has always considered, and in fact knows him to be strictly honest and upright, and has frequently heard many others, speak of him in like matter.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

- Lena Watson -

(Sec. 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Fourth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the thirteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-~~eight~~ and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said

- Lena Watson -

on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

- Lena Watson -

(Section 385,
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said

Lena Watson

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the thirteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

— Lena Watson —

(Section 322
Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said Lena Watson

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the thirteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-Eight and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

turned to go out of said saloon when he was seized hold of and thrown down. Whilst prostrate the defendant Walsh held deponent down by holding his (deponent's) knee on his deponent's neck, whilst another man held his feet, the third man taking the said money from deponent's pocket.
When deponent attempted to leave said saloon the defendant Hart seized hold of deponent and attempted to prevent deponent from leaving. Deponent is informed by Officer McLaughlin here present that he saw the defendants walking on South Street followed by deponent.
When deponent called upon said officers to arrest them, they ran away.

him at Front St & over Street Rail brought him over to 108 South Street, and handed him over to another officer, and the sergeant and I went into the engine car at 108 South Street to see if we could find the man whom we saw receiving him and didn't go to him. We took the prisoner and the complainant to the Station House. We identified Walsh as the man who put his knee on his neck. We kept him down while another man robbed him of some money.

Q Were you there at the time that Hart and the complainant were there?

A Yes sir.

Q Describe what occurred there?
A After locking Walsh up in the Station House I leaving the complainant in the corridor I went out on foot and about store at 105 South Street. I arrested him. I took him to the station house.

Q/Now what occurred there?
A/The complainant was lying down in the corridor asleep. I saw him up. I brought him out to Short and he said he could not positively identify Short but he thought he was with the party. I the sergeant read him an my complaint of having ^{seen} him running.

Q/You were there when Draboney looked at Short. I asked to identify him?

A/Yes sir. To positively identify him.

Q/And you told Short to put his
