COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS-Part III.

The People of the State of New York, : Before Hon. Fred-against : erick Smyth, and WILLIAM F. COLES, impleaded with Char- : a Jury. les Gardner, and George Storms. :
----- :

Indictment filed September 27th 1889.

Indicted for Burglary in the 2nd Degree.

New York, October 1st 1889.

APPEARANCES: For the People Asst. Dist. Atty. Dawson.
For the defendant Mr. R. H. Racey.

JOHN COTTRELL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of Police attached to the Central office. I know the defendant. I arrested him recently. On the 14th of September myself and Detective Aloncle arrested this defendant in Bleecker St. and in his pocket we found a pocket book; we charged him with this burglary in South 5th Avenue. The defendant afterwards made a statement regarding the burglary to Detective Hanley which he took in writing. . . We arrested this man first as a suspicious person. He told me that he knew a burglary had been committed but that he was not in it, and had nothing to do with it. We went to his room and found some of the property.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The defendant told us that he was not concerned in the burglary, but that some of the stuff was in his room. The pocket book which we found on the defendant was a brand new one. We were informed that there had been a burglary at No. 59 So. 5th Ave. and I went there and investigated it. The scuttle on the roof appeared as though a jimmy had been used on it . . . The statement which was made by the defendant was taken down in writing by Detective Hanley while he was present .

CHARLES A. HANLEY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified ;

I am a detective sergeant attached to Police Headquarters in this city . This defendant was brought into headquarters by Detectives Cottrell and Aloncle . I took down the statement he made in writing . It was read to him after it was taken down . I afterwards went to his rooms at No. 35 Clinton Place on the 3rd floor and found five or six pocket book and an alligator bag . I found these things in the bottom part of the wash stand . I took the property to Police Headquarters and it was identified by Mr. Hacker whose place had been broken into .

The pocket book found on the defendant was also identified by Mr . Hacker as part of his property stolen from him .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The defendant did tell me that these goods had been brought to his rooms by the two other defendants who have been disposed of . He said that Gardner and Storms knew about the burglary; and he denied being implicated in it .

JOSEPH C. HACKER, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I reside at No. 100 Sumner Avenue Brooklyn . My place of business is at No. 59 So. 5th Ave. N. Y. On the morning of the 10th of September when I came to my office I found that the roof had been opened during the night and the place entered . I identified the property which the officers have spoken about . . I was not in the city when the burglary was committed .

The following statement made by the defendant to Detective Hanley was read in evidence:

WILLIAM F. COLE, 35 Clinton Place says: for the past three years I have been employed as a waiter on Coney Island . On Monday September 9th I left Coney Island and came to this city . About two o'clock on the afternoon of September 9th 1889, I was standing on the corner of South 5th Avenue and Bleecker St. and then and there met Charles Gardner. He told me that he had no place to sleep . I told him that I intended to remain in this city for about a week and that I would go and hire a room and he could sleep there . I hired a room on the 2nd floor of No. 35 Clinton Place and he came to live with me , and he came and slept there . At 10 o'clock on the night of the 9th of September I went to the room and went to bed .
About two o'clock on the morning of the 10th of September Gardner came to my room and said that he had some stuff and wanted to leave it there; I told him if the stuff was allright he could do so . He said that the stuff was all right and that he would take it away in the morning . . On Tuesday m. rning Jake Robert came to my room and said that he had been uptown to see if he could dispose of the stuff . which I afterwards ascertained was pocket books, and that he could not agree on a price. He took two stacks of pocket books and carried them away from the premises .
On Sept. 11th a woman came and took Gardners share to a place in Leroy St. and received 32 dollars from a man named Miller &c.

WILLIAM F. COLE? the defendant, called on his own behalf, testified:

I am a waiter by occupation . I had been working at Coney Island during the summer . I left Coney Island On Monday the 9th of September . I was standing on the corner of Bleecker St. and So. 5th Ave. that day when I met this man Gardner and we went and hired a room together in Clinton Place . . I had roomed with him before . I went to bed that night; and I was awakened by him coming in and saying that he had some stuff to leave there . He said the stuff was all right and that he would take it away in the morning . The two men Gardner and Storms had some quarrell over the division of the stuff in the room . I did not know at that time that it was pocket books . I did not participate at all in this burglary .
Gardner gave me the pocket book which was found on me as a present . . I have never been arrested before .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I worked for different men as a waiter in the city of New York . . I hired the room in Clinton Place only for one week . I did not know the man that I was rooming with was a thief or a burglar . I did not know anything about the business of any of these men and was not connected with them in any way . I paid the rent of the room in Clinton Place in advance .

The jury returned a verdict of Guilty of Burglary in the 3rd Degree .

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS Part III.

The PEOPLE &c. against

WILLIAM F. COLE, impleaded with Charles Gardner and George Storms.

Abstract of testimony on trial, New York October 1st 1889.

WILLIAM F. COLE, the defendant, called on the witness stand, and testified as follows:

0505

Police Court— District.

City and County } ss.: of New York,of No. 59 South 5th Avenue Street, aged 50 years,occupation Manufacturer being duly sworndeposes and says, that the premises No. 59 South 5th Avenue Street, 15th Wardin the City and County aforesaid the said being a five story brickbuilding in part and which was occupied by Deponent as a Manufactury of leather goods and in which there was at the time no human being,were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly prying the scuttle off of the roof of said premises with jammerson the 9th day of September, 1889, in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:A quantity of manufactured leather goods consisting of pocket books, card cases and travelling bags, together of the value of at least seven hundred dollars.the property of Deponent.and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away byCharles Gardner, George Storms and William F. Cole (all named) and an unknown man not yet arrested.

for the reasons following, to wit:

that at about the hour 6 o'clock 9th September 1889 deponent's factory at no 59 South 5th Avenue was locked and closed for the night, and at that time the scuttle in the roof of said premises was securely fastened and on the following morning September 10th deponent and his employees discovered that said premises had been entered through the scuttle as aforesaid and the above described property taken 0506 stolen and carried away from said premises.

Deponent is informed by Detective Sergeant Charles Hanley that he arrested the defendants, Gardner Storrs and Cole in suspicion of having committed said burglary, and in searching Cole he the said Hanley found a leather pocket book in his possession in his prison, and in searching the said premises the premises No 35 Clinton Place New York City he the said Hanley found a number of leather pocket books and one leather travelling bag, and that he the said Cole then admitted to him the said Hanley in the presence of Detective Sergeant George Almer that Gardner Storrs and the said unknown man not yet arrested had committed said burglary and had brought the property stolen to his holes room.
Deponent is further informed by Thomas Troutat that he Troutat saw the defendant Storrs and another man in the cellar of the premises No 61 South 5th Avenue at 5.30 O'clock A.M. Sept 10th Deponent further says that he found a number of leather bags which he identified as his property in the cellar of 61 South 5th Avenue where Troutat saw the defendant Storrs and the unknown man, and that Deponent fully identifies the leather bags and pocket books found in the room and in the possession of Cole as his property.
Wherefore Deponent charges the said defendants And said unknown man not arrested with being together and acting in concert with each other and burglariously entering said premises as aforesaid and feloniously taking stealing and carrying away therefrom the property of the said Storrs to be true and

Court of General Sessions of the Peace OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AGAINST

Bernard Liddy

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Bernard Liddy

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Bernard Liddy late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Nellie Anson of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said Nellie Anson, whose husband was then under arrest and in custody upon a criminal charge,

That he the said Bernard Liddy was a lawyer, and could secure the discharge and release from custody of the husband of the said Nellie Anson, if he would pay him the sum of forty dollars.

0530

And the said Nellie Anson then and their believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Bernard Hilday and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Bernard Hilday the sum of forty dollars in money lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of forty dollars, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said

Nellie Anson

And the said Bernard Hilday did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said Nellie Anson by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Nellie Anson of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Bernard Hilday was not a lawyer, and could not secure the discharge of the said husband of the said Nellie Anson, and his release from custody; if she the said Nellie Anson would pay him the said Bernard Hilday the said sum of forty dollars.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Bernard Hilday to the said Nellie Anson was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said Bernard Hilday
at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Bernard Hilday
in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Nellie Anson then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Bernard Hildery

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this

Indictment accuse Bernard Hildery of the crime of Extortion,

committed as follows:

The said Bernard Hildery late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the fifteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, at the City and County aforesaid, the sum of two dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of two dollars, of the paper money and personal property of one Isaac Reigintz, feloniously and extortionally obtained from the said Isaac Reigintz, with his consent, induced by a wrongful use of fear, to wit: fear then and there induced by him the said Bernard Hildery by a threat by him then and there made to the 0534 said Isaac Seligman, to accuse him of the crime of practicing physic

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Bernard Biddery
of the CRIME of Oppression,

committed as follows:

The said Bernard Biddery, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully and maliciously pretend to one Isaac Bidgonty that he the said Bernard Biddery was then a public officer, to wit: a member of the Municipal Police of the City of New York, and so pretending did then and there unlawfully and maliciously under pretense and color of official authority, arrest the said Isaac Bidgonty and detain him against his will upon a supposed charge of violation of laws without the license and registration provided for by laws in force in New York and in fact the said Bernard Biddery was not then a public officer, or a member of 0536

0580

New York Oct 2/89
Mr. Col. Fellows
I did not get a chance to state my case to you today as I wanted to but I will try to elicit to you in writing as near as possible the facts of the case and another time of the day came to me in great distress and I open my heart and taken them in arms as they were sleeping in Halls at the time and I try to share the part of my comfort with them and they stayed with me a month at that time and never gave me a penny at that time I was staying with Mr. Pollin and was only home at night and at that time there were two married couples staying at my house and I cannot be responsible for anything that was done during my absence as I know there was nothing done 0581

whilst I was there I had other people trunks in my house and quite likely they may have taken advantage of them were anything left in the trunks and also I was Rob two months after Christmas and when I was Rob I applied to Captain Kellie and had him to search my house and there trunks were open as well as mine when the officer search the house what I lost of money up would be about 150 dollars when I got Rich was out working and when I got home my Room was broke down and my things gone and applied at once but nothing could be found and that was why I moved away from there at once and this Jim Jackson said I could not found but Isaac got hidden for I every night on my equator 45th St Sold Corn ~~Highway~~ ^{the} on the Street and also I lived in 40th St and I was always in church as I am an Secret order and I don't think it was hard to find me as I was and I sold sanctimonious during the centennial 0582 always at church and also since I been in new york in every place I been employed I can get the best of reference and also before I come to new york I can get reference from place I work in Jersey of nereany for the last 24 years I support him and his mother and when ever I gave him money to pay the rent he would go off and gambling it and has often threaten to kill me if I did not live with him also how would you things I would steal from him when he had nothing only what I gave him and when they left my house as I could not keep them any longer on free gratitude they call me all the names they could think of and cursed me and told me they would get even with me but little did I 0583

I think this is what they meant and I told them to take their trunks and also I met his brother on the street about 7 months afterwards and told her and she said she would when she got good a ready and also I was taken sick with pneumonia a two or three times and of course I had to have strangers about my house to take care of me and I don't know what could have taken place as I did not suppose that I had thieves around me and also I do not write this simply for to clear myself as I know I did not steal from them I work for the Best and richest of families if I wanted to steal I could steal from them not from people that did not have as much as me self and if you will inquire for my sake the character of Jim Jackson from any officers that wants to they will tell you what he is please look after this for the Lord sake and mine also Mary Green
