TESTIMONY.

Philip E. Doulin M.D. being sworn says: On May 16-1882 at the New York Hospital, eight and a half hours after death. I made an Autopsy on the body of Catharine M<sup>c</sup> Cabe, and found a bullet wound one-eighth of an inch in diameter one-half inch to the left of the median line the back of the neck immediately around the wound was peppered with burnt powder.

The bullet passed upwards and down-wards to the left of the Ligamentum Tuckae and fractured the laminae and spine and body of the 5th Cervical Vertebra.

The bullet after tearing the left side of the spinal cord lodged among the fragments of the body of the 5th Cervical vertebra.

A traumatic abscess of the cord at the seat of injury from which escaped about a quarter of a teaspoonful of pus.

The Dura-mata of the cord was inflamed.

The brain was engorged, the membranes inflamed and the ventricles filled with serum. inflammation more marked around the base of the brain.

The lungs were oedematous, there was calcareous deposit on the arterial valves.

The Liver, Spleen, Stomach and intestines were normal. The Kidneys showed slight granulation.

On arriving there I found Catharine - McCab in the middle room a dark room. She was lying on the floor.

I removed her into the front room with assistance for better light.

On examining I found a pistol shot wound of the back of the neck, three-quarters of an inch to the left of the vertebral column.

The parts around the wound were tumefied.

She was in a state of shock when I found her.

~~There~~ She was in perfect mind when I saw her.

I left her about 5 1/2 P.M. returning in three quarters of an hour. I had requested the policeman present to send for a coroner to take her ante-mortem statement.

At 6 1/2 P.M. the temperature was 96°. the pulse 72 and the respirations 24 and shallow.

I was present at the taking of the ante-mortem statement and she was in the full possession of her mental faculties at that time. I left after the taking of the ante-mortem.

one pocket book containing lawful money
to the amount of one dollar and eighty cents
one lined pocket handkerchief of the value of fifteen cents in all of the value of one dollar and ninety five cents

the property of deponent

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Frank M. Carmack (now here)

from the fact that while deponent was passing along Courtland Street in said city, deponent felt some person push
her from behind immediately thereafter
deponent missed the aforesaid property from the pocket of the Ulster then and there worn by deponent as a part of her bodily clothing. deponent turned around and said defendant who was standing by deponent.
