Court of General Sessions, Part I
Before Judge Martine.
Thursday, December 4, 1890

Indictment for attempt at grand larceny in first degree

Bernard J. Molloy, sworn. I am a police officer of the Fourth precinct and know Harry Ross since this occurrence. I saw him on the night of the 21st of November 1890 and saw the defendants at the same time at No. 20 Oliver street on the stoop up in the doorway about seven o'clock in the evening. I was on post when a woman told me that a man was getting robbed. I ran up and saw these two defendants holding Harry Ross up against the door jamb, each of them by the arm and each had a hand in his pocket. Robinson, the colored man, jumped off the stoop as soon as he saw me, and I grabbed him on the sidewalk; the other man attempted to jump off, I threatened, and he stopped; he said he was a friend of his (the defendant) and he was taking him home. I rapped for assistance and my brother officer and I took the two of them into the station house. Nothing was said on the way to the station house. I searched them and found nothing on them except that I found a razor in Breslin's vest pocket. I found nothing on the other one. Neither of them said anything that I recollect. I saw Breslin's hand in Ross' pocket, he was on the right side of him and Robinson had him on the other. (The witness illustrated on a Court officer the way the defendants held the complainant Ross.) It was in Ross' pantaloons' pockets that they had their hands in. Ross was stupidly drunk, he could not do anything. I took him to the station house to and locked him up. I searched him and found a couple of keys and a few Chinese pennies. Afterwards made complaint against the defendants at the Police Court. Had no conversation with them after the arrest. They gave no explanation of it. It was dark when this occurrence took place. There is a party by the name of Savage who lives at No. 20 Oliver St; there are several tenants in that building. I believe Savage told me that Ross had a furnished room there. I don't know it as a fact. I know the defendants do not live there. I did not say to my brother officer when he came to my assistance that it was a case of burglary.

Harry Ross sworn. I am a manufacturer of starch glass. I remember starting out on the 21st of November. I left home at four o'clock. I left the saloon at six o'clock in the evening corner of Mott st. and Chatham Square. From what I understand I was drunk at that time. I do not remember anything that took place. I remember starting across Chatham Square and I suppose I got to Oliver St. I was in the station house when I came to myself. I could not say what time it was. It was the next morning when I woke up. I do not know the defendants. I was not in their company. I could not say whether I had any money. I live at 20 Oliver St. I generally carry the key of the front door in my trousers pocket. I have two keys, one for the front door and the other for my bedroom. I had them in my pocket when I was at the station house.

Neil Breslin, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live at No. 9 Bowery and am a sailor. I remember the night when I met Mr. Ross. I was walking down Oliver St. on the night in question and saw Mr. Ross, he was staggering up against the stairs at

No. 20 Oliver St. A woman stepped up to me and said, "Will you take that man up stairs?" I then caught hold of the gentleman's arm, I led him up the stairs. I knocked at the door and asked the woman who came to the door if this man lived there. My object in taking hold of him was to do him a favor, to see that he would not hurt himself; he was falling all over himself. I led him up the stairs and knocked at the door; the woman came to the door. I was going to take the man up stairs. I put him in his own doorway. He told me he lived at 20 Oliver St. and he had two keys in his hand, and the woman says, "Take him up stairs." There was three other gentlemen on the stoop. Then a policeman came running up. Robinson was on the sidewalk. I don't know who the other men were. The policeman came running up and he caught hold of the colored fellow (Robinson) and he rapped for assistance. Another officer came up and said, "What's the matter, Tern?" He (Molloy) said, "It is a case of burglary." After he gave Robinson into the custody

Of the other officer he came up and got hold of me. At the time he got hold of me Ross was leaning up against the banister and two other men had hold of him in his own house 26 Oliver St. I was in the hallway. A woman opened the door and she said the man lived on the second or third story. It is not a fact what the officer testified to that he saw me and the colored prisoner with our hands in the trousers pocket of Mr. Ross. I was never before charged with crime.

Cross Examined. I am sure I have never been arrested before. I came from San Francisco. I left there on the 28th of February last. I went to Liverpool and from Liverpool went to Philadelphia and from there I came here. I was stopping at Flannery's hotel when I was arrested. I believe it is on Park Row and Mulberry St. I am stopping at the Irish at present. I generally stopped at No. 9 Bowery, a lodging house. When I had money to pay for my room I stopped there. I slept at No. 9 Bowery the night before I had my room paid for at Flannery's the night I got arrested. I don't know the number of the place, it is on the corner of Park Row. I did not give the number 198 at the Police Court; some officer gave that number. I did not say in the Police Court that I had been living there for three weeks. I signed the paper now shown me in the Police Court. The clerk asked anybody if they knew the number of the house (Plummer's) and some officer said he thought it was 198. I don't know how the clerk came to put down three weeks; maybe I said so and maybe I did not. I may have mentioned No. 9 Bowerly where I said it. I was stopping in No. 9 Bowerly over three weeks. I have been in New York since Sept. I have not been arrested from any of those lodging houses. I have never had a charge of stealing made against me before I have been a seaman since last February. I started then for Liverpool from San Francisco. I came to New York on the 15th of September. I worked for Mr. Oliver in putting up a gymnasium for the Crescent Athletic Club in Brooklyn. He lives at 32 or 34 Rose St. New York. I do not see him in Court. I did not send for anybody to come to see me. He might not like to appear in Court and I did not want to give him any trouble. I have worked for Mr. Oliver three months. I had a razor on me when I was arrested, but no money.

I don't know whether or not there was any money found on the other prisoner. I am not his friend. I never met him before; he came with the crowd. It is not true what the officer said that while I was holding Ross with one hand in his right pocket the colored fellow had hold of Ross' left arm with one hand in his left pocket. I did not attempt to run when the officer arrested me. I never saw the officer before and he has no grudge against me. He said to his brother officer that it was a case of burglary.

Charles Robinson, sworn and examined. I am a cook and lived at No. 20 Bowery, the Old Tree lodging house. On the night I was arrested I was coming from the terminus of the Brooklyn bridge with a young lady about six o'clock and I came up to Park Row and Oliver st. I generally left her at the corner of Oliver and Madison St. but on this night I left her standing opposite this house. I saw a drunken man struggling up stairs, and I walked across the street. I saw a lady speak to this young fellow (Breslin) and he took the man up stairs, up the front steps I stood there with four or five others. He had hold of his left arm. At that time

I had my back turned to the officer when he came up. When I saw Breslin taking Ross up the door was open. I saw a lady standing with the door open, but I did not see her open it. It is not true that Breslin had one hand in Ross' trousers pocket and that I had another hand in the other pocket. I was never arrested before charged with crime. I was not on the stoop at all. I was talking to a couple of young fellows at least five feet away from the stairs when all of a sudden somebody grabbed me on the shoulder. I turned round and I saw Officer Molloy who arrested me. I was charged with highway robbery in the station house and I believe the charge in the Police Court was an attempt to rob.

Cross Examined. When I was arrested I lived at 20 Bowery, the old tree lodging house. I stayed at No. 9 Bowery four or five times. At the Police Court I said I was born in Butte City, California. Breslin said he was born in San Francisco. If Breslin ever stopped at No. 9 Bowery I did not know it. I did not lay my hands on Ross at all. I have been engaged as cook in lumber camps. I had $3.80 on my person when I was arrested. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an attempt at grand larceny in the first degree.

New York Dec. 23/90

Hon. Judge Corran

Dear Sir.

I am moved by a sense of my duty as a Clergyman to make an appeal to you in behalf of Mary Rossetti who appears before you to day.

I believe the theft was committed in a moment of sudden temptation. I know that she deeply regrets her crime & is truly penitent. On her return from Philadelphia to which place she fled after the robbery she sent for me & before her her arrest. Confessed her Crime.

assured me of her penitence & begged me to intercede with Mr Gordon on her behalf.

The sickness & sudden death
of Mr Gordon. prevented by so doing. But I do believe that Mr Gordon would gladly have done anything in his power to save the woman from a life of Crime. For these & other reasons. I beg your favor to deal as leniently
with her as your sense of Duty will admit. If I have overstepped the bounds of my duty in making this appeal
to your honor I beg you
to pardon me. & believe me

Court of General Sessions

The People
— against —
Nellie Ruchling

City and County of New York:

Nellie Ruchling being duly sworn deposes and says that she is 27 years of age, that on Oct 8-1882 she married John J. Ruchling at 55th Street & 1st Avenue, N.Y. City, or near there. That seven weeks after the marriage, her said husband commenced to cruelly beat and maltreat deponent, by striking her in the face with his fists, and punching her all over the body; & that for fear of being seen by other people, he kept deponent in the house for months at a time, and that she went ^{out} when so taken by her husband, except as herein after stated. That after her marriage, she lived with her husband for three months in the City, & the only time she would go out, ^{was} once or twice a week to see her mother, living in 49th Street and 3rd Avenue, N.Y. City. That deponent's face was constantly marked and bruised and blackened from the effects of the ill treatment sustained by her at the hands of her husband, & her mother has seen her in that condition. That deponent was a pure and virtuous girl at the time of her marriage, and she had never violated her marriage vow, except with Willie Fetch, her second husband, whom she thought she had a right to marry by reason of being abandoned by her first husband, and no support being given her.

That at the expiration of said three months
aforesaid after the time of her first marriage, she and her husband went to reside at Blissville, Long Island, and they have ~~been~~ lived there some five years.

That during ^{that time} they have lived in ~~various~~ ^{two} houses in that village. In the first house her husband was put out for disorderly conduct which consisted in abusing and beating the defendant, and that while beating defendant,
he would lock the doors of the rooms.

On one of these occasions some person in the house attempted to obtain admission, as defendant supposed to protect her from her husband, but he paid no attention and continued to beat her.

Subsequently to this her husband was ordered out and away from the house, and defendant was informed ^{by the landlady} that she could remain and live quietly on the premises.

This occurred a few months after their arrival in Blissville - Defendant was not allowed to remain ^{by her husband} & she went with him to another house in Blissville, La.

3/

At this last place after much continued ill-treatment and abuse, her nose was finally broken by her husband.

On this day of this occurrence, she fled from the house with her two children, coming over to her sister's house, corner of 34th St & 1st Avenue. Her sister is now dead, or she could have testified in her favor.

She remained with her mother three or four days & ~~remained~~ ^{returned} to Blissville, as she was without money and means; her sister was unable to support her and she had two children, besides being in the family way.

The ill-treatment continued upon her return. Until finally being driven away by his brutality and ill-treatment, she again came to her sister who supported her for nearly a year.

This was a year ago last June.

The year previous to this she had had her husband placed under bonds for her support, & she received some five dollars per week.

At the expiration of that year he took her back again.

In the meanwhile her two little children had 0530

died, but her husband did not ^{make her} aware of their death, but defendants thought they were in some institution, and defendant begged her husband to let her know when they were,

He refused, but informed her of their death
about a year after they had died.

The outrageous ill treatment continued upon her return, and for a year she suffered every degradation and every brutality.

It was her husband's custom and habit
by threats and menaces to tell her, to keep her always cowering in the house, and
"scared out of her life."

In June 1890, she ^{had been} so cruelly beaten and maltreated, that she came over to her mother's house for consolation.

The day after, she sent her little nephew to tell the landlady to tell her husband that she was not well, & that she would be over the next day.

The answer came back from the landlady that her husband was going away the next day to leave the house.

In the meantime he had left that same night,
taking everything with him, except defendant's trunk.

Defendant went over the next morning and

and found that her husband had left the house, not to return again.

Dipmunt had only pennies to return. She then went to her husband & asked him what he was going to do. He told her to go to "hell" that he didn't intend to do anything for her, she said she couldn't take her branks out. He then threw her 6s^d telling her to take her branks out, & abused her telling her to go upon the town and f---K for a living. He then shoved her out.

Dipmunt then came over & kept house for her brother-in-law.

She continued here until the month of July, when she met her second husband at her brother-in-law's house.

They fell in love with each other, and she thinking that she had a right to marry because of the abandonment and non support of her first husband, married her second husband, openly and publicly in a church.

That they have lived happily together; and she prays for mercy in this case.
