The People
vs.
William H. Carr
Court of General Sessions, Part I Before Judge Geldersleeve.
Monday, July 2, 1883. Indictment for assault in the first degree.
Aurice Daley, sworn and examined, testified. Where do you live? No 88 James st. I am a married woman. Do you know Carr, the defendant at the bar? An entire stranger. Upon the 16th of June did he shoot you in this city? Yes sir at 88 James st. in my own home. Will you tell the jury where he shot you? He shot me right here in the abdomen; the ball was taken out in the back in the Chamber St. hospital. How long were you in the Chamber St. hospital? I was there two days. I was brought up to the Court. How long were you laid up? I am now two weeks since Saturday night. Tell the jury how this man came to shoot at you or to shoot you? My husband and I were in the room together sitting and it was just beginning to get dark, and all of a sudden the man appeared and the flash came across my husband, past his face. I turned my back, and as I got my back turned, I got the shot in there (pointing to the abdomen).

POOR QUALITY

0153

The words he said were, "that is my wife."
After he went down stairs he said, "I made a mistake. That is not my wife." Did he point the pistol at you? Yes sir.
Who was present? My husband, he was sitting. Did you give him any provocation? No, the man was an entire stranger. Cross Examined.
This occurred in my own home 88.
James St. Is that a boarding or a lodging house? I have a furnished room there. I left it since. There are several people staying there who have furnished rooms? Yes sir, not a great number.
Several others? Yes sir. What time of night was this? Half past eight. It was dark in the room was it not? Nearly dark. Was it not too dark for you to recognize the man who shot you? I was in conversation with my husband, and the first thing I saw was the pistol; I had not time to recognize the man, it was so sudden. As soon as he fired, he went away? Yes sir. The pistol was silver and you could see it. Before you were shot, did you see any pistol pointed at you? Yes, just a glance like that. The man was an

ORIGINAL

0154 entire stranger to me, I never saw the man in my life before, and never saw him until after he was arrested.

Where were you sitting in the room, were you sitting up? Yes sir, I was sitting on the side of the bed and my husband was sitting there (pointing) and I was sitting here, and he presented the pistol at the foot of the bed and fired it. I was sitting on the side of the bed, I was not undressed. You could not say that the man pointed the pistol at you; all you can say is the ball struck you. The ball struck me.
You could not say that the man deliberately pointed the pistol at you to shoot you? The man came in with the pistol and I knew the man whenever I went down stairs because the man that had the house he was the one that arrested him, that got hold of him.
Richard Daley sworn and examined testified: You are the husband of the last witness and live at 88 James St?
Yes sir. Upon Saturday the 16th of June at 8 1/2 o'clock at night did you see this man shoot your wife? Is that the man (pointing to the prisoner) that is the man.

0155

Did you see him point the pistol at her?
Yes sir, he pointed his pistol. Did he say anything immediately after he shot your wife? He said, "that is my wife." Those are the only words. Did he say anything relative to this shooting in the police Court? I don't mind about that. I cannot tell about that. Cross Examined. I am quite positive that the prisoner is the man that fired the pistol. You never saw him before that night? I did not see him before that night. Was the place dark? There was a light in the next room. Kind of dusk in the room I was in. In the moment this man appeared whoever it was he fired did he? Yes sir. Before you saw the revolver was your wife shot? I did not take notice of the pistol at all. I only saw the flash and heard the report.
I saw the pistol and heard the report.
Did you see any one level that pistol at your wife and fire? Yes sir. How long did you see the pistol levelled at your wife before you saw the flash and heard the report. Just right away.
I heard the flash. Was that door closed?
No sir. When the man walked straight into the room and fired immediately? Yes sir. Do you think that the man who fired that revolver took any aim? I think he did. Did you see him shoot? Yes sir. Did you see which way it was pointing? Yes, pointing straight toward me and my wife, pointed to both. I put my hand to my eye and I thought I was shot. Was he a stranger to you? Yes sir. You don't know any reason why he should shoot you? No.

Thomas Tierney, sworn and examined, testified. You are an officer of the fourth precinct. When did you arrest this man? On June 16th. What time of night? In the neighborhood of between eight and nine o'clock. Where did you arrest him? In 1866 Oliver St. That is where the man lived. You heard that there was somebody wounded? Yes sir. And you went for this man and arrested him? Yes sir. What did he say when you arrested him? He says, "I have not done anything out of the way officer. I said, 'Didn't you shoot a woman in James St.?' He says, 'No.' I fetched him around to James St., and when he seen this woman, he said, 'That aint my wife.' Did he say anything about making a mistake? He admitted in the station house he said he made a mistake, it was the wrong woman. Cross Examined Officer, do you know this man was a sailor.

I do not, sir. Do you know now? I heard he has been a sailor. Only arrived home a couple of days before the shooting took place?
I could not tell you how long he has been here. You don't know anything about that?
No. [Mr. O'Byrne: That is the people's case.] William H. Carr, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. Carr, how old are you? Fifty three. Have you been a seafaring man most of your life?
Yes sir. Where you married in this city?
Yes sir. When? Close on three years ago.
Where you at sea before that? Yes sir. After you were married did you go away again to sea? Yes sir. How many days before this shooting took place had you returned to the city? Four or five days.
What position had you on board of ^{the} vessel?
That you were in? Steward. That vessel was it? The Ephraim Williams. As steward on that vessel were you entitled to carry a revolver? The Captain knew that I had it. Last January I was laying over in Brooklyn, the same vessel I came home in, and I loaned my revolver to

0158 young man over there. When did you get this revolver? I bought this when I came home. How many days before the shooting? Several days. It was ~~not~~ five days. Who did you buy that revolver to place one that you had on board the vessel? Yes sir. When you came home this last time did you go to see your wife? Yes sir. Did you find her? Yes sir. In what condition was she as regards having any goods or possessions? She was ragged and she was sick. Had you given her money before you had gone away to see the last time? Yes sir. How long had you been to sea? The last time I was five months. When you came back this last time did you provide for your wife? Yes sir. Who did you go to see in that room where the shooting took place that night? To see my wife. How came you to go to that room? I was told that she was there. In consequence of what you heard you went there? Yes sir. When you came back from sea was it in that house you found your wife? Yes sir. When you went to that room did you believe that that was the room that you found your wife in that house when you returned? I thought it was. And you

0159 were also told that she was there? Yes sir.

Had you provided a room for her elsewhere?
Yes sir, at 66 Oliver St. I gave her money to buy clothes, she was ragged. I was ashamed to walk in the streets with her. I gave her fifty dollars and ten dollars. When you went back to your rooms that you paid for did you find your wife there?
No sir. Did you make any enquiries as to where she was? No sir. You did not see anybody with her? No. Were you under the impression when you fired this shot that your wife was in that room?
Yes sir. With anybody? Yes sir. Why did you fire that shot? I wanted to scare so that she would never come near me any more. Did you take any aim at any one when you fired the shot?
I fired against the wall. Did you take any aim at any one when you fired that shot? No sir. You say your object in shooting was simply to scare your wife. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree. The defendant at the request of his counsel was remanded till Thursday for sentence.
