Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Henry Smith

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

— Henry Smith —

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A ROOM TO BE USED FOR GAMBLING PURPOSES, committed as follows:

The said

Henry Smith.

late of the 21st Ward of the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid, on the thirteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty eight, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep a certain room in a certain building, there situate, to be used for gambling purposes, to wit: to be used for the purpose of therein conducting a certain gambling game commonly called "policy," where money and property was dependent upon the result, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

— Henry Smith —

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A ROOM TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF SELLING
LOTTERY POLICIES THEREIN, committed as follows:

The said

Henry Smith.

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain room in a certain building there situate, to be used for the purpose of therein selling and offering to sell what are commonly called Lottery Policies, and divers writings, papers, and documents in the nature of bets, wagers and insurances upon the drawing or drawn numbers of certain public and private lotteries, and of therein endorsing and using books and other documents for the purpose of enabling divers persons to sell and offer to sell lottery policies and other such writings, papers and documents, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

— Henry Smith —

of the CRIME OF SELLING TO ANOTHER WHAT IS COMMONLY KNOWN AS A LOTTERY POLICY, committed as follows :

The said Henry Smith,

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to one George R. Pearce, a certain paper, instrument and writing, commonly called a Lottery Policy, which said paper, instrument and writing, called a Lottery Policy, is as follows, that is to say :

OK 13

11 47 74
J 15

(a more particular description of which said instrument and writing so commonly called a Lottery Policy is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

FOURTH COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

— Henry Smith —

of the CRIME OF SELLING A PAPER AND WRITING, IN THE NATURE OF A BET AND WAGER UPON THE DRAWN NUMBERS OF A LOTTERY, committed as follows :

The said Henry Smith,

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to one George R. Pearce, a certain paper and writing, in the nature of a bet and wager upon the drawn numbers of a certain lottery, the same being a scheme for the distribution of property by chance among persons who had paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for such chance (a more par-particular description of which said lottery is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), which said paper and writing is as follows, that is to say:

Q 13
11 47 74 910

(a more particular description of which said paper and writing is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity,

FIFTH COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Henry Smith —

of the CRIME OF SELLING A WRITING PAPER AND DOCUMENT IN THE NATURE OF AN INSURANCE UPON THE DRAWING OF A LOTTERY, committed as follows:

The said Henry Smith —

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterward, to wit: On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously did sell to one George C. Pease, —

a certain paper, writing and document in the nature of an insurance upon the drawing of a certain lottery, the same being a scheme for the distribution of property by chance among certain persons who had paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for such chance (a more particular description of which said lottery is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), which said paper, writing and document is as follows, that is to say:

Q 13
11 47 74 910

(a more particular description of which said paper, writing and document is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

The People
 vs. Mattie Smith { Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Martine. Aug. 6. 1888.
 Indictment for larceny.

Emile Sonnenberg sworn. I am an engineer, I saw Mattie Smith about half past four on the 30th of June; she was on the stoop of a house in Greene St.; she called me and asked me if I had any money? I said, 'yes' she said, "Come up stairs." I said, "All right." I went into the room, I took my pants off. I had fifteen dollars in one pocket and $1.50 in another. I had not my pantaloons all off, I had them up to the knees. I took the fifteen dollars out to pay her half a dollar and put it back again. I am sure I put it in my pocket. I went to bed with the defendant; she said, "Put your arms under my neck." I was not drunk. There was a light in the room although the shutters were closed. I did not see anybody in the room. Afterwards, when I was done, when I put my pants on, I felt in my pocket, and three girls came in. I felt for my money before they came in and it was gone. They asked me what was the matter? I said, nothing. I went to the Mercer St. Station house. I told the Captain or Sergeant and he told me to come back at eight o'clock. I came back and went to the place with officers, but there was no girls.

There at all. We could not find the girl, the place was empty. They ordered me to go home again. The next time I saw the defendant was in Jefferson Market Court about two or three days after. Between this time there came two women to my place and offered me the money back. I had never seen the women before. I had no conversation with the defendant after I missed the money. I just came from my work that afternoon when she robbed me. Cross Examined I paid her a silver half dollar. I did not go up the stoop and ask her any question; she asked me if I had any money? I did not take off my vest and coat and went to bed with my boots on. I was in bed about ten minutes. I am a married man; my wife is not in Court. I live at 352, Tenth St. in this city. The girl locked the door when we went into the room. I don't know what she did with the key. It is not true that I got up out of bed and let three women into the room. I put the money back in the same pocket I took it out of - the hip pocket. I have the same pantaloons on now; they were halfway down the knees. I felt on the outside of the pocket that the money was gone. I did not look on the bed or on the floor to see if my money was there. I will swear positively that it was in my pocket, that I put it back there. Officer Sullivan arrested her a day or two afterwards.

John J. Sullivan sworn. I am an officer and arrested the defendant. I went to her room in Bleeker St. and told her the complainant charged her with robbing him of some money. She said she would not go to the State Prison for what other people had done. I says, "Who did it?" She said, Emma Harris. I asked her where she was, and she said Emma must have been in the closet. There was an old fashioned closet in the room. I went to the room; the closet was directly opposite the bed. Cross Examined. She admitted that she solicited the man to go to her room; she told me the name of the girl who she said took the money, "Brocky Emma". I was informed that she went to Philadelphia. The defendant told me she met the man and brought him to her room, but, said she, I am not going to the State Prison for what another girl done. I told her the man told me there was nobody else in the room but you; she said these other girls must have been in the closet. I asked her who it was and she told me Emma Harris. I says, Is that Brocky Emma? and she said, 'yes'.

Mattie Smith, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. I live at 191 Bleeker st. the officer arrested me at my room and told me he had a charge against me for robbing a man. I says, "I am not going to State prison for another person; the complainant spoke to me on the stoop of 196 Greene St. he asked me how much I wanted? I told him one dollar and he reduced it to 50 cents. He locked the door and took the key and undressed himself. He took his pants off; he gave me fifty cents and I did not see any other money. I did not steal his money. I said it must have been Emma Harrison must have taken it; I don't know how I came to say that except she was the first one in the room. There were others came into the room beside her. He was not dressed when these three other women came in the room; he was washing his hands in a basin of water. This was Saturday afternoon and I was arrested Monday afternoon between four and five o'clock. I work as a chamber maid. I have never been convicted of stealing. Estelle Brown, Grace Fox and Emma Harris are the names of the girls.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Max Spiess
of the CRIME OF FORGERY IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Max Spiess, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid having in his possession a certain instrument and writing, to wit: a certain promissory note for the payment of money which said promissory note is as follows, that is to say:

$400⁰⁰/₁₀₀ New York May 16th 1888
Three months after date
I promise to pay to the order of Max Spiess four hundred ⁰⁰/₁₀₀ Dollars at 525 W 41 St in New York
Value received
No. 56 Due 8/19.88 R. S. Spiess on the back of which said promissory note there was then and there written a certain forged instrument and writing commonly called an endorsement of the said last-mentioned promissory note which said forged instrument and writing, commonly called an endorsement is as follows, that is to say:

"S. S. Kendfeld & Co"

with force and arms, the said forged endorsement then and there feloniously did utter, dispose of and put off as true, with intent to defraud, he the said Max Spiess, then and there well knowing the premises, and that the said endorsement was forged, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

DIRECTIONS.

The Grand Jury Rooms are in the third story of the large brown stone building in Chambers Street, near the New Court House in the Park.

When you arrive at the witness room, hand this Subpoena to the officer or clerk at the desk.

[SEE OTHER SIDE FOR OTHER DIRECTIONS.]

SUBPOENA FOR A WITNESS TO ATTEND THE GRAND JURY OF THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

The People of the State of New York.

To J. M. Anderson

of No. 140 South 12th Street, Philadelphia

GREETING :

WE COMMAND YOU, That all business and excuses ceasing, you appear in your proper person, at the Grand Jury Room, in the third story of the Sessions Building adjoining the New Court House in the Park, in the City of New York, on the thirtieth day of August instant, at the hour of 10¹/₂ in the forenoon of the same day, to testify the truth and to give evidence before the GRAND JURY, touching a certain complaint then and there pending against

John Doe
And this you are to omit, under the penalty of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars.

WITNESS, Hon. FREDERICK SMYTH, Recorder at the City Hall, in our said City, the first Monday of August in the year of our Lord 1888.

0579

Should the case not be called on for trial, and no reason assigned in Court, please inquire in the District Attorney's Office about it, and you may save time.

If inconvenient to remain, and you prefer another day, state this early to the District Attorney, in the Court.

If ill, when served, please send timely word to the District Attorney's Office.

If you know of more testimony than was produced before the Magistrate, or if a fact which you think material was not there brought out, please state the same to the District Attorney or one of his assistants.

It appearing to my satisfaction by the affidavit of

John D. Sweeney, Deputy Assistant District Attorney, that the evidence of

J. M. Anderson
mentioned in the within Subpoena, is material and his attendance before the Grand Jury is necessary as a witness on the part of the People.

I do hereby order and require the said

J. M. Anderson
to attend before the Grand Jury in obedience to the requirements of the within subpoena.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE
OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

-----X
: The People of the State of New York:
: against
: Edward F. Stewart.
: -----X

City and County of New York ss.

Charles E. Hadden, of No. 102 South Fifth Avenue, in the City of New York, carpenter and builder, being duly sworn, says, upon information and belief, as follows:

That at an election for trustees of the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal Church, a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York, held on the evening of the 4th day of December, 1882, Edward F. Stewart, above named, having received a majority of votes cast, was duly elected a trustee of the said church, and at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of said church, held on the evening of the 8th day of December, 1884 for the purpose of electing officers, the said Edward F. Stewart, having received the majority of votes cast, was duly elected Treasurer of said Board of Trustees.

That in the month of October, 1884, there was an indebtedness existing against the said church corporation amounting to the sum of eleven thousand one hundred dollars as follows:

1st. A bond and mortgage executed to Mrs.
Ann Way for the sum of five thousand dollars $5000.00

2d. Three separate trustee's notes for one thousand dollars each to John D. Slayback, Lewis E. Harker, and Richard P. Berrien 3000.00

3d. A bond and mortgage executed ^{and} to Hester ~~Xo~~ ^{to} ~~Wm. Anderson~~ Bussing, bearing date Aug. 23d, 1862 and subsequently transferred to ~~J. W.~~ ~~Anderson~~ and by his executors to J.
M. Anderson 3100.00

That during the same month of October, 1884, a subscription list for the purpose of paying off this indebtedness was started and circulated through the church congregation, and in response thereto an amount sufficient to pay the indebtedness was raised, which sum was duly placed in the hands of said Edward F.
Stewart as such Treasurer..

That, pursuant to his duties and in accordance with the purpose of the collection, on December 20th, 1884, the said Edward F. Stewart paid Ann Way her mortgage of five thousand dollars with four months and twenty days' interest at six per cent, and discharged the same of record, and on the 14th day of October, 1884, the said Edward F. Stewart paid the three notes of one thousand dollars each to John D.

Slayback, Lewis E. Harker and Richard P. Berrien, with interest of five months and fourteen days on each.

That, between the 19th day of March, 1885, and the 20th of April, 1885, he, the said E. F. Stewart, entered in his books as such Treasurer, as item as follows:

"By bond and mortgage canceled, $3100,"
thereby meaning that he as such Treasurer had at some time between these last mentioned days duly paid to the said Anderson the amount of said bond and mortgage.

Whereas said bond and mortgage has not yet been paid and is now in the hands of the said J. M. Anderson, to whom said Edward F. Stewart has paid interest up to the month of March, 1888.

By reason of the falsification of his books, the church trustees were not aware of the premises until said Edward F. Stewart failed in the payment of the interest, upon which said J. M. Anderson, the holder of the mortgage communicated with Rev. John Rhey Thompson, Pastor of the church, and through him with the Board of Trustees. That the corporation herein mentioned was incorporated about the year 1841 by the name of the Sullivan St. M. E. Church, and its name was duly changed about the year 1870 to the Washington Square M. E. Church.
That deponent is now and at all the times mentioned herein was a member of the said Board of Trustees, and his information as to the matters herein stated is derived, as well from his personal knowledge the official records as to said incorporation, the as also from the books of said corporation, and from conversations with the said J. M. Anderson.

Wherefore, deponent charges the said Edward F.

Stewart with having feloniously appropriated the said sum of $3100 to his own use, the same being in his possession, custody and control as an officer, to wit, the Treasurer as aforesaid of the said corporation, with intent to defraud and deprive said corporation of the same and of the use and benefit thereof, and prays that he be dealt with according to law.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

-----X
: The People of the State of New York :

-----X

City and County of New York ss.

James M. Anderson, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he resides at 148 St. and Gordon Ave. New York City in the State of New York; that he is the holder of a ~~certain bond and mortgage executed by the Sullivan~~ Washington Square Methodist Episcopal Church to Hester Bussing, ~~to~~ J. W. Anderson, bearing date the 23d day of August, 1862, which said bond and mortgage were thereafter transferred to ~~J. W. Anderson~~ W. Anderson and by the executors of the said J. W. Anderson ~~to this deponent~~, of the face value of $3100; ~~the same covering the property now held by the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal Church which was secured~~ that the said bond and mortgage are now and at all times after the execution of the same have been in full force and effect and in no manner satisfied, and there is now due and owing to deponent thereon, as the lawful holder thereof the sum of $3100 with interest from March 15, 1888.

Deponent has read the foregoing affidavit of Charles E. Hadden, wherein it is said that one Edward F. Stewart, the Treasurer of the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal Church "entered in his books as such Treasurer an item, as follows:

By bond and mortgage canceled, $3100,

thereby meaning that he as such Treasurer had at some time between these last mentioned days duly paid to the said Anderson the amount of said bond and mortgage." Deponent says that said entry is in all things utterly false and untrue; that the said Edward F. Stewart has not at any time paid to this deponent any sum of money whatsoever either in payment or part payment of said bond and mortgage; but has, on the contrary, since the said time and continuously up to the month of March, 1888, recognized the said bond and mortgage as continuing in force and operation and has regularly paid the interest thereon up to the said last mentioned time.

1888,

That in the month of March, aforesaid the said Stewart failed to pay the interest then due upon the said bond and mortgage, whereupon deponent communicated this fact to the Pastor of the said church.

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- five — at the City and County aforesaid, being then and there an officer, to wit: the treasurer, of a certain corporation then and there duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York, and called and known as the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal Church, of the City of New York, and as such officer and treasurer of the said corporation then and there having in his possession, custody and control, certain moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said corporation, the true owner thereof, to wit: the sum of three thousand and one hundred dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of three thousand and one hundred dollars, and divers other property, evidences of debt, and articles of value, of a nature and kind to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and a more particular description whereof can not therefore now be given, of the value of three thousand and one hundred dollars, he, the said Edward F. Stewart, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, did feloniously appropriate the said moneys, property, evidences of debt and articles of value, of the moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said corporation, to his own use, with intent to deprive and defraud the said corporation of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof; and the same moneys, goods, chattels and personal property did then and there and thereby feloniously steal; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
