 Ass. Dist. atty.
 Dear Sir,

Brooklyn, N. Y., January 1, 1882

As counsel for the said John J. Edwards & in accordance with your suggestion to Thos. D. Jones & myself
 I furnish you some of the facts which characterize this complaint as an outrageous persecution.

1. Edwards is an old English gentleman of about sixty-five years, until recently a well known merchant in N. Y. Eight years ago he married complainant Mary Anne Edwards then about 20 years old, by whom he has one child living.
2. Having occasion to go to England about a patent two years ago, he confided his business household property & worth $500 to his wife. Last fall he returned to find that his wife had sold out his business & taken his money furniture & was with it carrying on a boarding house at 311 & 313 St. N. Y.
 where she was creating a great scandal in her immorperance & criminal intimacy & adultery with one of the boarders named Wheelerwright.
3. Three months ago, on Oct. 1/79 he caught his wife &
"Wheelerwright" alone in the dark in a locked room, and the succeeding night his worst suspicions were confirmed & the adultery proved to him by his wife's own talk in her sleep in which she addressed "Wheelerwright" as if she were engaged in the sexual act with Wheelerwright by her own guilty admissions to defile on her waking.
4. Immediately after this talk which confirmed his suspicion.

debt in his rage and disgust - at this disgrace jumped out of bed, seized a small sword cane & inflicted a very slight wound in Complainant's side from which she has suffered no inconvenience at all.

5. This happened six months ago and although debt remained for nearly two months afterwards in Complainant's own room - & meeting her sister's family every day no complaint was ever made against him.

6. Debt was then requested by Complainant & her family to go away either to Boston or England to engage in business and furnished money by them to go - and it was only on Saturday night 31st July 1881 that Complainant found that debt had returned for no other reason than to live in adultery with "Whitworth" that this complaint was made.

7. Complainant & her sisters Jones Love & Cornelia Love, if ever cross examined will perjure of course but cannot admit the material facts as stated above and prove that this is but a persecution to get rid of a witness to their crimes and that Complainant is herself intemperate and an adulteress - & has stolen all of debt's property.

It is very much feared that Complainant will secret her sisters Jones Love & Cornelia Love (now married) and her mother all of whom live with her, so that they can not be found when required as witnesses.

Respectfully yours

J. C. B. May
