Rose (Blair)

The defendant in this case was tried & convicted of assault in the degree, before Recorder Dwyer. A motion was made before the Recorder to set aside the verdict as being against the weight of evidence, which motion was subsequently granted, since then every effort has been made to obtain additional evidence which upon which defendant was originally convicted, with no result.
In view of the fact that the learned Recorder set aside the former verdict no new evidence can be obtained I don't believe any conviction can be obtained upon another trial. I recommend that the indictment be dismissed.

Dear Sir,

1st Petition

We, the undersigned, beg leave to testify, before your Honor, in behalf of Frank Negro's honesty and good character.

He is a man well known to us, as a quiet, peaceful, citizen of the United States. He is a man whose word is entitled to belief.

Whereas the complainant is generally known as a bad man - a violent man - and whose brother - who was a witness against Frank Negro was obliged to leave Italy for his violent and evil conduct.

We believe that the little girl of complainant was compelled to testify as she did, by her father.

We believe, in the interest of justice, that imprisonment would not subserve the ends of justice in this case.

We believe Frank Negro to be entirely innocent of the crime charged.
We appeal to your Honor to

To take all these matters into consideration, in addition to the recommendation of mercy by the jury.

We would beg your Honor for all the clemency that may be granted by your Honor.

Even if a heavy fine should be imposed, it would spare to this defendant, the mortification and disgrace of a conviction by imprisonment.

Your prayers should be heeded, we would beg your Honor that sentence might be suspended.

We are convinced that the defendant - Pietro Furo - will bring to justice - Pietro - Furo - the perpetrator of the crime in question.

We all cheerfully join in signing this petition - giving our names and addresses and our occupations.

Frank Negro

City and County of New York:

Frank Negro being duly sworn deposes and says that he is the defendant above named; Defendant respectfully submits under Section 465 of the Code of Criminal Procedure that the verdict in this case was against the weight of evidence.

Furthermore, he makes this application also under subdivision 7 of said section aforesaid.

He submits all the affidavits herewith attached, and he alleges, that upon another trial, he can produce evidence such as if before received would probably have changed the verdict; that such evidence has been discovered since the trial and court accumulation; and his failure to produce it on the trial was not due

Tre want of diligence.

That the people who know defendant believe him innocent, and defendant was not even sworn of the present evidence, at the time of trial, and although he made every effort for all the evidence he could possibly get, he did not succeed in discovering the evidence he now asks the Court to introduce, and that it was no lack of proper diligence on his part, in failing to obtain it.

That among other things his little daughter, who had not been spoken to as the subject was ready to take the stand the moment she arrived, but Court adjourned, and thereupon it was afterwards commented upon that the story had been drilled in her mind.

Defendant's Character is irreproachable; the Character of complainant is bad. When complainant was once arrested - a short while ago - for striking a woman with an axe, defendant paid his expenses and defendant's present counsel obtained the acquittal of said complainant.

That complainant's brother - who is also a witness against defendant - is a person of bad character, an ex-convict - and obliged to leave his town in Italy.

That defendant is a married man, with two children, always peacefully engaged in his grocery business, never before arrested.

His wife is and has been in bad health; he provides for all the family; and his store gives them, by the close attention to business, a little living.

Upon all the facts, defendant begs for a new trial.

After a consultation with the Superintendent of the Banking Dept. I think it proper to advise the dismissal of this indictment.
The defendant has discontinued the use of signs & circulars advertising his institution as a bank & appears now to be complying with the law in that respect.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Charles H. Unversack

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this

indictment, accuse

Charles H. Unversack

of a Misdemeanor, —

~~of the crime of~~

committed as follows:

The said

Charles H. Unversack,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- one, — at the City and County aforesaid, being a person engaged in the business of guarding in the said City, not subject to the supervision of the Superintendent of the guarding department, and not required to report to him by the provisions of a certain act of the Legislature of this State entitled "An Act to revise the Statutes of this State relating to banks, banking and trust companies," did unlawfully make use of a certain office sign at the building there situate known as number eight Union Square, the same being the place where such business was transacted, having thereon an artificial name, and words indicating that such place and office was the place and office of a bank, to wit: These words following:

 "The Security Mutual Bank", and did then and there unlawfully make use of and circulate divers letter heads, circulars, and printed, and partly written and partly printed paper, to wit: Ten thousand letter-heads, ten thousand circulars, ten thousand printed pamphlets, and ten thousand printed papers, and ten thousand partly written and partly printed papers, each having thereon the said artificial name, and words indicating that such business was the business of a bank, (a more particular description of which said letter heads, circulars and papers, is to be found among the said materials) against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
