That after the complaint in this action was made I brought an Action in the Eleventh District Court of this City to recover the monies forming the subject matter of the Indictment herein. and that upon trial there had I became satisfied and convinced that no criminal intent existed in the mind of defendant to deprive me of the purchase money I paid him and it was clearly shown that out of said money the mortgage upon the shop. was satisfied and that the same was free & clear as the defendant agreed to sell the same and that after I had

Court of General Sessions

The People

v

Jacob Geck

Grand Larceny
2<sup>d</sup> degree.

John Puckler, 265 Tenth Avenue, barber. On the 9th of October 1888 I agreed with the defendant herein to purchase from him the chattels, fixtures and good will of the barber shop in 1442 Second Avenue and ~~paid~~ him for the sum of $950. I paid him on said day the sum of $50 and promised to pay him the balance of $900 on the day following. Before said purchase was finally agreed to and the said $50 were paid to the defendant, he did on three or four occasions in answer to my express questions, state to me that there was no mortgage or other lien on the said chattels etc, and that it was not necessary for me to inspect the records in the Register's Office. After the payment of the said $50 to the defendant; to wit: on the 10th of October, 1888, I caused an inspection of the records in the Register's Office to be made, with the result that two mortgages, one for $56 and another for $80 were found to exist on said barber store. A certified copy of the first one is among the papers herein. On informing the defendant of the said result, he denied all knowledge of the existence of said mortgages and refused to refund to me the said $50. But for defendant's assurance that there were no mortgages on said store, I would not have purchased the same and would not have paid to him the said $50.

Isaac Weeder

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ninth there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

John C. Mudd,

That the said Isaac Weeder was then the absolute and sole owner of the Barber business then being by him the said Isaac Weeder conducted and and there offered for sale to the said John Budd for the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars; and that the same were then and there and encumbrances whatsoever. —

And the said John Budd — then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said John Budd, by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said John Budd — of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Jack Weeda was not then the absolute and George Papa, 187 Park Row.

Fruits and Vegar Vendor. I keep a stand at said place. On Sunday, the 25th of November, 1888, at twelve o'clock in the night time I was with the defendant in the restaurant at No. 25 Roosevelt Street. I went to said place, for him in the hope of finding him there. He owed me $5 which I had loaned him.
I asked him there and there for the return of said money. He said he would not give it to me.
I asked him, why not. Instead of giving me an answer, he struck me with a soda water bottle which he held in his hand, on my right jaw and fractured the same. I was confined for four weeks at the Chambers Street Hospital, and I am still under medical treatment.

Jotixos J. H. Chochos, 116 Madison vember, 1888, at twelve o'clock at night, I was in the restaurant at No. 25 Roosevelt Street. The defendant was in the place before the complainant came in. The complainant asked the deft. for the return of $5. the deft. claimed not to know him at all and then struck him with a soda water bottle in the the defendant.

This Indictment was found in December 1888 - in January 10th 1889 - Defendant was tried - Jury disagreed 9 for con-viction - 3 for acquittal - The defense was an alibi -

June 16th 93

I have had a long interview with Mrs Sarah Kelly, who was one of the witnesses who swore to the alibi - She impressed me as being an intelligent - respectable woman, and one whom many juries might believe - The whereabouts of the couple - part are unknown - I am a defendant - I ask that the Dept be discharged in his own negligence.
