 on the eleventh day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy-eight~~ eighty-one at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one William D. Hall to whom he
~~the said Plin White then and there applied for~~ ~~a loan of Two hundred and ninety dollars~~ did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said William D. Hall to whom he
~~the said Plin White then and there applied for~~
~~a loan of Five hundred and ninety dollars.~~

That a certain package which was then

EXAMINATION OF SURETY.

State, City and County of New York, ss.:

Autobose Burkhardt being duly sworn, deposes and says:
I am a citizen of the United States of America. I am 55 years of age. I reside in the State of New York, and have so resided 29 years and upwards. My dwelling house is No. 27 Delaney Street, in the City of New York. My wife and family reside with me at that place. My business is that of (no business) and I carry on business as such at No. Street, in the City of New York.

I own real estate in the City of New York. It consists of one house and lot No. 27 Delaney Street, the deed being to my wife and myself.

I paid for that property the sum of $11,500. The land, exclusive of the buildings, which I have above mentioned, is worth at least $6000 or $7000. The buildings are worth at least $6000 or $7000. The title to that property was examined for me by Mr. Batenhoefer now of Delaware Co. Pa. who told me that the title was good. This was about 1872.

The buildings on the above mentioned land are insured against loss by fire as follows:
In the Germania Insurance Company for Eight Thousand Dollars; in the Insurance Company for Thousand Dollars.

By the Policy of Insurance any loss which may accrue on said buildings is made payable to my wife and myself. The conveyance of the land and premises above mentioned was from Charles White, 184 St. Ave. and was recorded in the office of the Register of the County of New York, about 1872. That conveyance is, to my best knowledge and recollection, a Executor's Deed deed. It conveyed the premises to me, in my own right. It is made to me in my individual name, and the title is now, and ever since I purchased the property has remained, in my individual name, and I do not hold said property, or any part of it, or any share or interest of any kind in it, in trust for, or in anywise for the benefit of, any person other than myself. It is absolutely and exclusively my own. That I have made no contract or agreement with any person whatever, to sell or convey said property, and I have no understanding with any one that he is at any time to take the title to said property.

Louis Weiss aged 33 years of No. a tailor residing 347 First Avenue, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that the premises No. 347 First Avenue Street, 16th Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a dwelling and which was occupied by deponent as a dwelling were attempted to be ~~entered~~ BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking open the door leading into a room of said dwelling on the second floor of said premises
 No 347 First Avenue
 on the 29th day of May 1882 and the following property feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, viz.:

Three Coats, three vests and three pair of pantaloons, and other wearing apparel, all of the value of not less than fifty dollars.

the property of Charles Weinger, and then and there in deponent's care and charge, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed, and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by Charles Williams (now here) for the reasons following, to wit: that deponent at about half past twelve o'clock in the afternoon, said day

 deponent caught said Charles Williams, in the act of attempting to forcibly break open said door using therefor a piece of iron, commonly called a jimmy; that then said coats, vests and pantaloons, and other wearing apparel were contained in said room.

City and County of New York ss. Caroline Weip, aged 40 years, married, residing at 347 1/2 First Avenue City of New York, being duly sworn says, I am the wife of Louis Weip the complainant named in foregoing affidavit, on the afternoon of the 29 day of May I was in said house in my room on the second floor of said house when I heard a noise as from breaking of wood. I opened the door and saw the prisoner here present, named Charles Williams standing in front of a door, opening from the hallway ~~and~~ or landing into a room part of our premises; he said Williams had then a piece of Iron in his hand and had the one end thereof inserted in the rings attached to the frame of said door and to said door, to which said rings a padlock was fastened for I identify the prisoner here present as the man who stood then in front of said door with said Iron instrument in his hand as aforesaid. I then called my husband Louis Weip &c.
