand. Receiving the blow on my wrist, and side of my head, the effects of the blow discolored my wrist and also raised a large lump on the side of my head.

The said Ryan afterward struck two or more blows at me, without much effect, until a policeman came and dragged and pushed him away.

Affidavit

Joseph Brennan, newsdealer at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Corner Chambers St & W. Broadway testifies on his own behalf:-

I, Joseph Brennan, of the city and county of New York, conduct a newspaper business at the above address, and do state that on the thirteenth of April 1893, at about 3.<sup>30</sup> pm. while attending to my business was called upon by one Michael Ryan, and savagely assaulted. He dealt me a swinging blow with a heavily mounted umbrella which I fortunately warded off, by raising my left hand. Receiving the blow on my wrist, and side of my head, the effects of the blow discolored my wrist and also raised a large lump on the side of my head.

The said Ryan afterward struck two or more blows at me, without much effect, until a policeman came and dragged and pushed him away.

Affidavit

Mr. Fred. A. Hart, commission merchant, 286 Greenwich St. testifies:-

I was stopping at the corner, there being a blockade of trucks &c on the street, and heard loud talking at the newsstand, which attracted my attention. And I saw this man strike the newsdealer over the head with an umbrella. It happened all in a moment. I cannot swear that he struck him 3 times, but I think he did. Anyhow, I saw ~~him~~ the handle drop off the umbrella from the blow. Then a policeman separated the two.

I asked him if he was hurt, and he took off his ~~hat~~ and showed me he had a lump on the side of his head.

Affidavit

Busso Bernardo, who lives at 68 Baxter St, through an interpreter deposes:-

I saw the two men discussing a matter which I did not understand. But ~~after~~ under the impulse of the moment I saw the defendant draw back and come forward a couple of steps and strike the plaintiff a swinging blow, which if it had hit him as intended would have knocked him senseless. However he partly warded it off, by raising his hand, which may have saved his life. The policeman, after this blow drew the defendant away.

Competing houses may sometimes, for an object, cut under our prices, but in the long run we have found that where our customers bought at less than our figures they found a difference in quantity or quality, which explained the difference in price. Our motto is: "LOWEST PRICES CONSISTENT WITH GOOD QUALITY AND HONEST QUANTITY."

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Michael Ryan

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself, but, only, and that I am willing to believe that said defendant committed upon me the injury of which I complained, and deemed it my duty, as a citizen, to complain, in the heat of passion, and because I believe said defendant to be repentant, and that he, hereafter, will conduct himself peaceably and in good order, and, further, because of my sympathy for said defendant's family, and because I have been much moved by the grief of his wife. In view of these circumstances, I am willing to waive, so far as I can, my personal grievance, and leave the matter to the discretion of the Honorable Court, and the Honorable District Attorney.
