Isaac Sammlson
of No. 122 E Broadway Street, aged 27 years, occupation Manufacturer of Clothing being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 7th day of December 1891 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

A quantity of clothing consisting of childrens overcoats and suits all of the value of Fifty two <sup>50</sup> Dollars the property of Bernstein, Stone & Co of which deponent is a co-partner and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Samuel Sataesky (now known for the reasons that deponent gave said property to defendant to be used by him as samples in selling deponents goods. The defendant did not return but sent a letter to deponent enclosing pawn tickets and stating that he had pawned said samples.

Deponent therefore charges defendant with ~~appropriating~~ appropriating said property to his own use.

Police Court District. Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County of New York, ss: James Fogarty of No. 50 Pike Street, aged 36 years, occupation Stable deposes and says, that on the 7th day of December 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

An Overcoat of the amount and value of ten dollars - Good and lawful money of the United States of the amount of twelve dollars - One English Sovereign of the value of four dollars - and one half American of the value of two dollars and fifty cents - in all of the amount and value of twenty nine dollars and fifty cents ($29.50) the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Richard Tobin (now here) from the following facts to wit: that the aforesaid property was in a closet in a room at the above mentioned premises, and that about the hour of four o'clock A.M. of the aforesaid date deponent missed said property from said closet, and that the defendant after being advised of his rights admitted and confessed to deponent in presence of Officer Thomas Gill of the 15th Precinct Police that he had taken stolen and carried away the aforesaid property, deponent therefore charges the defendant with having committed a Larceny and asks that he may be held and dealt with as the Law may direct.
