The People :
- vs. - : ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE.
John Moran. :
-----x

City and County of New-York, SS.:

John Wynne, the complainant in the above entitled action, being duly sworn, deposes and says: On the 2nd. of July, 1884, I was standing at the door of my saloon, No. 413 East 14' street, when John Moran came along from Avenue A towards my place and said he wanted to come in to get beer; this was about 11 o'clock in the morning; I said no, he could not come in this place; I had prohibited his coming in some time before; he said "Yes, I will"; I said no, and he put his hands on me to get me out of the way, and he struck me in the face with his fist; I hit him back and kicked him out in the street; he grabbed hold of me at the time he struck me; the blow and the kick were almost one motion; I didn't knock him down; I forced him away and I made my way then into my place of business. He stayed around and used all sorts of threatening language, and he said he would break up my place of business and that it would be only a matter of time that he would kill me. I was standing in my own door and he wanted me to go out and fight him but I would not go out; and a friend of his then came and took him away. In the meantime I sent for a policeman and the policeman came, but he was gone. The next time, about half an hour, or near that, he came back again, and I was standing outside the door; he asked me to fight him and I said no, I would not disgrace myself. He was under the influence of liquor as far as I could judge. He then said he would wait for me on the corner and would kill me if I didn't fight him then. There was a crowd around; I started to go around to the private entrance of my house when Moran sprang forward and seized me by the left arm, and immediately I felt stinging sensations on the left side of my neck and under my left ear. He held on to me and I hit him and knocked him down; I felt a shock as if I had been stabbed, and felt pain. I found myself all covered with blood from the neck and arm, and was taken by a policeman to Bellevue Hospital, where my wounds were dressed. I went four times to the hospital to have my wounds dressed ; I was informed that sixteen stitches were put in. I believed at the time Moran tried to kill me. I am told by officer Joyce that Baker picked up a knife on 14' street, near where we stood, covered with blood. I believe that was the knife that inflicted the wounds upon my neck and arm. I knew the defendant, Moran, to be a disreputable character from the fact of his having been in the Penitentiary some time previous, and I had ordered him out of my saloon before this occurrence. James Faye, a witness for the defendant, has been in Sing Sing for highway robbery. I was confined to my bed for four days in consequence of the injuries I received at the hands of Moran, and for two weeks I was not able to attend to my business from loss of blood. I have been approached by several people to withdraw this complaint.

0578
